This Is Very Important, and It Applies to Holidays and All the Days

Many of us are apt to overlook he importance or regular feeding at specified hours each day. To value in poultry culture, however, is to court disaster. If the routine is regular and observed daily, all is regular and observed daily, all the better for the birds. Regularity not only forms good habits alike in the hens as well as in their owners but it also has seen their owners but it also has seen. their owners, but it also has economic values, and helps to keep the birds in good condition and productive.
