SALEM HIGH HAS EDGE IN WRESTLING WITH INDIANS

The Post-Smith and Wright-Jackson matches were the bright lights of last night's card at the Chemawa Indian school...

ed the offensive. The two White brothers, Ellis and Ralph, are among the most promising material which the school has to offer this year...

Coach "Tubby" Hendricks' Salem high grapplers were much faster and showed more science than their opponents...

A short preliminary was staged by boys of the Indian school who did some clever boxing without a decision.

In the first match of the card, Noeske of the high school maintained a stiff defense and held off Hill of the Indian school...

Purdy of the high school proved a comparatively easy victim for Evans of the Indian school, who scored two downs from his Salem opponent.

Ralph White of the Salem high and Williams of the Indian squad afforded the crowd the first real sensation of the evening.

BEARCATS PLAY IN HARD LUCK

Walla Walla Game Described—Oregon Aggies Come Week for Tonight

The most heart-breaking game of the year was that in which the Willamette Bearcats lost by one point, 28 to 27, in their second contest with Whitman at Walla Walla, Saturday night.

Here's an interesting paragraph from a Walla Walla daily: "The game should have been Willamette's. All through the game the Bearcats were playing in hard luck...

Doney was the high point man for the Bearcats, with two field goals and five out of nine free throws, nine points in all.

Willamette held the lead through most of the game, until the last five minutes, when Whitman picked up and led by one point.

The Bearcats passed again, with one point lead, but almost at the last second of the game, Schroeder, the sub-Missionary put in to replace Chandler, who was ruled off the field for personal fouls...

Kundsen, the big Whitman center, who was thrown out of the game here for roughness and personal fouls, played through the series at Walla Walla with no complaint lodged against him.

Chandler, however, was ruled out in the last game for the same brand of foul playing.

Arriving in Bombay Saturday, Prince Aga Khan, spiritual head of the Mohamadians in India, declared he was working his hardest to secure a favorable settlement of the Khalifat question.

Arriving in Bombay Saturday, Prince Aga Khan, spiritual head of the Mohamadians in India, declared he was working his hardest to secure a favorable settlement of the Khalifat question.

With momentary luck in their favor, the missionaries now lead by the comfortable margin of three games to the Bearcats' one.

The teams do not rank that way, however, in ability. A long series would give the two almost absolutely equal rank.

To lose out on pure hard luck, when they fairly earned an even break, is a hard blow to the Bearcats. At present they have won only one game in their conference schedule and lost five.

Pacific University comes to Salem Thursday night for a non-conference game. These annual events, however, are always bitterly fought, and Pacific has a clean record so far this season except for a defeat Saturday by the Chemawa Braves is probably in for a rewarding.

O.A.C. comes to Salem from tonight, with a strong team. One of their players is the huge Hjelte, six feet six inches tall and a sure basketeer.

But last year the Bearcats beat the life out of the Aggies and they may do it again. The O.A.C. game ought to draw the biggest crowd of the year.

Company L Basketeers Defeat Corvallis Five

DALLAS, Or., Feb. 6.—(Special to The Statesman.)—The basketball team of Company L, defender the American Legion team of Corvallis on the local army floor Saturday night by a score of 29 to 9.

One of the largest crowds ever gathered for a basketball game witnessed the contests.

INDIA RIOTING IS CAUSE OF CASUALTIES

It is fair to say that human progress, the growing intimacy of personal contacts and transcending international relationship, developed communications and transportation, amended by a directing world opinion, have set the stage more favorably here. You have met in that calm deliberation and that determined resolution which have made a just peace, in righteousness, its own best guaranty.

Little matters what we apprehend as the outstanding accomplishment. Any one of them alone would have justified the conference. But the whole achievement has so cleared the atmosphere that it will seem like throwing the refreshing air of a new morn of promise.

World Example Set

Not all the world is yet tranquilized. But here is the example, to imbue with new hope all who dwell in apprehension.

And I know our guests will pardon me when I make grateful acknowledgment to the American delegation—to you, Mr. Secretary Hughes; to you, Senator Lodge; to you, Senator Underwood; to you, Mr. Root; to all of you for your able and splendid and highly purposed and untiring endeavors on behalf of our government and its people and to your excellent advisory committee which gave to you so dependable a relex of that American public opinion which charts the course of this republic.

How simple it all has been! When you met here 12 weeks ago there was not a commitment, not an obligation except that which each delegation allows to the government commissioning it.

No Relationship Formed

No intrigue, no offensive or defensive, no involvements have wrought your agreements, but each of your common understandings has made new relationships among governments and peoples, new securities for peace, and new opportunities for achievement and amending happiness.

Invited to and intimate the atmosphere in which you were asked to confer. In a very general way, perhaps, I ventured to express a hope for the things towards which our aspirations led us.

Nations Thanks Expressed

Today it is my greater privilege and even greater pleasure to come to make acknowledgment. It is one of the supreme compensations of life to contemplate a worthy while accomplishment.

It cannot be other than solemnly for me, as the only chief of government so circumstanced as to be able to address the conference, to speak congratulations and to offer the thanks of our nation; our people; perhaps I dare volunteer to utter them for the world. My own gratification is beyond my capacity to express.

This conference has wrought a truly great achievement. It is hazardous sometimes to speak in superlatives and I will be restrained. But will say, with every confidence, that the faith glimpsed here today, kept in national honor, will mark the beginning of a new and better epoch in human progress.

Stripped to the simplest fact, what is the spectacle which has inspired a new hope for the world, gathered about this table nine great nations of the earth—not all, to be sure, but those most directly concerned with the problems at hand—have met and conferred on questions of great important common concern, on problems menacing their peaceful relationship, on burdens threatening a common peril. In the revealing night of public opinion of the world, without surrender of sovereignty, without impaired nationality of any fended pride, a solution has been found in unanimity, and today's adjournment is marked by rejoicing in the things accomplished. If the world has hungered for new assurance, it may feast at this banquet, which the conference has spread.

It is not pretended that the pursuit of peace and the limitations of armaments are new concepts, either in settlement of war or in writing the conscience of international relationship. Indeed, it is not new to have met in the realization of war's supreme penalties. The Hague conventions are examples of the one, the conference of Vienna, of Berlin, of Versailles, are outstanding instances of the other.

Stage Setting Proprieties

The Hague conventions were defeated by the antagonism of one strong power whose indisposition

BENNY LEONARD IS TRAINING FOR BOUT

Benny Leonard is here shown working out for his title bout with Rocky Kansas in Madison Square Garden on February 10. The "training stick" or road cane, carried by Benny is of many small pieces of leather strung on a light steel rod, and the head is of gold. It was recently presented to him by George (Kid) Lavigne, who was lightweight champion from 1899 to 1902. Lavigne's father was assumed the champion's title from Edward Griguerre, a French admirer.

Mrs. Wurtzburger May Not Be Sent to Colorado

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 6.—John Collier, attorney for Mrs. Alma Louise Wurtzburger, won another round in his fight to have the place of his client's imprisonment changed from Canyon City, Colo., to the state prison at Salem when a telegram granting a ten-day extension to the stay of execution was received yesterday afternoon from the attorney general.

Mrs. Wurtzburger, who was sentenced to 10 years in prison after pleading guilty to killing her husband, a gardener at Chemawa Indian school, is not physically able to stand the high Colorado climate Collier contends.
