Bears Have Lost Control of Market, in Opinion of Euthusiasts

CHICAGO, May 11.-Wheat went soaring in price today and for May delivery showed an overnight gain of 7 1-2 cents a bushel. Enthusiasts for a higher price if values contended that the 8-2-E, pat. heavier deliveries likely to be witnessed here this month had been met and that today's results were evidence that bears had lost con-gained 3-8 a 1-2 to 5-8. In pro- $10. visions the outcome varied from cent decline to 70 advance. It was a runaway market in wheat today especially in the final dealings. Leading owners o contracts calling for delivery of wheat this month were credited with adding to their holdings, and wood add to Salem, $10. with having put to a great disadvantage traders who are short. of the day. Advices that the alliesh ad approved an Argentine credit to Germany and that the Russian answer at Genoa was favorable to a better understanding with the other European powers counted also in some degree as bullish factors. The market showed more activity than has been the rule of late, but not withstanding the sharp advance in prices the aggregate of transactions reached no extraordinary total. Corn and oats derived their strength from the action Provisions except pork averaged lower with hog values. Trade in Pork was negligible in amount.

By Willamette Students

In yesterday's student body meeting at Willamette university, the point system was turned down cold. Not a supporting vote was cast for it and not one speech for it was made. This pet scheme of a voluntary committee has met the death which has been in the offing for some time. Each time the point system has come up for cons'deration it has received a cold reception. A favorable reception was g'ven to the work of the committee on revision of the student body constitution and a motion of approval was given. It is hoped to have the constitution revised and ready for publication before the end of this semester.
