Run Is Made—The fire department yesterday made a run to the Mayme Homer residence at 825 North Twenty-second street, where a chimney fire was soon placed under control.

Bargain Dance, 50c—Tonight, Elite hall. Ladies free.—Adv.

Claims Misrepresentation—Asserting that certain property for which she had contracted to pay $4000 had been misrepresented to her, Mabel Ross yesterday filed suit against J. A. Jefferson for the recovery of $1109.75 which she claims to have paid on property in Salem. In her complaint Mrs. Ross claims that the house and its contents were overvalued and that the house was in such poor condition that she was compelled to vacate it several weeks ago. She states that she is willing to pay rental for the property, but asks cancellation of the contract and return of first payment money.

To Our Friends—We are counting on your patronage today. Salem War Mothers.—Adv.

Ohio Man to Speak—Rev. R. R. Rebel of Columbus, Ohio, who is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Rev. Clayton Judy, pastor of the Central Congregational church of Salem, is to speak Sunday night at the Central church.

Bargain Dance Tonight—Tonight, Elite hall. Ladies free.—Adv.

Dismore Visits—W. L. Dismore, a former resident of Salem, was a visitor in town Friday, on his way south to Long Beach, Cal. In Long Beach, he and Eugene Barnes, also a one-time resident of Salem, are in business together, and doing well.

Home Cooked Food Sale—Today, at Stiff's furniture store Court street, Salem War Mothers.—Adv.

Mrs. Chapman Visits—Mrs. Frank J. Chapman, now of Santa Cruz, Cal., is visiting this week with friends in Salem. Mr. Chapman sold out his hardware business and his fine farm north of town last summer, and the family removed to California. He has bought a furniture store in Santa Cruz, which he is now conducting with fine success. Mrs. Chapman expects to return to their southern home, within the next few days.

Is There Such a Thing—As platonic love? Isn't it interesting only when it's dangerous? Read W. L. George's article in the April Harper's Bazar, now on sale.—Adv.

Captain Walker Here—Capt. Allen J. Walker, for several years commander of old company G, Myrtle Point, Or., and more recently manager of the Medical Lake summer resort near Spokane, was in Salem yesterday, a guest of his friend, W. C. Conner, editor of the Northwest Poultry Journal. Captain Walker had been on an auto tour of western Oregon as for south as Ashland.

subject for the contest this year which is open to all high school students throughout the United States is, "What Good Roads Have Done for My Community." The Firestone fund pays to the winner of the contest all of the expenses for a four years' course in any college, and the unusually attractive offer is expected to enlist several contestants.

Can You Solve It?—Puzzle—Beg. For sale at The Ace.—Adv.

Senior Class Decreasing—Close examination of the credentials of the applicants for graduation is gradually decreasing the number of those eligible for the high school diploma. The total now stands at 167, and indication point to the probability that it will be but slightly lower than that, if at all. Fifteen graduates of the February class will receive their diplomas with the regular June class, although not all of them will appear that night, as they have left school and many are now working elsewhere.

Spring Special—Our "spring special" is a lighting fixture bargain that he is offering complete for $25. Others as low as $10. Come in and look over our stock of high grade lighting fixtures. Salem Electric Co., Masonic Temple, Phone 1206.—Adv.

Food Sale Is Today—The Salem chapter of the American War Mothers will hold a cooked food sale today in Stiff's furniture store. All kinds of cooked foods will be on sale for the benefit of the local chapter. The sale will begin at 10 o'clock.

No Fatalities Reported—No fatal accidents were reported to the state industrial accident commission for the week ending March 30. The total number of industrial casualties was 374, and of this number 337 were subject to the provisions of the workmen's compensation act; 28 were from firms and corporations that have not accepted the provisions of the act, and nine were from public utility corporations not subject to the act.

People Use Swift's Fertilizer—Because it makes them money. See C. S. Bowne or phone 253.—Adv.

Rock Sales Limited—Multnomah county has no authority to sell to private persons rock crushed by the county prisoners at Kelly Butte, unless the rock is to be used for public purposes, according to an opinion of Attorney General Van Winkle, written for Stanley Myers, district attorney for Multnomah county.

Attorney Resigns—Samuel Olson, Portland attorney, has filed with the supreme court his resignation from membership in the Oregon State Bar association.

Legal Blanks—Get them at The Statesman office. Catalog on application.—Adv.

Violators Listed—Traffic Officer Irwin Abbott has booked charges of traffic violations against John C. Harris of Salem route 7; Forrest C. Fulton of 2340 West Knob Hill street, and W. R. Olson of 173 South Liberty street. Fulton was faced with a charge of failing to dim his headlights although signaled three times by the arresting officer. Fulton has been booked at the police station for other traffic trouble. Mr. Olson and Mr. Harris were accosted because of improper lights.

Spring Tailors—Three-piece costumes, hats—all newest fashions from Paris and Fifth Avenue in April Harper's Bazar. Now on sale.—Adv.

Autoist Is Reported—J. L. Squier of Salem route 8 yesterday reported to the police that his bicycle was slightly damaged and that he escaped injury when an auto bearing Oregon license No. 24349, forced him against the curb at 349 Center street. Squier asserted that the auto did not stop and that the driver had cut the corner in making the turn from north on Front to east on Center street.

Delphinium and all Other—Kinds of flowers for planting in the yard; now a good time to plant. Plant's Greenhouses, 1298 S. 13th and Wilbur. Phone 1250-W.—Adv.

Patrolman O. F. Victor brought in a bicycle Thursday night from the downtown section of the city. The bicycle is of Ranger make and is tape covered.

Coming Concert by Both Glee clubs—Willamette university. Two joint programs, April 6 at 8 p. m., Waller hall. Tickets on sale, W. W. Moore's Music Store, Court street, price 50 cents.—Adv.

Elks Fill Hall—A crowded house greeted the Elks who staged at their club rooms Thursday night, all the people that the hall could comfortably care for. The attraction was a bill of half a dozen numbers put on by the Shaw-Johnson amuseur service of Portland. The numbers were reported as of superior quality and interest. The same company will furnish most of the same talent for the Big Elks' Golden Jubilee, at Portland, May 15 to 21.

A Classified Ad—Will bring you a buyer.—Adv.

Reed Leaves City—H. E. Reed, transient, left the city upon stipulation that his sentence would be suspended. Reed was arrested on a charge of being intoxicated. City Recorder Earl Race imposed a sentence of $10 or 20 days, but suspended sentence when Reed expressed a desire to be on his way.

Free Consultation—And examination, Drs. Bradford & Bradford, D. C., state licensed chiropractic physicians. Ten years in practice. Phone 526 Suite 319 Oregon bldg.—Adv.

Mrs. Harris Sought—Information regarding the whereabouts of Mrs. Louisa Harris, who at one time resided at 791 South Thirteenth street, is desired by the United States pension office, according to an inquiry received yesterday by Chief of Police Moffitt.

Dodge Estate Probated—The estate of Stella Dodge was yesterday admitted to probate by County Judge W. M. Bushey.

Wanda Dodge is executrix and W. E. Wilson, C. E. Albin and Saul Brown are appraisers of the property. Heirs are Mrs. Minnie West, Camas, Wash.; Altha Brown, Independence; Wanda Dodge, Louis Dodge, Margarette Dodge and Marie Dodge of Salem.

Nominating Petition Blanks—Secure them at the Statesman (legal dept.) upstairs.—Adv.

Station Remodeled—The little waiting station on Twelfth street, at the east end of Oak where the passengers from the Southern Pacific trains wait for the coming of the street cars for down town, was remodeled this week. It was re-roofed, the front posts cut away from under the extension roof, and it has been much benefitted by the change.

White Clubs Large—Letters received in Salem from J. H. Carnahan, attorney at Klamath Falls, show that the early reports of the "George White for Governor" clubs in Klamath county were not up to the whole truth. The Klamath Falls membership is 350 instead of 200, and the membership at Malin and Merrill brings the total in that one county to 600 members.

Dr. Hempstead Here—Dr. Walter E. Hempstead of Oregon City was a business visitor in Salem Thursday. He is captain of the Oregon National guard in the medical corps, and as an officer was in attendance at the big military inspection at Portland Wednesday. His family came with him to Salem.

Steffy May Move—S. D. Steffy, of Newberg, one of the prominent Poland China breeders of the state, was a Salem visitor Thursday. He is on his way home from California, where he is negotiating a trade of his Newberg property for 150 acres of land near Marysville. He plans to take his prize herd with him to the Golden State when he goes.

Awning Placed Over Entrance—An awning was yesterday placed over the entrance to the library. Since the door opens directly on to the steps with no protection overhead for those entering, this is considered an especially desired addition. The awning is permanent in construction and projects almost entirely over the front steps.

HOTEL ARRIVALS
MARION—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jewett, Eugene; Miss Leona Walker, Tacoma; Irene Miller, Astoria; E. M. Watson, Eugene; Dean Horn, Vancouver; R. P. Boham, Marion Butler, Mr. and Mrs. C. P.
