WHILE awaiting the full benefit of spring time Salem society is planning for a number of social and musical affairs in the near future which are awaited expectantly.

The Illahee Country club will have one of the pleasant social affairs which are so enjoyed early in May according to present plans. Salem golfers seek the club house greens every sunny day and will be glad when the pleasant afternoons may be resumed.

Miss Elizabeth Lord will sponsor a lawn party in her beautiful gardens for the benefit of the new Episcopal church early in June. While the affair will be open to the public it will be an unusually attractive affair especially considering the surroundings of the garden.

Several bridge parties sponsored by Salem Women's club members will be given in the near future. Mrs. E. Cooke Patton and her committee will give a bridge party within the next two weeks and other groups will give theirs later.

The committee headed by Mrs. Thomas B. Kay plan to have an outdoor bridge party later in the summer while Mrs. W. P. Lord who is a member of Mrs. William Brown's committee will sponsor a large garden party later in the summer.

Music

The largest exclusive violin recital of the season was given at the First Christian church Wednesday evening when Miss Elizabeth Levy presented her students in recital. The church was crowded with music lovers who showed their appreciation by prolonged applause after each number. Each student gave a creditable performance playing from memory.

The closing number on the program was the playing of three selections by an ensemble of 45 violins. The instruments seemed to fairly sing so beautifully did the three parts blend in perfect harmony.
