

EDITORIALS OF THE PEOPLE

D'Arcy Answers Irvine.

Editor Statesman: In a recent issue of the Portland Journal which you have given greater publicity, I notice that Frank Irvine, editor, has thought proper to attack me for my position on the school millage tax which was enacted by the voters in 1920.

Such is the fate of any person who has the courage to take a stand in favor of the lowering of taxes. I attended school with Frank and he knows that I am heartily in favor of the education of the people; that I am in favor of giving the children of our state every advantage in education consistent with right and justice to those who pay the taxes. I am in favor of cutting off some of the expense of the higher educational institutions so that the elementary schools can have more money to carry on their work.

Every one who has been in favor of economical expenditures in education has been denounced as an opponent of all schools. Such is not the case. Frank, continue your wanton abuse. Your position as regent of the O. A. C. prompts you to be unfair.

It took courage in 1920 to publicly oppose the millage tax proposed by the higher educational institutions of the state based on the high cost of living of the World war period. This millage tax is perpetual if not repealed or amended.

The teachers' trust spent over $34,000 to carry this measure. Every person who opposed it was abused. I came in for my share of abuse. The purpose of the trust was to deter men and women from expressing their true sentiments. No one who honestly and sincerely opposed this millage tax was spared from ridicule.

Frank is a regent of the O. A. C. What did he do when the millage tax was enacted? Voted to raise the salary of President Kerr from $7500 to $11,000 a year. Was that in the interest of the taxpayers? Salaries of the other teachers were also raised. Why should Mr. Kerr have $5500 more salary than any other teacher?

O. B. WILLIAMS

Established 1899

Since the enactment of the millage tax the money of the taxpayers has been spent with a prodigality that reminds one of the wild conduct of a drunken sailor who has been away from port for a long time and has started out to have what he calls a good time.

The O. A. C. is not a farmers' school in the proper sense of the word. Even in the editorial published by Frank there is no proof that the boys who graduate from it become farmers. Some of them become bosses or superintendents, none "dirt" farmers. Frank, resign your position as regent and your eyes will be opened to the injustice of the millage tax of 1920 and its inequities.

DOZEN WRITERS ARE AGAINST LIGHT SAVING

get shorter, back she goes, making more confusion, hence, confusion all the time. Who wants daylight saving? Is it the eight-hour employees who work in mills and factories, clerks in stores, etc.? Their day's work would end in the middle of the afternoon. Then they can get their Ford and best girl and go to Hollywood in time to begin another day's work in very poor condition.

Normalcy Needed
Trend of times is back to normalcy. Why the desire for continuous faking. The days if summer are long and every minute of them is daylight. Correct time is an incentive to proper living. Accuracy is demanded in all matters.

Farmers Suffer
Antone Hiederer, Stayton—Upon investigation for public opinion on the daylight saving scheme I will say that it is a very foolish thing and is of no importance whatever. It is very inconvenient in every way, especially for the farmer. We have no need for such a change. Four o'clock is too early in the morning for any man. Therefore, I am absolutely against turning the clocks ahead.

Blanton Bought Booze
As to the whiskey flask, Representative Barkley, Democrat, Kentucky, said the stationery room record showed it had been ordered from Philadelphia at Mr. Blanton's request and that the latter had paid for it out of his own pocket.

Chicago Judge Informed
He is to be Bumped Off

CHICAGO, April 6.—A letter telling him that he was to be killed was received today by Chief Justice Kiekham Scanlan of the criminal court. Judge Scanlan recently attacked local labor unions and in charging a special grand jury said that most local unions were controlled by criminals and gunmen and that Chicagoans soon would become a "race of yellow men" unless the activities of these criminals were throttled.

The letter informed the judge that because of these activities, he would be "bumped off."

Scout Young Camp is Strong for Col. White

PORTLAND, Or., April 6.—Breaking a precedent of almost 20 years, Scout Young Camp, United Spanish War Veterans, last night went on record as urging the nomination of Col. George A. White for governor of Oregon.

The Scout Young camp, the largest in the United States, with more than 1,000 members, has never allowed politics to enter into its deliberations, formally or informally. But in this case, the camp pledged its united support for George White, and urged that he give an immediate answer of acceptance in the interest of patriotism and good government.

A committee was named to call upon Colonel White, who was at that moment chairman of the city's reception to General Joffre, the French war hero, and inform him of the camp's desires. The demonstration in his favor lasted for five minutes, and was heard for blocks down the street.

Over Forty Carloads of Broccoli Are Shipped

ROSEBURG, Ore., April 6.—In spite of the fact that the Broccoli crop is coming on slowly more than 40 carloads of it has been shipped out of the Umpqua valley to date. For the first time a strong cash market has been established and buyers are purchasing in carload lots on a cash basis.

TO ENFORCE LAW

YAKIMA, Wash., April 6.—A series of meetings to stir public sentiment for law enforcement will begin here the latter part of this month under the auspices of the Yakima Ministerial association, officers of that body announced today.

PARLEY CALLED

BISMARCK, N. D., April 6.—A conference, which may lead to efforts to enlist Montana and South Dakota in a combined effort with North Dakota to promote utilization of waters of the Upper Missouri river for irrigation purposes, will be held here April 20.

MAYO TO SERVE

PORTLAND, Ore., April 6.—Admiral Henry T. Mayo, who commanded the Atlantic fleet during the World war, will be grand marshal of the floral parade of the 1922 Rose festival, according to announcement today.

BOATS ARRIVE

QUEENSTOWN, Ireland, April 6.—Four British torpedo boat destroyers have arrived here, supposedly to protect government supplies against another republican coup, such as that when raiders last week seized explosives on board an admiralty ship of Cork.

The last survivor of the Custer massacre in the Little Big Horn country, in June, 1876, is dead again. There must have been a lot of him.

A CHICK WELL STARTED IS HALF RAISED

A day old chick must thrive from the day it begins to consume feed. There must be no set-back. Progress must be one of steady development.

Albers' Chick Feed is the choice of many large hatcheries, turning out annually thousands of baby chicks in all sections of the Pacific Coast. This mixture of grains is fed by them because it is free from dust, has a well selected variety of the choicest grains of the right kind and properly sized as to milling. It is neither too fine or too coarse, just right for the baby chick.

Albers' Chick Feed is particularly noteworthy for the prominence of ROLLED OATS and a good proportion of Wheat. When a chick is a week old, also begin using ALBERS' CHICK MASH, it is a quality that puts it in the same class as ALBERS' CHICK FEED.

ALBERS' CHICK FEED is sold by all dealers in various weight sacks from ten pounds upward to 100. ALBERS' CHICK MASH is packed in 10-pound sacks and 50-pound sacks.

The Great Observation Puzzle GRAND PRIZE $500.00 CASH

And a whole series of other cash prizes. You do not have to be a subscriber to win a prize. This puzzle is open to every man, woman, boy or girl—it costs nothing to try.

Young and old may join in the fun—all can participate—from the tiniest child to grandfather and great grandmother. No object is so small but that the poorest eyesight can see it. It is a test of skill. Your ability to find "R" words determines the prize you win. The most entertaining puzzle ever devised. No complicated rules.

This great contest is being conducted by The Statesman Publishing Co., Salem, Oregon, one of the largest and best known publishing houses in Oregon. This is your guarantee that the prizes will be awarded with absolute fairness and squareness to you and every other contestant. Frankly, it is intended to introduce THE PACIFIC HOMESTEAD, Oregon's greatest farm magazine, THE NORTHWEST POULTRY JOURNAL, the leading poultry journal of the Pacific Northwest, and THE OREGON STATESMAN, Salem's foremost daily newspaper. You may enter and win the best prizes whether you are a subscriber to any of these publications or not—and, moreover, you will neither be asked or expected to take these magazines or spend a single penny of your own money to compete.

Here is the idea: The Pacific Homestead is the oldest and best farm magazine published in the Pacific Northwest, issued weekly, and has a very large number of readers. The Northwest Poultry Journal is also very widely read and has the largest circulation of any magazine in its class published west of Chicago. The Oregon Statesman is Salem's leading newspaper, but our motto is "At least one of our magazines in every home." We want more people to become acquainted with these famous publications. Therefore, when we know-edge your entry in the contest we will register you in class A. Remember that absolutely no subscriptions are required to qualify your entry in class A and that your entry will be placed before the committee of final judges when they come to award the prizes in class A. However, if you are ambitious and thrifty and would like to have an opportunity to win a larger prize as in classes B, C, or D, and inasmuch as we want more readers to become acquainted with our splendid publications; therefore, when we acknowledge your entry in the contest and you know your standing for the prizes, we shall send you without cost a copy of our very latest issues. Then in order to qualify your entry in class B, Class C, or Class D, you will be asked to assist us in carrying on this big introduction plan by showing your copies to just one friend or neighbor to qualify in class B, two friends or neighbors to qualify in class C, and only three friends or neighbors to qualify in class D. Just friends or neighbors who will appreciate these really worth while publications and want them to come to them regularly. Your friends can have any one or an assortment of all our publications if they wish. You can easily fulfill this simple condition in a few minutes of your spare time and we will even send copies to each of your friends if you wish.

HOW TO SEND YOUR SOLUTIONS

Use only one side of the paper that contains the names of the visible objects beginning with the letter "R" and put your name and address (stating Mr., Mrs. or Miss) in the upper right-hand corner. If you wish to write anything but your answer, use a separate sheet of paper.

Three independent judges having no connection whatever with this firm will award the prizes and the answers naming the largest number of visible objects in the above picture having names which begin with "R" will be awarded the first prize in class in which the answer is registered. The answer having the second best list of names will be awarded second prize in the class in which it is registered and so on till the fifteen prizes have been awarded. Contestants must agree to abide by the decision of the judges.

This splendid offer will be good only for a limited time, so send in your solution right away now to
