No Change in Trend Apparent Through Three Continuous Sessions

NEW YORK, March 24 .- For the third consecutive session, prices of stocks continued their rregular course today. Pressure directed against certain of the more speculative issues indicated an extension of the bear position. Jun'or rails, especially Ann Arbor common and preferred, Pere Marquette common and pre ferred were strong features of the early trading, advancing 1 to 2 points on reports that both systems were to figure in a merger of roads between this center and the middle west.

strengthened appreciably under the lead of Bethlehem. Advices from mill centers emphasized the increase of manufacture and extreme probability of additional advanced in finished and semifinished products. Affiliations of the equipment division and motors and their subsidairies also reflected sub stantial support, Studebaker, Kel
