

Memorial Day Celebrated By Residents of Dallas

DALLAS, Or., May 31.—(Special to The Statesman.)—Memorial day was fittingly commemorated in Dallas yesterday. A big parade of the G. A. R. veterans, Spanish American war veterans, World war veterans, Company L, Oregon national guard, school children, members of the auxiliaries of the above organizations, and the fraternal orders was held in the morning, after which the graves of the soldier dead were covered with flowers in the J. O. O. F. cemetery. A program appropriate to the occasion was held in the armory during the day. All business houses and industries closed for the day in order to allow the employes a chance to take part in the exercises. Read the Classified Ads.

YAMHILL HAS NEW ARMORY

Building Dedicated on Memorial Day—Adjutant General Gives Address

Solemn tribute to Oregon's soldier and sailor dead marked the dedication of the newly completed Yamhill county state armory at McMinnville Tuesday.

The dedication of the building was the main feature of the Memorial day exercises at McMinnville. Over 1000 citizens of Yamhill county and the local company of the Oregon national guard at McMinnville gathered in the main auditorium of the building. Mayor W. Houck of McMinnville, Colonel J. C. Cooper of the Grand Army of the Republic, and Colonel George A. White, adjutant general of the state, were the speakers of the day.

Tribute Paid in Speech Colonel White, who made the dedication address, asked the members of the Grand Army of the Republic, the Spanish American war veterans, the Mexican border veterans, the World war veterans, the members of Company A, 162nd infantry, and the armory building committee to stand and stated it was through them that the erection of the building was made possible.

In his speech, Colonel White paid tribute to the sons of Oregon and Yamhill county who made the supreme sacrifice during the war and recalled instances overseas which typified the splendid spirit of Americanism which prevailed throughout all ranks of the national guard in the crises of 1918.

Spirit Ever Lives "The spirit that made the glorious victory in November, 1918, possible," said Colonel White, "was that which was born in '76 in the shedding of the blood of our forefathers, for which the alternate stripes of red in our flag stand, and which was nurtured in '61 and again in '98 on the fields of Gettysburg and Malabon."

"We all hope that there will be no more war and this building was not erected as a sacrifice to the gods of war, but will stand forth in generation to come, long after these splendid veterans of our wars have passed to everlasting peace, as a reminder of their great service to the cause of Americanism."

The building of the armory, which covers an entire block, and the construction of which was commenced last fall, cost approximately $80,000.

His friend recommended them "Six years ago," writes W. H. Shadwell, Stanley, Va., "I had kidney trouble, and at times was unable to raise myself in bed. Foley Kidney Pills were recommended to me by the Chief of the Fire Department. After using 3 bottles I was completely relieved and have never had a return of the symptoms. Why suffer when you can get relief from rheumatic pains, backache, swollen, sore and stiff joints, sleep disturbing bladder weakness and other symptoms of disordered kidneys. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

DALLAS TO HAVE NEW SIDEWALKS

Bids Opened by City Council Rut Contracts Are Not Yet Awarded

DALLAS, Or., May 31.—(Special to The Statesman.)—At a meeting of the Dallas city council held Monday night bids for the construction of several miles of concrete sidewalks were read, the lowest bid received being 18 cents a square foot and proposed by C. H. Rice, a contractor of Portland.

Other bids opened were as follows: Consolidated Construction company of Oswego, 30 cents a square foot; John Keating of Portland, 18 1/2 cents; and J. D. Gordon of Newberg, 18 1/4 cents. No contracts were awarded by the council, at the meeting as the members desired more time in which to go over the bids. A decision will be made at the next regular meeting of the council which will be held next Monday night. Several property owners put in bids for their own sidewalks which ran all the way from 5 cents to 10 cents a square foot.
