THE STATESMAN PUBLISHING CO.
Publishers of The Pacific Homestead, The Northwest Poultry Journal, The Daily Oregon Statesman, and The Semi-Weekly Oregon Statesman announces
Great Observation Puzzle
Young and old may join in the fun—all can participate, from the tiniest child to grandfather and great-grandmother. No object is so small but that the poorest eyesight can see it. It is a test of skill. Your ability to find "R" words determine the prize you win. The most interesting puzzle ever devised. No complicated rules.
GRAND PRIZE $500.00 CASH and a whole series of other cash prizes. You do not have to be a subscriber to win a prize. This puzzle is open to every man, woman, boy or girl—it costs nothing to try.

How many visible objects in the above picture have names which begin with "R"?

YOU CAN WIN $500.00
Here's How—If your answer is awarded first prize by the judges and you have sent in two subscriptions in class C as described you will receive $200.00 as your prize instead of $100.00; second prize $100.00; third prize $50.00, etc. (see third column in prize list) or if your answer is awarded first prize by the judges and you have sent in three subscriptions as described in class D you will receive $500.00 as your prize instead of $200.00; second prize $200.00; third prize $100.00, etc. (see fourth column in prize list)
You will be taking some paper paper or magazine any way. By subscribing in this way you will get full subscription value for all the money paid and in addition have an opportunity to win $500.00.
It takes only one subscription to qualify your answer for a $100.00 prize, two subscriptions to qualify for a $200.00 prize or three subscriptions to qualify for a $500.00 reward. Three subscriptions as described is the maximum necessary to qualify your answer for the big $500.00 cash prize.

INFORMATION
RULES AND REGULATIONS
1.—Any man, woman, boy or girl (except adult employees of The Statesman Publishing Co.) may submit an answer. It costs nothing to try.
2.—Answers should be written on one side of the paper only and words numbered consecutively 1, 2, 3, etc. Write your full name and address on each page in the upper right hand corner. If you desire to write anything else, use a separate sheet.
3.—Only words found in the English dictionary will be counted. Do not use compound, hyphenated, or obsolete words. Use either the singular or plural, but where the plural is used the singular cannot be counted, and vice versa.
4.—Words of the same spelling can be used only once, even though used to designate different objects. The same object can be counted only once; however, any part of the object may also be named.
5.—The answer having the largest and nearest correct list of names of visible objects shown in the picture that begin with the letter "R" will be awarded first prize, etc. Neatness, style or handwriting have no bearing upon deciding the winners.
6.—Candidates may co-operate in answering the puzzle, but only one prize will be awarded to any one household; nor will prizes be awarded to more than one of any group outside the family where two or more have been working together.
7.—A committee of three well known Oregon people having no connection with The Statesman Publishing Company will act as judges, their names to be announced in a few days. Participants agree to accept all decisions of the judges as final and conclusive.
8.—All answers will receive the same consideration, regardless of whether or not a subscription is sent in. The best list received will be rated as first and receive the award in accordance with the class in which it belongs (A, B, C or D). The second best list will be rated second and receive the award in accordance with the class in which it belongs (A, B, C or D) and so on, until all the awards have been distributed.
9.—All answers must be handed in or placed in the mail not later than May 31st, 1922.
10.—The announcement of the prize winners and the correct list of words will be printed at the close of the contest and a copy mailed to each person sending in a picture puzzle solution.
11.—All questions or correspondence regarding the observation puzzle should be addressed to Puzzle Puzzle Editor, Statesman Publishing Co., Salem, Oregon.
12.—All answers must be handed in or placed in the mail not later than May 31st, 1922.
13.—If for any reason whatever the Puzzle Editor considers any disqualified, he reserves the right to select such persons from the offer by refunding the money paid for subscription.
14.—In case of a tie, the prize so offered will be pooled in a fair and equitable manner.
