AMATEUR CHAMP RECORDS ARE BETTERED IN BUFFALO MEET

BUFFALO, N. Y., Feb. 11.—Championship records of the Amateur Athletic union were equalled and bettered by the short distance runners at the national indoor championship meet tonight and in one instance a new American mark was set. Allen Woodring of Syracuse university covered the 300 yard dash in 31 1-5 seconds, one fifth of a second better than the record held by Andrew B. Kelly of New York, since March, 1917.

H. C. Cutbill won an impressive victory in the 1,000 yard event.

Joie Ray, recent victor over the Boston runner in New York, was decisively beaten, finishing third to Larry Shields of Penn State. Cutbill's time equalled the American record made by Ray in Brooklyn in 1919.

In the 70-yard high hurdles, Harold Barron of Penn State lowered the championship mark one-fifth of a second, but fell short of the American record. His time was 8 1-5 seconds.

The time in the final of the 69-yard run, 5 2-5 seconds, is both the championship and American record for the distance. The event was won by Loren Murchison, Illinois A. C.

Joie Ray, who ran the final mile for the I. A. C. made a game effort to regain a 75-yard handicap and was only 10 yards behind the flying Georgetown leader at the tape.

New York A. C. carried honors for the greatest number of points scored. Illinois A. C. was second; Penn State third, and Princeton university and Syracuse university were tied for fourth place.

Sixty-yard run final; won by Loren Murchison, Illinois A. C.; H. H. Lever, University of Pennsylvania, second; time 2-5 seconds (Equals championship and American record).

Colored Man Tells Reporters He Merely Told His Story Over Again

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 11.—Henry Peavey, who was the houseman for William Desmond Taylor, slain film director, was escorted late today to the office of District Attorney Thomas Lee Woolwine by two deputy sheriffs. The deputies, Peavey, Mr. Woolwine, V. C. Doran, his chief deputy, and a court reporter, already were sequestered for several hours in Mr. Woolwine's private office.

A half hour after the conference began Captain David L. Adams of the police department, who has had charge of the police investigation, joined the other officials and Peavey.

Peavey Makes Statement

This was the first time representatives of the three principal offices working on the case—that is, the police, the sheriff and the district attorney—had met in a joint conference.

Peavey has given several statements including a very extended one taken by the police. All his stories have had to do with the life of Mr. Taylor in the months that Peavey was employed by him and with occurrences surrounding the finding of Mr. Taylor's body. The taking of a new statement under the circumstances existing today was deemed to mean that further investigation of the sheriff's theory of jealousy as a possible motive for the crime was to be made by all the officers employed on the case.

Other than the examination of Peavey apparently little of importance transpired today in the murder inquiry.

Little is Developed

Peavey left the office after having been closeted with the officials about an hour. He went out alone the officials continuing their conference as he departed.

"I've nothing to say," Peavey told reporters. "I've just told my story over again to Mr. Woolwine."

Undersheriff Biscallus and Captain Adams came out a little later.

"I cannot say that anything new has developed from the questioning of Peavey," Biscallus said. "However, that does not mean that no new angle of investigation has been discovered."

Three-Year String of Wins Upset at Portland

PORTLAND, Or., Feb. 11.—Basketball suffered its biggest upset of the season here tonight on the Multnomah club gymnasium floor when the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club quintet trounced the heretofore invincible Walla Walla Y. M. C. A. basketball team 25 to 22. The Walla Walla team had not lost a game for three years, winning the Pacific northwest association championship in 1920-21.

Penn Smith, Jr., Mrs. S. H. Cross of Philadelphia, Mrs. Archibald Barkie of Philadelphia, Mrs. Walter L. Goodwin of Hartford, Mrs. Wilfrid Viau of Montreal, Canada, and Mrs. Edward J. Flington.

And these women are in the sport for the love of it. Not a single one of them expects to carry her charges through a season without a big loss. It is extremely costly to own a thoroughbred. It costs at least $5 a day to feed him and pay his trainer's salary. Besides this, there are heavy expenses for track, for veterinary, Mrs. F. Ambrose Clark, Mrs. Robert L. Gerry, Mrs. Charles C. Rumsey, Mrs. Joseph E. Davis, Mrs. Walter M. Jeffords, Mrs. Samuel D. Riddle, Mrs. George W. Loft, Mrs. E. B. Cassatt, Mrs. R. Penn Smith, Jr., Mrs. S. H. Cross of Philadelphia, Mrs. Archibald Barkie of Philadelphia, Mrs. Walter L. Goodwin of Hartford, Mrs. Wilfrid Viau of Montreal, Canada, and Mrs. Edward J. Flington.

But to thorough sportswomen such as those mentioned above the sight of their silks in a stirring struggle is well worth the expense. To see her horse beat a field of opponents brings a joy and thrill no amount of money spent otherwise could possibly bring.

To win a cheap overnight event is exhilarating to a sportswoman, but to capture a coveted stake in which the contestants are renowned for speed and stamina is unconfined gladness. But success in winning rich stakes does not necessarily mean profit to the sportswoman. On most occasions such victories bring more financial profit to her employees than to herself, for invariably she disposes of her winnings before she receives them.

WILLAMETTE AND AGGIES TO PLAY

Basketball Game is Scheduled for Armory on Night of February 14

Willamette meets the O. A. C. basketball team, on the local armory floor, Tuesday night, February 14.

It won't be a game of the top-notchers of the conference, for both have tasted the sting of defeat. Neither will it be the tail-end, for Oregon has the proud and unapproachable cellar championship up to the present time. Last year, the Bearcats cleaned up on the O. A. C. team with goals to spare—goals that they'd give a lot to have to go on for this year's series. Corvallis has strengthened marvellously, and is making a good showing in every game, against the best of opponents than Willamette.

Extra! Extra! Extra! Triple Vote Schedule this Week

We have made several sensational announcements but the feature of this period is still another sensation. Read carefully therefore for what I have to say is exceptional, and is big news in the Statesman Pony Competition.

During the week from Monday, February 13th to Saturday, February 18th the vote schedule will be trebled. That is to say you will be awarded three times the number of votes on the regular vote schedule on all subscriptions handed in or placed in the mail between 8 a. m. Monday, February 13th and 8 p. m. Saturday, February 18th.

There will not be any period of the contest when subscriptions will count more votes. This bonus positively ends Saturday, February 18th and will not be renewed.

Think this over. Think of what this means to you. Think of how rapidly votes will pile up if you hustle hard for this period.

The end of the Great pony race is in sight. Action is your slogan now and the prize of your choice at the finish. Now is the time to turn on all the speed you have got and to secure enough votes to be sure of winning the prize you want.

Moonshine Tossing Does Not Aid Ben and Claude

Ben Colbath and Claude Johnson last night made hurried but futile efforts to throw away their pint flasks of moonshine liquor when Patrolman George D. White arrested the pair at Marion near Church streets. The two bottles, tossed away by the pair, were recovered for use as evidence on a possession charge.

Ben and Claude were unable to furnish bail of $100 each and were lodged in the city jail. Claude Johnson is one of Salem's most inveterate liquor seekers, officers assert. It is indeed a dull month when his name is not enrolled on the police blotter.

Other old hands at the booze game have learned the error of the ways and acquired the habit of banking their own fines, but Claude manages to get picked up frequently," said one local character last night, following Claude's arrest.

Following each arrest, Johnson is usually released upon paying a fine as he has evinced a peculiar dislike of jail sentences, officers say.

If might doesn't always make right, it seldom gets left.

There is always room for one more oyster in the soup. The more a man goes around in the world the less cranky he becomes. A man must make his way in the world, while a woman merely has hers.
