YOUR BIRTHRIGHT Every normal person is entitled to a certain degree of success, happiness and contentment. It simply depends on how the preparation for life is made. This is an age of specialization. Every person who would really succeed must be able to do something especially well. This is also an era of business and commerce. The greatest opportunities the world has to offer lie in these fields. A thorough business training can be secured more quickly and economically than any other sort of special preparation. Let us tell you about some of the opportunities the business world has to offer you. Write or call. Capital Business College Salem, Oregon

LADD & BUSH, BANKERS Established 1868 General Banking Business Office Hours from 10 a. m. to 8 p. m. AN OPPORTUNITY FUND DON'T think of saving as a hard, distasteful thing, to be done as a duty. Think of your Savings Account at the First National rather as an Opportunity Fund. And so it is—the ownership of one has made it possible for many a man to branch out in new lines, or to take up new work entirely. It has made possible higher education, home ownership, travel, and many other things. United States National Bank SALEM OREGON

Robinson at Chapel— Edgar A. Robinson, professor of American history at Leland Stanford university, presented a striking picture of the opening day of the arms conference at Washington, in yesterday's chapel service at Willamette university. He painted a picture with a personal glimpse of the crowds and the notables at Washington. His words brought to the students an idea of the conference that could not be gained from the printed word. In the few minutes of the chapel period Professor Robinson outlined briefly the principles and ideas involved in the conference at Washington, what was accomplished and the import to the nation and the world.

Hayford Returns— L. G. Hayford is expected home within the next few days from a business visit to Twin Falls, Ida. Mr. Hayford was one of the early day assessors of Twin Falls county, when it was still a sagebrush desert, and later he served as a representative in the Idaho legislature from the same county. This Idaho irrigated farming country has suffered cruelly during the past year or so from poor farm product prices, though it is one of the richest and most prosperous farming sections of the entire northwest.
