PERSONAL
This is a personal matter with you. What are you going to do with the ability you have? You have certain qualities and talents. They are the tools with which you are to carve out a life of usefulness, happiness and contentment. But you must learn to use these tools. It is absolutely essential for you to train yourself to use your ability to the best advantage.
Are you going to let these tools lose their usefulness through rust and disuse?
Let us tell you about the scores of young people who have attained success in the business world through the start given by the training received in our school. Write or call.

Band to Give Ball—The Liberty band is to give a "hard times ball," Friday night, at Liberty. The band was for a long time under the tutelage of Ivan Martin, the talented musician and bandsman of Salem, and has been whipped into excellent concert condition. It has appeared in Salem on numerous occasions, always with credit to itself.

Bargain Dance 50c—Friday. Elite hall. Ladies free. Adv.

Money Comes in Bales—They don't bring in all their money in drays to the statehouse; some of it comes by mail. One batch of postoffice money orders that came in Wednesday, a fair average day's remittance for various collection purposes—it would be very much greater during the busy rush of the auto-license season—numbered 163 orders, the total amount being $2427, or an average of just under $15 apiece. Postmaster Hucklestein takes them all in, runs up the figures on the adding machine, and hands out to the state enough currency to choke the proverbial cow.

Jack's Cafe—163 S. Com. St. A good place to eat. Tables and counter.—Adv.

Funeral in Portland—Mrs. T. B. Jackson, Miss Julia Webster, Mrs. F. J. Coppock and J. W. Edmundson were in Portland Tuesday attending the funeral of Mrs. Etta French Overman, who died at her home in that city on Sunday.

Trusses—Fitted at Tyler's Drug Store by an expert in the business.—Adv.

Woman Applies—Alta Marion Dalton, woman attorney of Portland, has filed with the supreme court an application for admission to the bar of Oregon. She holds a certificate from the state of Illinois.

MacDonald's Farmer Almanac—At Tyler's Drug Store.—Adv.

Paper Mill Visited—A. Bankus, manager of the West Linn plant of the Crown-Willamette Paper company, and D. G. Stenstrom of the company's Portland office, were callers at the offices of the state industrial accident commission yesterday, and while in Salem visited the paper mill of the Oregon Pulp & Paper company.

Attend Factory Wear-Ever—Demonstration at Gahldorf's and learn how to use your wear-ever utensils.—Adv.

Horse is Found—A sorrel horse was yesterday escorted to the Cherry City Feed barn by Patrolman Troy Branson. The city will hold the animal as hostage for its board bill until the owner settles for the costs involved.

Cash Bail Furnished—Cash bail in the sum of $100 was yesterday furnished by relatives of Oliver Reibebeck, pending his trial in justice court, Monday

RHEUMATISM CANNOT EXIST
In the human body if you will use Frank's Prescription for Rheumatism and Gout. It is ridiculous, absurd and preposterous. In fact, it is a pity and a shame to talk about Rheumatism and Gout, much less suffer with it, either inflammatory, muscular, sciatic or any other form of Rheumatism.
Frank's Prescription for Rheumatism and Gout sells for $1.75. This prescription DOES NOT ruin the stomach, it DOES NOT depress the heart. Eat all the meat and good food you wish while taking Frank's Prescription. It DOES NOT contain any Mercury, Salicylate of Soda, Oil of Wintergreen, or narcotics of any kind, but it absolutely and positively overcomes any kind of Rheumatism or Gout on earth. WHAT MORE DO YOU WANT? There is nothing just as good, and it is impossible to get something better. It is also an excellent liver medicine. For sale at Perry's Drug Store 115 S. Commercial St., Salem, Ore.

at 10 a. m. on an assault charge. Reibebeck, according to a complaint filed against him, badly injured John Fox, a farmer, in an altercation occurring near the armory Tuesday night. It is reported that Reibebeck and his companion, James Cripps, had been drinking during the evening. A portion of a broken bottle was included in evidence filed at the time of Reibebeck's arrest.

A Classified Ad.—Will bring you a buyer.—Adv.

Quits Realty Business—R. A. Mohney, who for some time past has been engaged in the real estate business in Salem, has discontinued his business and will devote his entire time to life insurance. Mr. Mohney will have offices in the Masonic temple.

Nominating Petition Blanks—Secure them at the Statesman (legal dept.) upstairs.—Adv.

Ellis Down Town—Dr. D. V. Ellis was down town Wednesday for the first time in two weeks. He has been confined pretty closely to his home on North Liberty street since his return from Alaska, but is now up for good.

People Use Swift's Fertilizer—Because it makes them money. See C. S. Bowne or phone 353.—Adv.

New Equipment Added—Some fine fixtures, running well into four figures in cost, have been added to the Central pharmacy store equipment. The closed wall cabinets, extending the whole length of the wall, and specially built to fit, are about the last word in store fittings. The little street corner cabinet, built after the disks drawn by the Central pharmacy artists, is one of the most novel uses of an otherwise waste corner, to be found anywhere.

Legal Blanks—Get them at The Statesman office. Catalog on application.—Adv.

Mrs. McIntyre Resigns—Mrs. Ora F. McIntyre, for a number of months past the efficient secretary of the Marion County Realtors' association, has severed her connection with that organization and opened a real estate and insurance office of her own in the Masonic building. She expects to make a specialty of homes—buying homes, selling homes, recommending homes for homey people of every kind. Mrs. McIntyre was for several months in the news department of The Statesman. Her work with the Realtors has attracted attention even outside of the state for its progressive ideas. No successor has as yet been named for the association secretaryship.

Undergoes Operation—Clifford Sarff, a former student at Willamette university, who recently left for Whittier, Calif., underwent an operation for appendicitis. He was attending Whittier college and anticipates returning to his studies. At Willamette Mr. Sarff was a freshman and a member of the Willamette glee club.

Union School Up—A meeting was scheduled for Woodburn Wednesday night to consider plans for the proposed union high school building and service. The plan itself is not new in Oregon, there being a few other central high schools where the intermediate and grade schools are not consolidated, but this is the first one proposed for Marion county, and the experiment will be watched with interest. Mrs. Mary Fulkerson, county superintendent of schools, attended from Salem.

Application Filed—An application for the fixing of a time for the hearing of the final report of S. M. Endicott, administrator of the estate of the late Louis H. Turner, was on Wednesday filed in the probate court.

Three Are Named—F. L. Wood, Robin D. Day and Roy Burton, are named as appraisers of the estate of the late Sam H. Myers, in a probate court order filed Wednesday. The estate is estimated as worth $7,738.91, of which $2,540.96 is in cash or Victory notes.

Report Filed—Minnie Murphy on Wednesday filed in the probate court her final report as executrix of the estate of Mary O'Connor, deceased.

Appraisers Named—In the probate court, Wednesday, W. L. Jones, D. M. Burnett and J. L. Blackwell were appointed as appraisers of the estate of the late A. C. Libby, who died recently in Marion county. The bond of Grace Libby, administratrix of the estate, was presented and approved at the same time.

Two Licenses Issued—The anti-marriage jinx was laid Wednesday, when the county clerk issued two marriage licenses. The first was to Chester C. Wohner of Salem; a farmer, and Gladys Alta Everest, a stenographer also of Salem. The second was to E. Hazen, a farmer, and Mrs. Laura Moul, a housekeeper. There had been no licenses issued for five days, and the pessimists were wondering if this spring the young men's fancy had failed to turn

DEFENSE NOT YET FINISHED

All Day Yesterday Devoted to Arguments in Behalf of Mrs. Obenchain

DEFENDANT IN TEARS

Attorney Says Her Relations to Burch Mere Sisterly Affection

LOS ANGELES, March 15.—Defense arguments occupied all of today's sessions in the trial of Mrs. Madalynne Obenchain, charged with the murder of her sweetheart, J. Belton Kennedy. Jud R. Rush, senior counsel for Mrs. Obenchain began his address at the opening of the afternoon session. He will close tomorrow morning. It was announced when court adjourned for the day. Mrs. Obenchain wept again when Rush read letters which had passed between her and Kennedy. Rush said Kennedy loved her "as devotedly, loyally, passionately and enduringly as she loved him." He declared the state had not shown that she ever held any malice toward Kennedy.

Affection Sisterly
Referring to Arthur C. Burch, co-defendant in the case, the attorney said "Madalynne Obenchain looked on Burch in a sisterly sort of a way. Burch's mother, wife of a minister of the gospel, invited such a relation." Mrs. Obenchain, herself, he continued, is a "Christian woman of culture, education and refinement," and said he regarded it as remarkable that he letters indicated "nothing but purity, portraying the highest ideals and noblest thought."

Death Held No Mystery
Mr. Rush, early in his argument, told the jury that the case involved an "old fashioned love story." He said that Kennedy's might agree upon.

Report Being Prepared
It was indicated in some quarters the president's views would be sought by some house leaders immediately after his return from Florida Saturday. There also is to be a conference with Speaker Gillett on Monday and many members of the house think he will be able to give first hand information as to how the president regards the bill in its present form and also whether he looks with favor on the plan to put it through under a suspension of the rules.

Minority Report Coming
Representative Gruner obtained unanimous consent of the house today for the filing of a minority report up to the time of adjournment of the house Saturday. He said privately he would not file any minority views but added that he could not say whether any would be filed by Representative Ketchin of North Carolina, who voted against the bill in committee by proxy.

This Man Was Healed
John Grab, 2533 Jackson Ave., New Orleans, La., writes: "My kidneys were weak and had a soreness and dull pain across my back. I felt dull and languid and my kidneys didn't act right. I began taking Foley Kidney Pills and they soon put my kidneys in a sound healthy condition." Foley Kidney Pills help the kidneys rid the system of acids and waste that cause lameness, backache, sore muscles, swollen joints and rheumatic pains. Tonic in effect, quick in action. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

Big Flax Banquet Will Be Held at Hotel Tonight
Room is available for about 150 guests at the big flax banquet at the Marion hotel tonight, and 225 invitations have been sent out. The Marion County Realtors, who are putting on the big event, couldn't invite all who are really interested in flax, because they number hundreds, but they sent out more than the banquet hall capacity at that. Now they are anxious to know just how many of these guests will come. The invitation recipients who have not already acknowledged the receipt, and who expect to attend, are urged to send word, by phone, to No. 577, and the reservation will be kept for them.

Funerals
The funeral of Malcolm McCleod will be held today at 4 p. m. from Rigdon's chapel.

death was a mystery and referred to the prosecution's case as one of "theories and not of facts."
After declaring that Mrs. Obenchain looked upon Burch in a "sisterly way", he declared the testimony showed they were not lovers.
No Control Over Burch
Referring to a remark made in the state's argument that the defense had not called Burch as a witness, Rush termed it "far fetched, in view of the state's attempt with Burch on the witness stand." Though Burch was called as a witness by the state, he refused upon the advice of his attorney to testify. Rush said the defense had no control over Burch and "no means in the world to bring him here."

WILL CHOOSE ORATORS

The interclass rivalry committee of Willamette university has decided that the orators for the interclass oratorical contest will be chosen April 12. Two weeks later the contest will be held in Waller hall, April 20. The winner of this contest will have the privilege of placing the class numerals on the Mina L. Harding oratory cup. The class winning first place in this contest will receive five points for interclass rivalry, second place will get three points. Each orator is to choose his own subject and is limited to 1500 words.
