article will close these facts durfrom controversy as I promised eginning of these articles, though see difficult to refrain from acrious remarks at times. In a way, I hankful to the Rev. Dr. Lisie for writings because they have done the thing I wished done, i.e., proven opposition to the Cathalic church is a destructive propaganda, and also a that the persecution is the lot in the church even as it was the lot of founder, Christ, and the bonclusion erefore, that she is divine. As far emaible I have given the reason for therefore, that she is divine. As far possible I have given the reason for faith and while I have said again in again that it was and is the one only Christian religion and that all ers are branches, I have not maligned otestant churches, their ministers or meers. I have always contended and ill always contend that a vast numous Christians, and have shown how y are Catholies even though they do know what the word implies or what church teaches. They belong to the story of the church Christ founded and sour brothers in Christ, because they sincerely doing the will of their ther in so far as He has given them but.
