

COMEDY PLAY IS WELL PRESENTED

High School Students Show Talent in Production of "Clarence"

A reception worthy of an extremely clever play interpreted by a well chosen cast, was accorded Booth Tarkington's comedy success, "Clarence," when it was presented by the student body of the high school under the direction of Miss Faye Bolin last night.

The same clean, sparkling, typically American humor which the noted author of "Parrot" injected into his books of American youth, he made the spirit of the play and with its clever plot and attractive characters, the play would be an assured success almost without considering its interpretation.

The cast which presented it last night was worthy of the piece they were playing. Sam Palmer as "Bobby," a youth of 17, who is experiencing his first love affairs, and Margaret Pierce as his equally young, self-willed and impulsively sister, did very creditably in their parts.

The character interpretation of Keith Brown in the difficult role of "Clarence" stood out prominently in a cast, all of which did well in interpretation.

Arthur Montgomery as "Mr. Wheeler," father of Cora and Bobby, played and acted to perfection the role of a successful business man wearied by the domestic troubles of his family. Mary McKinnon as the attractive governess of Cora, played her role with dignified ease that gave an atmosphere of smoothness to the play.

The play proved a decided success financially and a substantial sum to the amount of several hundred dollars will be turned over to the student body treasury.

The cast follows: Mrs. Martin Mary West Mr. Wheeler Arthur Montgomery Mrs. Wheeler Helen Sellig Bobby Wheeler Sam Pemberton Cora Wheeler Margaret Pierce Violet Pinney Mary McKinnon Clarence Keith Brown Della Helen Pollock Dinwiddie Ellis Welty Hubert Stem Walter Hiff

Helped Her Mother Wonderfully In these days of "flu," coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough, it is well to know that every year there are used more bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar than of any other cough medicine. Mrs. S. I. Hunt, 515 W. 6th St., Cincinnati, Ohio, writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar relieved me of a hacking cough, tickling in the throat, wheezing and pains in the chest. It is helping my mother wonderfully." That's why druggists recommend Foley's. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

SNOW IN SOUTH

JACKSON, Mich., April 21.—Jackson citizens arose this morning to find four inches of snow on the ground. By 10 o'clock, however, it had disappeared.

The flapper salute is supposed to be a shake of the bobbed hair and a flapping of goloshes. Gosh!

FINE MUSICAL PROGRAM HEARD

One of the best events of Music Week at Methodist Church Last Night

One of the fine musical events of the week was the concert at the First Methodist church last night by the music department of Willamette university. It was a splendidly balanced program, with organ, piano, strings, solo and chorus numbers, covering almost the whole range of music except orchestra and band.

The first number on the program, Marche Pontificale, organ prelude, by Miss Lucille Ross, was a stately, imposing number. The organ and piano duo, Kameos-Ostrow, the weird, plaintive, stately Jewish national story as interpreted by Rubenstein and as presented to a Sale audience by Miss Laura Hoyt at the piano and Miss Ross at the organ, was a number to be long remembered.

The solos, instrumental and vocal, were all delightfully executed; a violin number by Mary Talmadge - Headrick, a piano double offering by Eugenia Meyers, a 'cello double number by Avery Hicks, and vocal solos by Everett S. Ball, Mildred Strevey and Miss Kathleen LaRaut. Miss LaRaut, in responding to an encore, gave a delightful little number, "Spring is Here," written by Mrs. Nellie Mulkey Stone of Salem, a graduate of Willamette, conservatory class of 1921. The women's glee club number, and the trio, violin, cello and piano, by Delbert Moore, Avery Hicks and Byron Arnold, were highly appreciated. The house was crowded to its capacity.

Logan Vines Puzzlers

Following the big freeze the fruit authorities found it impossible to escape the argument that loganberries ought not to be trained up on the wires in the fall, for they would freeze in the winter cold. The next winter, most of the growers left the vines down—and the wet water drowned, suffocated, damaged them as they lay on the ground or in the grass. The weather got them both going and coming, as they did the right things at the wrong times according to the thermometer and the rain gauge. This year the down vines were rather the best, because there were a good many sharp, snappy spells of weather that affected the trained vines that had made a late growth. The general crop conditions, however, promise exceedingly well.

Many in Prospect

Strawberries seem destined to make money this year. The Etersberg varieties always look good and green all through the season, and this year the Marshall and Oregon varieties also promise well. Inspector Van Trump reports a good many weevil-infected fields, though this year the proportion of new fields inspected and found infested is less than one-half of that of last year. This, however, might be very misleading, for it means that many new fields are infested. There is no help for such fields, but to plow up the old fields and put the ground into some other crop for awhile, so as to starve or cultivate the insects out of existence.

Plant Shipping Heavy

Two Salem growers and handlers, Ward K. Richardson and G. W. Weeks, have shipped out several hundred thousand plants and the acreage is holding up well.

Speaking generally, Mr. Van Trump looks for a good fruit crop, an increasing acreage of fruit of all kinds, a better attention to the orchards, and a gradual development of the valley along almost all lines of fruit production as permanent business.

Don't Disregard a Cold

Foley's Honey and Tar will check a cold if taken in time, and will also stop a cough of long standing. It promptly gives relief, soothes and heals. Mrs. Geneva Robinson, 88 N. Swan St., Albany, N. Y., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar is the best cough medicine I ever used. Two bottles broke a most stubborn, lingering cough." It loosens phlegm and mucus, eases hoarseness, stops tickling throat, helps "flu" and grip coughs. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

Bazaar is Besieged by Hungry People of Salem

The women of the First Methodist church made a grievous mistake in advertising a "chicken dinner for 50 cents" for their bazaar in the church parlors last night. Such armies of hungry besieged the ticket sellers, that they could not be served; they had to wait until the next evening of the kind. It was a real event in the lives of those who were on time, however.

HOW TO SEND YOUR SOLUTIONS

Use only one side of the paper that contains the names of the visible objects beginning with the letter "R" and put your name and address (stating Mr., Mrs. or Miss) in the upper right-hand corner. If you wish to write anything but your answers, use a separate sheet of paper.

Feels Like a New Woman

"I was a sufferer from kidney trouble for several years," writes Mrs. Arthur Demulle, R. F. D. 1, Grasmere, N. H., "and suffered so much I felt completely lame all over. Since I have been taking Foley Kidney Pills I am not so lame. My back ached all the time and my eyes were all a blur. Now I can see fine and feel like a different woman. Since I have taken two bottles of Foley Kidney Pills I don't have that tired feeling. I can do my own work now." They bring quick results. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

All Seats Taken For Dancing Class Program

"Standing room only," and that all taken, was the condition at the Grand theater last night when Mrs. Ralph White and her class of children put on their spectacular production, "The Butterflies' Ball." The performance will be repeated this afternoon.

The event has been in preparation for a number of weeks in their personal preparation for the costume and the dancing, and it was a delightful presentation—at least as airy and graceful as the dance of the butterflies, which was the motif of the program. Plump little girls, dainty little girls, adorable little girls, in adorable costumes and intricate, rhythmic dances that captivate the eye; also boys in the brownie dance were presented in a bewildering program of beauty and grace.

The event was a benefit performance for the children's ward of the new Salem hospital. A substantial sum was raised for the splendid charity that brings gay hearts to alleviate the woes of suffering bodies.
