ALL-COAST TEAM NAMED BY BOHLER OF PULLMAN QUINT

PULLMAN, Wash., March 2.—Two Oregon Agricultural college basketball players and one each from the University of Idaho, the University of California and the University of Washington, are the men announced today by J. Fred Bohler, basketball coach of Washington State college as his all-Pacific coast conference basketball team.

The men selected are Tait, California, and A. Fox, Idaho, forwards; Hjelte, O. A. C., center; Bryan, Washington and A. Gill, O. A. C., guards.

ANOTHER GOOD PRELIMINARY ARRANGED FOR NEXT SMOKER

"Red" Armstrong, of Corvallis, and Ray Border of Salem, will go on for one of the four-round bouts at the Company F. smoker, March 14. They are 159-pounders.

Border is understood to have done much in the east before coming to Salem, and claims to be there with both the skill and the strength. He will be working out at the armory, evenings of next week, with Fred Hall, the headliner of the evening. Those who want to get a white line on his ability might drop in and see him. Armstrong comes on the recommendation of Earl Snyder, the main event man who meets Hall, and is rated as an especially fast man for his size. It is expected to be a slim bag event.

Bayes is expected to meet either Crim, the Chemawa Indian, or Graham of Salem, at 135 pounds, for the other four-round event. Bayes got down to his reasonable weight in his last match, and he is a heart for any one to handle. Not so much is known of Graham who may be his opponent, but the crowd that saw the Indian perform at the last two smokers will give him a hearty welcome for another meeting. Three weeks ago, he went on as a last minute substitute against Syverson, and earned a good draw. He is a flashy boxer, one of the most interesting men in the ring who has appeared at any event in Salem this year.

Bittles and Healy, the 116-pounders, are both working hard. Bittles at Chemawa and Healy at the armory. The two midweights are expected to put up six rounds of as clever boxing as has ever been shown in the city. Bittles has a style that has no counterpart anywhere. It is absolutely his own. If Healy who is clever, resourceful boxer, can get in through the battery of Indian gloves, he may do some damage, but anybody who tries it is taking a risk about like the man who had an easy job sticking his nose in the lion's mouth, but one day the lion bit it off. Bittles has a left-hand wallop like a mule-kick, and it will be certain to any one who gets in his way.

Hall works at armory. Hall is to work out at the armory, almost every night next week. He has kept up in such condition that he will be prepared to go the full distance at top speed. He has been known of by almost every one who knows sports in Salem, but only a very few have ever seen him. If Snyder comes up to expectations, the Hall-Snyder bout ought to be a peach.

Matchmaker Overdorf is to referee the bouts, by mutual agreement. He was to have officiated at the last smoker, but because of having an infected foot that lamed him, he did not serve.

LUCKY STRIKE!

When we discovered the toasting process six years ago, it was a Lucky Strike for us.

Why? Because now millions of smokers prefer the special flavor of the Lucky Strike Cigarette — because *which seals in the delicious Burley flavor

And also because it's guaranteed by The American Tobacco Co.

HARRY WILLS KNOCKS OUT NORFOLK IN SECOND ROUND

NEW YORK, March 2.—Harry Wills, heavyweight fighter from Norfolk, landed a long right swing to the head. Wills landed a left to the jaw at the bell.

In the second they met in a clinch and after a short exchange Norfolk fell away from Wills, landing heavily on his shoulders, after 26 seconds of fighting.

Wills said he floored Norfolk with a short left to the body and an inside short right to the jaw. Governor Edwards of New Jersey said tonight he would sanction a meeting of Wills and Jack Dempsey in New Jersey if the public demanded such a match.

MONEY OUTLOOK IS MORE HOPEFUL

WASHINGTON, March 2.—Improved conditions during February have furnished a "more hopeful prospect" for trade in the coming months, says the monthly business and financial review issued tonight by the federal reserve board.

Changes in the various industries during the month, the board asserted, have resulted in diminishing the irregularity and unevenness noted during the past year. Price stability was evidenced by current readjustments of the noteworthy advances in the prices of agricultural products in February being offset by corresponding declines in other lines of industry.

The readjustment process, the board asserted, has apparently reached the stage of inter-industrial price revision, the advance in agricultural values tending to facilitate liquidation of loans at banks and the rapidity of movement of products to markets.

More satisfactory marketing and price conditions have included tobacco and other products as well as grain, the board stated, although early reports from the southeastern regions have not been altogether reassuring.

The better outlook, the board declared, has been partly offset by labor and other difficulties in the textile industry resulting in reduced activity, although fairly good conditions in the New England shoe and leather industry are reported. Some increase in the activity of steel mills was noted but business in the chemical industry was said to have been given a severe setback as a result of business operations.

Distinct increase in non-ferrous metal production, especially copper and the re-opening of mines long closed was reported.

Little modification in the volume of unemployment was seen, although continued improvement and better operations were said to have increased the demand for labor in parts of the country where the surplus of unemployed would otherwise have been larger.

LAMPORTS BACK FROM TRIP EAST

Salem Couple See John D. Bryan's Bible Class

Watching John D. Rockefeller play golf on the Ormond, Florida, golf course, and then attending W. J. Bryan's Sunday school class at Palm Beach, with the Arthur Pryor band playing the hymns, are part of the experiences of Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Lampert during their extended visit in the east and south. They returned yesterday.

At Havana, Cuba, where they stopped several days, they found the temperature 99 in the shade. More coral is on the show place in Havana and tourists are shown the large buoy which marks the spot of the blowing up of the Ma'ne in 1898.

At St. Augustine, Fla., they drank of the spring that Ponce de Leon believed gave eternal youth and at New Orleans, they drank real French coffee in the old French market, saw the cemeteries all above ground, and took a trip down the Mississippi river to its mouth to see the wonderful Bad's jetties.

The trip included an automobile ride on the famous Apache trail from Globe, Ariz., to Phoenix.

While in New York City, they visited the Hopf boys who are manufacturing the now famous Madam Hendrin doll, the factory employing 500 men and women.

This famous talking doll is of interest to Salem people as Madam Hendrin was formerly Georgia Hopf, a Saleburg girl, who invented the doll, and who has become not only famous but very wealthy through her invention.

Midnight Burglary Is Halted by Police Patrol

The police department's new patrol car was hurriedly pressed into service at 12:30 o'clock this morning by Patrolmen George White and O. F. Victor when they responded to a report that two prowlers were making efforts to enter the store of A. Daus and Sons at 1003 South Commercial street.

The thieves had evidently been alarmed and had made a getaway before the arrival of the officers as nothing in the store had been disturbed although entrance had been obtained by smashing a window with an iron bar.

It is thought that the burglary attempted might have been made by some of the youths who have recently escaped from the state training school. The prowlers were reported by a South Salem resident whose home is near the Daus store.

TRACK ATHLETES CALLED BY COACH

Invitation to University of Oregon General Meet Is Considered

A meeting of the men of Willamette was held Thursday after chapel, to initiate the movement for general track work for this year. The invitation relates to the matter of the invitation relay carnival at the Oregon state university to which Willamette has tentatively agreed to go about the middle of April. No vote was taken on the acceptance of this invitation, or on the later track meet proposed to be held in Salem, with all the non-conference colleges and schools of the valley asked to take part, about the middle of May.

The acceptance of these and some other dual track meets with ambitious colleges like Pacific university at Forest Grove, and Chemawa Indian school, will depend on the number and the quality of the entrants for general track work. If the response is enthusiastic, Willamette may be represented in every kind of a track meet that anybody in the valley dares to offer. If it isn't good enough to warrant it, they may not even make a single date.

Coch Bohler is hoping for a large entry for all the events. Albany college, with only 40 men registered, a baseball team and a full track team will be maintained and take their chances with all comers. At present, it is indicated that Willamette men will respond about as many as in the call for track work, and if they do, the coach is expected to see them do some fast work.

Two Muscle Shoals Offers Examined by Committees

WASHINGTON, March 2.—Examination of two of the three offers for private lease, operation and completion of the government's proposed Muscle Shoals project properties at Muscle Shoals, Ala., was virtually concluded today by the house military committee. It was announced by acting Chairman McKenzie of Illinois, that the last offer before the committee for consideration would be taken up tomorrow, and that investigation of the proposals of Henry Ford and the Alabama Power company had been practically completed.

The announcement was made when the committee adjourned that the bid of Frederick Engstrom of Wilmington, N. C., would be the business for tomorrow and Mr. Engstrom and his advisers had been requested to appear. Representatives of Mr. Ford and the power company were accorded the privilege of reappearing if they desired to bring other evidence.

Farmers Dubious About Congressional Seeds

"I doubt if this seed will grow," muttered a middle-aged Marion county resident yesterday after calling at the county school superintendent's office for one of the packages of seed secured for distribution by Oregon congressmen. "I got a package sent out by Charlie McNary in 1919 and not a darned seed grew. However, although I'm a Democrat, I always accept these seeds as they are the only benefits I've ever gotten from congress."

One gentleman of very evident leaning toward the Grand Old Party accepted a seed packet with the observation that Congressman Hawley had placed a blight upon his garden through a package of flower and garden seed.

Usually the gardeners who apply for the seed have good words for the crops of vegetables secured from the congressional gifts.
