Banquet is Planned—Miss Opal Loren, director of recreation and social life in the Methodist church at Waconda is planning a mother's and daughter's banquet two weeks from Friday night. It will be patterned after the fathers' and sons' banquet given at the same place a few weeks ago.

Come—To the great $10.00 down sale. Red Star oil stoves at Stiff's.—Adv.

Last of Season—This week is to have the last church night celebration at the First Methodist church for this spring. These programs starting with the basket picnic dinner and ending in a general study of almost every organized department of the church work, have been given every Thursday night through the winter, and have been largely attended and greatly enjoyed. The meeting Thursday night, the last until next fall, is to be in the nature of a resume of the church progress during the prosperous months since the fall series started.

The Best Yet—Rose Coghlan-Long Filler 5c Cigar, can now be had at any store.—Adv.

Today, Last Day—$10 down sale. Red Star Oil stoves at Stiff's.—Adv.

Elks to Omit Meeting—A special dispensation from the deputy grand exalted ruler of the Elks' lodge, George Neuner of Roseburg, has sanctioned the passing of the regular weekly meeting night of the Salem lodge, in favor of the Cherringo Cherringo. Several of the important factors of the great show, including, it is said the bearded lady and the raw meat eater and two or three other of the most important freaks and actors, are likewise important members of the Elks, and they couldn't well be in both Boy is Run Over—Robert Byers, 5 years old, son of Lee Byers, 697 Market street, miraculously escaped a broken leg last night when he was run over by a wood wagon, driven by a man whose name was not ascertained. A wheel of the wagon passed over the boy's leg, but an examination by a physician showed that the limb was not broken as was feared. The father of the boy said the driver was not to blame for the accident.

Boehm Selection Approved—Among the most important actions taken at the quarterly conference held at the Waconda Methodist church last Sunday for the Waconda and Brooks churches was approval of the appointment of Harry Boehm as superintendent of the Sunday school at Brooks. It is expected that under his direction the big growth the Sunday school has undergone under the direction of Miss Esther McCracken of Salem will continue. Enrollment and attendance have more than tripled in the last three months. The building formerly used as a parsonage is used as a Sunday school headquarters, so that each class in the Sunday school has a room to itself.

Big Saving—In bedroom furniture at Hamilton's.—Adv.

Steps About Finished—The last bit of construction has been finished on the new steps of Waller hall and will be dedicated during Junior week-end. The finishing touches will be applied the latter part of this week in the shape of some red paint to make them harmonize with the rest of the building. The contractors promised to have the steps ready for the senior class by May day and they have kept their promise. The seniors are proud of the gift which they will present and they have a right to be for the new steps are substantial and add a charm and beauty to Waller hall.

Campus Improved—Willamette university campus is getting a very good brushing and cleaning preparatory to Junior week-end, May 5 and 6. The campus committee has succeeded in getting the rose bushes planted on the space once occupied by the trees. On account of the death and decay of many of the old trees it was decided to remove them and plant rose bushes in the curbing space between the curb and the sidewalk. Yesterday several freshmen were serving their four hour of labor in moving a rake gently back and forth over the newly disturbed ground.

Don't Worry—Smoke a Rose Coghlan-Long filler 5c cigar, at any store.—Adv.

BITS FOR BREAKFAST Are you cleaning up? Are you getting ready for Blossom day. Santiam ore will very soon be going to the Tacoma smelter at the rate of 500 tons a month. Then watch that camp grow.

The Statesman news items of several days ago, telling about the uncovering of rich ore in the Lotz-Larson mine in the Santiam district, started things. The owners of claims up that way are getting ready to do assessment work. They are all doing it. The woods will be full of new prospectors this summer.

The Legion boys are going to get back of clean baseball in Salem this summer. It is a great sport and good for the health.

The scientists are quite sure that power will be distributed by wireless. Electrical energy will be transmitted through the ether. Some day the power of the imagination will be harnessed and made to run a sawmill. Anyhow, the mind will think it runs it and that will answer the same purpose. The well-directed mind will be able to think itself out of all troubles and into all joys.

To what lengths the new states of Europe are going in the matter of protection for home industries is illustrated in the new edict of the Czecho-Slovak government that foreign automobiles must not stay in the country more than 48 hours. Foreign tourists are likely to decide not to stay even so long as that.
