home. They are on their way home from Portland where they were among those attending the grand opera. Mrs. Wilson is a cousin of Mr. Vandevort. The story telling section of the Salem Arts League will not meet this evening, according to an announcement of those in charge. A beginning millinery class will be organized Thursday afternoon at the Smith-Hughes home economics headquarters in the Red Cross rooms. The millinery class which has been meeting only on Tuesday will now meet on both Tuesday and Friday, according to Mrs. F. E. Barker, who is in charge.

The date of the Fashion show, which is to be given by the classes in dressmaking and millinery under the direction of the Smith-Hughes instructors, has been postponed until April 14. Conflicting arrangements made necessary the change, Mrs. F. E. Barker, who is in charge, says: The later date, however, will make it possible for E. E. Elliott and Miss Bertha Davis, who are in eastern Oregon this week, will be able to attend the meeting, which will be held in connection with the Fashion show. Mr. Elliott and Miss Davis are both supervisors of the Smith-Hughes work in Oregon. The Lausanne guild met at Lausanne hall on Monday with the largest and most enthusiastic meeting of the year. The ladies of the guild set themselves the task of raising money during the spring and summer for the beautifying of the grounds around the hall. They plan to have the lawn terraced and planted with suitable shrubs and flowers. On Saturday, April 15, they will conduct a cooked food sale, the proceeds to be devoted to the fund for work on the lawn. The guild has a membership of more than 30 members, and other Salem women interested in the work of the guild are urged to join. Miss Laura Richardson is secretary of the organization.

Mary Schultz Concert Date Set for May 12 Mary Schultz, Salem violinist, who recently returned from five years study in Chicago and New York, will give a violin concert in Salem Friday, May 12, according to an announcement made yesterday. The concert will be given in the Grand theater. Miss Schultz is spending a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Schultz, following the close of a contract with the Redpath lyceum bureau.

A Clear Brain and healthy body are essential for success. Business men, teachers, students, housewives, and other workers say Hood's Sarsaparilla gives them appetite and strength, and makes their work seem easy. It overcomes that tired feeling.—Adv.

cher and resident of the far north, addressed them at the High school auditorium. His talk was on the wonders of Alaska. Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Owen and son Jack of Gaston, former Sheridan residents, were calling on old friends here Saturday. Friday evening, April 7 the women of the Methodist church will serve a supper in the church basement from 6 to 8 o'clock. A young son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Deiner on Friday afternoon. Mrs. Leson, worthy grand ma-terron of the O. E. S. was present at a special meeting Wednesday evening. Miss Tippling Meendahl of the upper Willamitas, spent the weekend with friends here. Mr. and Mrs. John Street welcomed a new daughter to their home Wednesday morning. The former kaiser has been reduced to drinking water with meals instead of wine, it is reported. And at that, he is no worse off than the average American citizen.
