

SOCIETY

By MARGUERITE GLEESON

ST. Valentine's birthday—the time of pretty and thoughtful remembrances for friends and dear ones, whether that thought takes the form of letters, confections or flowers—that season is here. At the gay round of parties, the clever hostesses and club women are making use of the motifs which mean St. Valentine to all, both old and young.

February, while the shortest month varies with it perhaps the most varied of occasions for parties and pleasures from the feast of St. Valentine to the charming colonial parties which form the instruction for much entertainment.

Society, with all the busy entertaining of the late winter is finding time to devote to a musical festival such as is seldom considered possible in a town the size of Salem, but those who know the musical appreciation and abilities of Salem folks are working with a will and determination to make it a success.

At a quiet wedding at the Congregational parsonage last Sunday at noon, Mrs. Lillian Hartshorn and Alexander Robertson of Condon were married by Rev. W. C. Kantner. The attendants were Mrs. John F. Lau and Jack Mulligan.

The bride wore an embroidered blue tulle and lace gown and a corsage bouquet of lilies and roses. Dinner was served at the Spa following the wedding service. Pink carnations were used on the table and dainty place cards marked the places for the few guests. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Robertson, Dr. and Mrs. Kantner, Miss Laverne Kantner, Miss Constance Kantner, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Thissen of Turner; Mrs. Lau, Mr. Mulligan, Mrs. F. P. Talkington, Miss Cora Talkington.

Your Daughter's Corseting Is Important

ton, Miss Della Shrader, E. J. Cellars.

A reception was held for the couple at the F. P. Talkington home during the afternoon. Mrs. Robertson, during a short residence in Salem, has made many friends. She has been organist for some time at the First Congregational church which position she recently resigned.

Mr. and Mrs. Robertson left later in the evening for Portland and will be at home to their friends at their home in Condon where Mr. Robertson is a prominent business man.

AMILITARY ball, sponsored by Salem folks who desire to give to Salem society a formal military affair such as has not been given here in many years will be an event of the post-Easter time. The ball, elaborate in setting and sponsored by prominent military men of Oregon, will be a benefit affair for the American War Mothers, the money to go toward their ex-service men's ward in the new hospital.

Definite plans for the ball are being made and announcements of a date as well as those who will lend their aid and support will be given out soon, according to those making the plans.

THE women of the First Congregational church were received by Mrs. Dan Fry Friday afternoon from 2 until 5. Receiving with Mrs. Fry were Mrs. W. C. Kantner and Mrs. William Staiger, president of the Women's Union of the First Congregational church. Mrs. Raymond Walsh was assistant hostess for the affair.

The dining room was prettily decorated with red carnations and lighted with red candles in silver holders. The living room was decorated in pink the color scheme being carried out with carnations and smiles. The light from pink candles was used.

During the first hour Mrs. George G. Brown and Mrs. W. D. Clarke poured and later Mrs. William Fleming and Mrs. William McGilchrist poured. This is the first of a series of social affairs planned for the year by the women of the union.

Mrs. Raymond Walsh was a charming hostess Wednesday for a bridge luncheon party. A pretty color scheme of yellow and white was carried out with irises, daffodils and carnations. Mrs. D. J. Fry, Jr. won high score at bridge during the afternoon.

The guests included Mrs. Earl Flegel, Mrs. Walter Scauldning, Mrs. W. D. Clarke, Mrs. C. B. McCullough, Mrs. John McLeod, Mrs. William Mott, Mrs. D. J. Fry, Jr., Mrs. Clifford Farmer, Mrs. E. C. Skeley, Mrs. Kittie Grazer, Mrs. Charles Whitmore and Mrs. George Chambers.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Clifford will entertain at dinner Monday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sweet. Mr. Sweet comes to Salem with his singing band on the Pentastar circuit and Mrs. Sweet will be remembered as Miss Gay Laren who gave "Enter Madame" in Salem recently.

Mrs. Clara Vibbert and Mrs. T. G. Page will be hostesses for a bridge party at the home of Mrs. Vibbert Tuesday afternoon.

REV. and Mrs. H. D. Chambers who have recently taken up their residence in Salem, were honored Wednesday evening by the members of the parish of St. Paul's church at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George A. White. Cut flowers in great profusion were used about the rooms and a delightful musical program was given. Rev. and Mrs. Chambers were introduced by Mrs. I. G. Shipley and Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner. Musical numbers included an original piano number and Miss Bruce Putnam, and two vocal selections by Leon Johnson, solo by Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, Mrs. Amos Strong and Mrs. George G. Binham out the fees and those serving were Miss Elizabeth Nolan, Miss Sarah Lansing, Miss Lena Batzger, Miss Josephine Baumgartner, Miss Charlotte Zieber, Miss Eugene Zieber, Miss Ruth Kubu and Miss Henrietta White.

The Monday Night Dancing club will give another of their formal dances at the Shrine mosque this week. The number of invited guests is said to be so great that an unusually good event is being anticipated. This is the third last dance of the season for the club which numbers 50 couples.

The Cecilia club of the senior high school will sponsor a pretty dance at the Shrine mosque Tuesday evening. Patrons and patronesses for the affair include Mr. and Mrs. Walter Denton, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Moore and Miss Lena Bell, Tartar.

Six tables of "500" were enjoyed Friday evening by a group of guests at the Arthur H. Moore home. Red carnations and ferns were used about the rooms. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson won high score during the evening.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Goodin, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Glover, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Poisel, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Haig, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Shafer, Mrs. Ann Klein, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Brock and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Saderus.

Mrs. Leroy Leedy was hostess Thursday in honor of Mrs. F. E. Davis, who has recently moved to Salem. Daffodils and carnations were effectively used about the pretty rooms of the hostess' apartment. She was assisted in serving by Mrs. Ethel Conroyer. The guest of honor, Mrs. Davis, received high score during the bridge game which occupied the afternoon hours.

Those invited to meet Mrs. Davis were Mrs. Henry Conroyer, Mrs. Paul Johnson, Mrs. Roy Mills, Mrs. G. L. Arbutick, Mrs. D. J. McKinnon, Mrs. Burns, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., Mrs. C. J. Green, Mrs. Millar McGilchrist, Mrs. E. L. Busselle.

Mrs. Frank Davies and Mrs. Robert E. Davies were hostesses Wednesday at a charming afternoon honoring a few friends. Five Hundred was played during the afternoon and Mrs. Eugene Eckertine won high score and Mrs. Guy O. Smith, second.

An evening party was given the same day for which Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davies and Mr. and Mrs.

Mrs. H. D. Chambers, who with her husband, Rev. Chambers, has recently taken up her residence in Salem, was honored at a reception given this week by the members of the St. Paul's Episcopal church.

Robert E. Davies were joint hosts. Six tables of "500" were played. High score went to Mrs. Albert O'Brien and J. C. Nadon while consolation fell to Miss Agnes Lyons and E. C. Quinn. Refreshments were served by the hostesses following the card games.

Colonel and Mrs. E. Hofer were guests Friday of Prof. and Mrs. J. B. Horner in Corvallis. Colonel Hofer addressed Professor Horner's three classes in Oregon history on English poetry.

LONG BEACH, Cal., Feb. 11.—Mrs. Lucene S. Barnes, 25 Fourth place, was a recent hostess at a prettily appointed informal dinner. The affair honored out of town relatives of the hostess. Covers were laid for Mrs. A. E. Dinsmore of Salem, who is Mrs. Barnes' mother; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Dinsmore of San Francisco, brother and sister-in-law of Mrs. Barnes; Mr. and Mrs. George Crocker and son Charles of Hollywood, Mr. and Mrs. Barnes, Misses Willa and Toby and Jim Barnes.

Four generations were represented at the dinner—the first Mrs. A. E. Dinsmore; the second her son, W. L. Dinsmore; the third, his daughter, Helen Dinsmore Crocker; and the fourth, her son, Charles.

Miss Myrtle Hitchcock was honored by a group of friends Wednesday evening at a kitchen shower. The hostesses were Mrs. Doretha Douglas and Miss Dorothy Byers.

Club Women to Raise Funds For Club Rooms

A club house for the women of Salem is the object of the Salem Women's club and to that end the membership has been divided into eight groups, each pledged to accumulate $100 for the building fund. The women plan to have a women's community building, centrally located where women's meetings may be held. The building is planned somewhat on the plan of the "women's club building" of Corvallis.

An and torium setting from 800 to 1000 people, a banquet hall and kitchen, and a reception hall are some of the details to be included in the proposed building. The building fund will contain $1000 at the end of the fiscal year, according to Mrs. W. E. Anderson, president of the club and member of the building fund committee. Other members of the committee are Mrs. F. A. Elliott and Mrs. Z. Riggs. It is the plan to add to this amount the $300.

The groups into which the membership is divided are composed of 25 members each and are headed by Mrs. Charles Spaulding, Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, Mrs. Grover C. Bellinger, Mrs. Frank Bowersox, Mrs. George Pearce, Mrs. George G. Brown, Mrs. Harry Hawkins and Mrs. William Everett Anderson. Each group will sponsor entertainments or in some other way raise money toward their quota.

Complimenting Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, who had charge of the program and whose birthday is today, the members of the Salem Women's club presented her with a token of their good will. The presentation was made following the program at the Women's club yesterday. The social hour following the club meeting was a pleasant affair. Mrs. Dodd and Mrs. W. C. Kantner.

February although a short month marks the birthdays of two of America's most loved presidents, Lincoln and Washington and this coming week will be marked by numerous patriotic meetings. The G. A. R., the W. R. C. and the Daughters of Veterans as well as a number of other organizations will hold memorial services.

The Daughters of Veterans will hold memorial services this afternoon in the armory. The program will commemorate the birthdays of both McKinley and Lincoln. Mrs. Mable Lockwood, patriotic instructor of the local tent, Barbara Fritchie, will be in charge of the program. G. A. R. with their families, Sons of Veterans and Spanish War Veterans are being invited. It will be given in the Auxiliary room at the armory beginning at 2:45 this afternoon.

A Lincoln memorial service will be held next Saturday under the direction of the W. R. C. and the G. A. R. in McCormack hall. Addresses will be made by Dr. James Lisle and Albert Loughridge, both members of the local G. A. R. post.

Judge George M. Brown will give the Lincoln day address. Oscar Glingrich will sing a number of songs. Patriotic societies and the public generally is invited to attend.

Miss Elizabeth Putnam, Dr. and Mrs. Grover C. Bellinger, Mrs. John Carson and Mrs. E. E. Fisher, attended the state meeting of the Oregon State Tuberculosis association last week in Portland.

JOY SEEKER

I
Joy 'tis I seek,
So what shall I do?
Drink of the river
Where waters run blue.

II
What shall I wear
Upon my feet?
Th'n amethyst sandals,
To make them fleet.

III
Where shall I go,
Which way to take?
A path thru the pathless,
The mystic moon-break.

IV
And what shall I see
When I am through?
A fugitive spectre,
The spirit of you.

—By Audrey Bunch.

The pupils of Miss Lena Dotson gave two recitals at her studio on Thursday and Friday evenings of last week. The Thursday night program was given by the junior pupils. The children's playing showed careful training and gave promise of much progress in their future work. All of the numbers were enthusiastically received. A special number which was much appreciated was given by Lucile Anderson. Those giving the program were: Lucile Mosher, Virginia Alderson, Gladys Lachele, Mildred McDaniel, Pauline Orey, Maxie Ralph, Eleanor Wright, Max Pemberton, Garold Simpson, Maxie Hunziker, Howard Kurtz, Louise Allen, Paul Allen and Howard Roberts.

The older pupils played on Friday evening, the program consisting of both solos and duets. Their work elicited much praise and gave evidence of very careful and studious work on the part of each young musician. The pupils were: Eloise Wright, Thelma Carver, Doris Phenice, Lucile Anderson, Mabel D. Elizabeth, Jewel Steele, Elkineth Bennett, Howard Roberts and Paul Allen.

The Bed Room Beautiful

Listen ladies of Salem! Have you a bedroom in your house so charmingly furnished that when your women friends come in for an afternoon call, you can receive them in that room with the same "you're at home" feeling as if it were the living room?

You people who occupy small apartments and haven't an extra room in which to receive callers, why go to the general reception room? Why not fix your sleeping room so that it too is a living room.

If you will come to this store we will help you plan out a room with furniture, chairs and rugs that will please beyond measure. Particularly do we wish to show you some BED ROOM-LIVING ROOM CHAIRS—an idea that is as great an improvement over the old way as the automobile is over the horse.
