ATTACK MADE ON DAUGHERTY BY DEMOCRATS

Letters Bearing on Alleged Attempt to Release C. W. Morse from Prison Are Read into Record.

TAFT'S CONFIDENCE DECLARED BETRAYED

Arkansas Senator Disclaims Attempt to Embarrass Justice Department

WASHINGTON, May 22. — Renewing his attack on Attorney General Daugherty in the senate today, Senator Caraway, Democrat, Arkansas, placed in the congressional record alleged copies of two more letters purporting to show that Mr. Daugherty was actively and directly interested in obtaining the release from the Atlanta penitentiary of Charles W. Morse, the shipbuilder.

The letters, published today in a local paper, Senator Caraway said, showed that Mr. Daugherty was engaged as counsel in the case because he had the confidence of former President Taft, who commuted Mr. Morse's 15-year sentence, and charged that Mr. Daugherty had "abused" Mr. Taft's confidence.

Letters Four Years Old
One of the letters purporting to be from Thomas B. Felder, New York attorney, alleged to have been associated with Mr. Daugherty in the Morse pardon case. The other, alleged to have been written by Frank L. Seeley, editor of the Atlanta Georgian, to Mr. Felder said that Mr. Morse owed his liberty and his life to "you" and Mr. Daugherty's efforts. Mr. Seeley said his interest was "purely philanthropic." Both letters bore 1917 dates.

Commenting on statements in the letters that Mr. Felder and the present attorney general took steps to prevent revocation of Mr. Morse's release when it was charged that fraud had been practiced upon President Taft, Senator Caraway asserted that Mr. Felder and Mr. Daugherty, if not cognizant of the original fraud, prevented rectification.

Moses Hurlis Charge
Senator Moses, Republican, New Hampshire, when Senator Caraway had finished, asserted that "the whole performance" in connection with discussion of the Morse case was "a smoke screen to hide Democratic cabinet officers who served under the last administration."

The Morse and Bosch Magneto cases, now before the department of justice, the New Hampshire senator said, promised to "seriously embarrass a former attorney general and former secretary of the treasury."

Senator Caraway disclaimed any intent to embarrass the department or any interest in the pending prosecution.

"If the former attorney general is as bad as this attorney general, he ought to be prosecuted," he added. The evidence submitted in the Morse case, if placed before a jury, Senator Caraway declared, would convict both Mr. Daugherty and Mr. Felder of fraud.

Letter Gives Details
The letter by Mr. Felder, purporting to have been written to Leon O. Bailey, Hanover National Bank building, New York, detailed connections with the Morse case at length, explaining receipt

Miss Hudnut, a dancer and motion picture star, is the daughter of Richard Hudnut, wealthy perfume manufacturer. ### FIGURES AGAIN SHOW CHANGES

McMahan Instead of Mrs. Bishop Apparently Nominated for Legislature

According to a recheck of the unofficial Marion county vote, L. H. McMahan has secured the Republican nomination for this legislature, with 42 votes more than Mrs. Fannie Kay Bishop.

This apparently places the following named candidates in the lower house by the votes indicated after each name: Thomas Kay, 4709; Otto Wilson, 3391; L. T. Reynolds, 3279 and L. H. McMahan 3267.

Official Count Begun
County Clerk U. G. Boyer announced last night that the official count had been begun for the legislative ticket.

First announcements named Kay, Wilson, Bishop and Reynolds as Marion county winners with McMahan No. 5, with 3175 votes. Prior to correction of several errors, Mrs. Bishop had 3297 while Reynolds was credited with 3184.

It is not thought that the official count will be completed for several days.

GOVERNOR VOTE CHANGES

Official counts of the gubernatorial vote was completed last night by County Clerk U. G. Boyer. This count and a recheck of unofficial tallies, results in minor changes and the Republican vote for governor.

FIFTY AUTOS TO MAKE TRIP TO CORVALLIS

Commercial, Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs Will Sponsor Motor Caravan to O. A. C.

STUDENT CONVOCATION MAIN DRAWING CARD

Luncheon to Be Served Visitors by Domestic Science Department

Salem Commercial club, assisted by the Kiwanis and the Rotary clubs, will send 50 auto-loads of citizens to Corvallis Thursday, to attend the big convocation of students at O. A. C. This day is being especially set apart for the people of Salem, and the college hopes that at least 300 will be there to accept its hospitality.

Dinner is to be served by the girls of the domestic economy courses—but not too economical. In honor of their state capital guests.

Caravan Leaves at 9
The caravan is to leave the Commercial club at 9 o'clock with bannered automobiles advertising Salem. It is expected that they will reach the college in time for some valuable sightseeing before the luncheon hour at 11:45.

The convocation of the more than 3000 students is set for 1 o'clock. During the afternoon all the classes and departments of the institution will be running at full speed ahead, so that the visitors may gain a definite idea of just what their sons and daughters are receiving at the hands of the state. The visitors will spend most of the afternoon looking over the college grounds and halls.

Everyone Welcome
An urgent invitation is extended to all who can provide cars to drop into the receiving line and add their own presence, as well as help care for the others who are interested in the trip. It is a co-ed event, for women as well as men, and all are invited.

DETECTIVE QUILTS TO STAY BY KLAN

Former Member of I. W. W. Desires to Remain With Organization

LOS ANGELES, May 22.—Jack Dymond, former member of the Industrial Workers of the World, resigned as an investigator for the Los Angeles county district attorney's office today and announced he did so because he did not wish to resign from the Ku Klux Klan. "I was told either to quit the Klan or quit the district attorney's office," said Dymond, "and I quit the latter." He said the alternative was presented to him by the district attorney.

Dymond testified for the prosecution in recent trials of alleged members of the I. W. W. for criminal syndicalism, concerning activities of that organization of which he said he had been a member.

The Los Angeles county jury will resume tomorrow its investigation of alleged Klan activities, in connection with the raid at Ingleswood on April 22, which resulted in slaying of Constable M. B. Mosher, one of the raiders.

SHINGLE MILL BURNS

EUGENE, Or., May 22.—The shingle mill of the Delta Shingle company on the lower Siuslaw river, in Lane county, was destroyed by fire early today. The loss is estimated at $50,000 and the company carried $30,000 insurance. Workmen employed at the mill say the fire started from the furnace room.

18 RECRUITS MUCH WANTED BY COMPANY

Captain Paul Hendricks Looking for Several Men for American Lake Trip

Captain Paul Hendricks of Company F is appealing for about 18 more good recruits for his company within the next two weeks, to get a full enrollment in time to make a proper showing at the national guard encampment at American Lake, June 15 to 29.

The guard pays a good salary for the services of its members, for the regular drills through the year as well as for the two weeks encampment.

The 1922 encampment has been moved forward so that it begins immediately after the close of most colleges and schools, and offers the young men a "job" as well as a military training and a fine working vacation. There is a good opening for 18 ambitious young men.

BEAUTY SPOT MAY BE SAVED

Citizens Anxious to Have City Keep Oak Grove for Public Purposes

Should the city take action to save the oak grove at North Mill creek and Capitol street for school, park or playground purposes?

Such is a query submitted yesterday by mail over the signatures of Mrs. A. N. Bush, George E. Halvorsen, Paul B. Wallace and R. A. Harris to a large list of Salem citizens.

Spot is Rare One
"Salem has few such spots for schools, parks and playgrounds," says the quiz card which each recipient is requested to "please answer promptly."

Quoted in full, the query is as follows: "One of Salem's beauty spots, the oak grove at North Mill creek and Capitol street, is about to be divided into city lots and placed on the market. Salem has too few such spots for schools, parks and playgrounds. The owners are compelled to dispose of it at once, but the undersigned are assured that if sold in one piece for public purposes, a price materially less than its market value will be made besides saving the expense of surveying, dedicating, street paving, sidewalks, etc. now under contemplation. Please give me your opinion in 50 words or less on this card as to whether or not the city should take over this beautiful tract."

New High School Looms
It is urged that a new high school must be built in Salem soon. This location is looked upon with much favor. It is thought that the site for such a structure and its proper environs should embody the tract under discussion and the two blocks in The Oaks addition immediately on the north. These two blocks are owned almost entirely by the city at present. It remains only to secure this tract to complete this superb site for a high school which will admit of all necessary expansion for 50 years to come.

The site is in the geographical center of the city. It is not at present in the center of population but may easily be so within the not distant future.

Site Near Traffic Arteries
Already the high school sports field is in this locality. An arched passageway under the railroad would connect the field most conveniently with the school site which would be in plain view of the passing through both by railroad and highway.

The tract under discussion contains the oak grove which doubtless gave the name to The Oaks addition although The Oaks addition proper does not contain any of the oak grove. All, however, are included in the Parrish donation land claim.

RAND SPEAKS ON PROBLEMS

Member of Supreme Court Does Not Approve of Recall Elections

"I hate the proposition of a recall; it is wrong in theory and in practice. When the recall can operate against such a man as Frank Miller, one of the nation's famous members of the Oregon public service commission, on such a campaign cry as 'Six cents is too much to pay for a 5-cent fare,' it is dangerous. If intelligence cannot remedy these conditions, then the government of Oregon is going to go steadily to the worse."

Judge John L. Rand, of the Oregon supreme court, said this as one of a galaxy of striking statements before the Salem Commercial club, at the Monday noon luncheon. His subject was "Americanization" as a general theme, and he handled it in a masterly manner. But it wasn't the conversion of the foreigner that he urged; it was the rejuvenation of the native-born into a saner, more logical actor in the political drama.

"We must devise means for two parties: then if one wastes the public's money, there is another organized party to turn to and overthrow failure. I do not urge the direct primaries, nor do I urge their abolition. But we have been finding out that the man who came here and built Oregon, and the men who framed her old constitution, were men of strength and intelligence. Now, we have everything, and everybody making laws, and it is up to intelligence to bring back some of the sobriety we have lost."

Party Lines Fade
"Who isn't a Republican today? Everybody goes into the Republican primaries today, and helps to select the candidates and name the issues. There is no definite party line today; no one to hold definitely responsible. If there is to be any such responsibility, the parties must be clean and a living entity, the party must have something worth living for. But the system that destroys the responsible parties, increases the tax and plunders the public. The only way to sanity is to amend our present primary systems, or else go back to the old system."

"We, the people, are to blame for the heavy taxes of today. We voted them, allowed them, under the direct primary law. The very men who now shout loudest against expenses of the state voted for most of the items of heavy expense. Until we have two strong, responsible parties, there will continue to be turmoil, irresponsibility, waste."
The speaker said that he was glad to see more good men interested in public affairs, and trying

MUSIC STUDENTS GIVE RECITAL

Program by Willamette Department Presented at Methodist Church

A delightful concert recital was given in the Methodist church last night by students of the Willamette university school of music. Mrs. Eugenia Meyers, pianist, delighted her audience which almost completely filled the church auditorium, with six piano numbers.

The "Octave Etude" (Tipton) was given with good technique and feeling by Miss Meyers. Her "March Winds" and "Wild Ride" were two others especially well appreciated. She also played accompaniments for Everett Craven, baritone, and Miss Kathleen LaRonde, soprano, who assisted with the concert.

Mr. Craven's full baritone seemed especially pleasing in a number of old time ballads, "Pipes of Gordon's Men" and three salt water ballads, "Port of Many Ships", "Trade Winds", and "Mother Carey", were among those particularly well given.

Two negro spirituals arranged by Burleigh, "Go Down Moses" and "Didn't It Rain" showed the possibilities of the singers voice in ballads of this type.

"Barenboole" (Chaminade) was given by Miss LaRonde and Mr. Craven and was so popular that they were called back to repeat it. The pleasing melody seemed particularly suited to their voices.

Other numbers given by Mr. Craven were "Honor in Arms" (Handel), "The Monk" (Myerbeer), Miss Meyers also played "Clair de Lune" (Debussy), and finished with "Shepherd's Hey" (Grainger).

The auditorium of the church was almost completely filled with students and townspeople and all were appreciative of the especially good work done by the two students presented in the recital. Mr. Craven is a student of Prof. E. W. Hobson and Miss Meyers is a pupil of Miss Mary Alice Holman, both members of the Willamette school of music faculty.

PORTLAND, Or., May 22.—At a tabulation at 10 p. m. of the latest figures on the vote cast for the Republican nomination for governor in last Friday's primaries gave Hall 42,481; Olcott 42,728, a lead for Olcott of 247. Indications were that missing precincts would increase, rather than diminish Olcott's apparent plurality. It was considered certain that a state-wide official count would be required to determine the exact plurality.

See-sawing back and forth the lead in the race swung between Charles Hall and Governor Ben W. Olcott today as returns from the remoter sections of the state were tabulated.

Rivalling the spectacular windup of the campaign, which was enlivened by the action of Governor Olcott in denouncing the Ku Klux Klan and the endorsement of Hall by the Federated Patriotic Societies, the assembling of the returns has keyed up the state to a high pitch of popular interest and observers said the result might not be definitely determined until the official canvass is made. The secretary of state makes the official canvass 30 days after the election. The results from 21 counties were reported complete and from 15 counties incomplete.

Eighteen precincts were missing from the tabulation. Of these, one was in Douglas county, which has steadily favored Hall, and 17 were in counties which have steadily favored Olcott. Confirmation of Olcott's apparent nomination will not be had until returns from all counties are officially tabulated.

THIRD TRIAL IS AHEAD FOR BURCH

Judge Reeve to Convene Court Saturday to Set New Date for Hearing

LOS ANGELES, May 22.—Arthur C. Burch must go to trial a third time for the murder of J. Belton Kennedy, according to announcement today at the district attorney's office. The jury of the second trial had disagreed seven to five for acquittal.

The second trial of Madalynne Obenchain, co-defendant in the case is set for June 5, before Judge John W. Shank.

Four women and three men voted to acquit Burch. Five men voted for conviction, holding out for the death penalty.
