Miss Brown is a member of Beta Chi and Mr. Pollock is a member of Kappa Gamma Rho. Both young persons have been active in student affairs during their university career.

Miss Margaret Putnam, a stenographer from the state bonus commission office went to Portland last night for a few days visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Huntington are receiving the congratulations of their many friends on the birth of a daughter, Shirley, born last night. Mrs. Huntington was formerly Miss Marjorie Kay. Mr. Huntington is instructor in the Medford high school and arrived in Salem from there early last evening. Mr. Huntington will assume the position of athletic director of the Salem high school at the beginning of the coming year. Both Mr. and Mrs. Huntington are former University of Oregon students and have many friends both in Eugene and Portland.

Mrs. Marie A. Flint and William F. McCall were married last night at the residence of Judge George H. Burnett, the judge officiating at the marriage service. The couple left for a short wedding trip and will be at home on Mr. McCall's Polk county farm, two miles west of Salem after June 1.

Both Mr. and Mrs. McCall are prominent in fraternal circles particularly in the Order of the Eastern Star and the White Shrine of Jerusalem. Mrs. McCall spent most of her girlhood in Roseburg, coming to Salem within the last 10 years. She is a niece of Mrs. W. A. Caslick with whom she has lived in Salem. She has a wide circle of friends and is deservedly popular and talented, especially in music. Mr. McCall is a prosperous farmer who came to Polk county from South Dakota a few years ago and has already achieved an excellent standing in this community.

CLUBS AND WOMEN'S ACTIVITIES

Portland was chosen as the place of the 1923 national convention of the American Association of University Women at the recent convention held in Kansas City. The association is an organization combining in its membership the former Association of Collegiate Alumnae and a southern organization of college women.

The Portland chapter of University women have been active during the last winter in various ways. Eugene has an active organization of faculty women of the University of Oregon and graduates of the university, which is accredited to the association.

A group of women at Corvallis, themselves graduates of accredited colleges and universities, have formed an organization for their own association and benefit and also for the purpose of assisting in any way possible the graduates of the Oregon Agricultural college in securing recognition by the national association.

"Blue Heron" Is Desired for Auditorium

"The Great Blue Heron" a painting by R. Bruce Horsfall of Portland, which was exhibited in Salem last year, may become the property of the Salem library, according to an announcement made at the Salem Arts league meeting Tuesday by Miss Flora Case, librarian.

In conversation with Mr. Horsfall, Miss Case mentioned that she would like to have the picture to hang in the library auditorium. Mr. Horsfall replied that he would rather have the picture there than any place he could think of and to prove it told Miss Case that he would reduce his price on the picture $50 which would bring it down to $75.

Hearing of the offer a local patron of the library said that he would give $10 toward the purchase price of the picture. Miss Case explained the offer to members of the Arts league with the idea that some members might also be interested in helping to make the purchase. Monroe Gilbert of the Gilbert Art Craft studio offered to furnish the frame and do the work of framing if the canvas were secured.

Mr. Horsfall is a well known painter of birds and animals and is an Oregon man. He exhibited a number of his pictures in Salem last year where they attracted considerable attention.

Mrs. J. M. Clifford was appointed by the Arts league to take the names of those who would be willing to assist in the purchase of the painting.

French War Orphans Aid Is Sought by Mrs. Mary Mather

Mrs. Mary Mather of Paris, president of the committee of propaganda for the vocational schools for war orphans in France, has been in Washington interviewing Ambassador Jusserand regarding an exhibition of American art to be held in Paris next spring.

She will succeed Mrs. E. N. Hal of Woodburn, retiring leader. The next semi-annual meeting of the federation will be held in Salem in October.

Other officers chosen were Mrs. H. B. Latham, Silverton, vice president; Mrs. J. G. Fontaine, Jefferson, secretary; Mrs. Hiram Overton, Woodburn, treasurer; Mrs. J. B. Currie, Willard, auditor; Mrs. J. W. Sadler, Aurora and Mrs. J. Scholz, Shaw, directors.

Two addresses on current topics were given before the federation meeting. Mrs. Lola G. Baldwin, of the Portland Women's Protective association gave facts and figures on the present day situation morally concerning women and Prof. C. N. Panunzio spoke on the Americanization or lack of Americanization of the immigrant.

The Salem Women's club and Etokta, formerly the North Salem Women's club, will be joint hostesses for the federation meeting at the October meeting, Salem being the only town having two clubs in the federation.

Mrs. W. E. Kirk of the Salem Women's club was yesterday chosen president of the Marion County Federation of Women's clubs.

More than 75 delegates attended the convention meeting. Only routine business was taken up. The musical program was given by the Aurora club women and included two numbers. A piano duet by Mrs. Frank Miller and Mrs. J. Robinson and a musical reading by Mrs. J. W. Sadler were considered especially good by the delegates. Mrs. Miller was Mrs. Sadler's accompanist.

"Social betterment and mutual improvement" is the avowed object of the federation which is now in its third year of existence.

Ex-officio delegates to the convention from Salem were Miss Mattie Beatty, director; Mrs. W. E. Kirk, chairman of the legislative committee; and Mrs. Mason

Bishop, outgoing treasurer of federation. Delegates from Etokta included Mrs. F. N. Teethers, Mrs. Alfred Vick and Mrs. Richard Erickson.

Delegates from Salem Women's club were Mrs. Lawrence T. Harris, Mrs. Z. G. Riggs, Mrs. C. S. Hamilton, Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner, Mrs. C. P. Bishop and Mrs. Robert J. Hendricks. The Aurora Women's club served luncheon to the delegates at noon.
