CLUBS AND WOMEN'S ACTIVITIES

"The Newest American" will be the subject of a talk this afternoon by Judge John McCourt at the meeting of the Women's Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church. The group will meet at the church this afternoon.

The Y.M.C.A. auxiliary will meet this afternoon in the Y. M. rooms. Election of officers for the coming year will be the principal business of the afternoon.

Floral Display Attracts Many

The Iris show, under the auspices of the Salem floral society, opened yesterday in the Grill room of the Marion hotel. Dr. H. J. Clement's exhibit was unusually large and occupied a long table running the length of the room. The different varieties, which were labeled occupied separate vases. The blooms varied in size and in length of stalks beside the wide variety of colors which ranged from the palest blues to the deep lavenders and purples. The two colored blooms were especially noticeable.

Other exhibits which were in place yesterday included Mrs. Hans Christensen, Mrs. Monroe Gilbert, Mrs. F. S. Lampert, Mrs. James Culver, Miss Sally Bush and Homer Smith. The Iris show is the first of a series of seasonal flower shows which will be given during the year by the floral society.

Resolutions Before Session Are Numerous

TILLAMOOK, Ore., June 1.—That the state convention of the Oregon State Federation of Women's clubs will not be dull in spite of its being a non-election year was shown in the spirited undecurrent of feeling at the meetings. Changes in the methods of handling the scholarship loan fund are to be proposed it is expected and neither side so far has indicated just what changes they propose. Miss Mattie Beatty of Salem is a member of the scholarship loan fund committee.

Resolutions which have been introduced so far and which will be voted on tomorrow are "commending the action of Will Hays in his action on Arbuckle films," "opposing the repeal of the millage tax for the support of the institutions of higher learning," removal of property restrictions for voters, appointment of prohibition enforcement officers by civil service, endorsement of the Johnson immigration and naturalization bill which would give women independent citizenship.

Reports Are Made
Dr. Edward O. Sisson, professor of philosophy at Reed college, stated that though 84 per cent of school teachers were women this should not be the case; that more men should be encouraged to take up teaching as a profession. He said that so long as Americans spend less on the educational program than on smoking tobacco, taxpayers should not complain about the small amount spent for the "luxury of receiving school education."

The women seem to stand solidly for anything that will retain present courses in public schools and for any bill that will increase educational facilities in Oregon public schools.

Reports from various clubs show that many organizations are handling from $4000 to $5000 a year, even in small towns. The late arrivals have swelled the registration to 300 women, representing clubs varying in membership from 20 to several hundred.

Clubs Make Report
Reports from the various organizations this morning disclosed that some clubs, even in small towns, handle $4000 to $5000 a year. Community club houses are being favored.

In her annual report, Mrs. Ida B. Callahan, president of the federation, suggested that district federations be formed in the state. There is now but one district federation in southern Oregon.

"Throughout the state, women are undertaking their citizenship responsibilities with a comprehensive vision," declared Mrs. Lee Davenport, chairman of the American citizenship department, this afternoon. "Club women must assist in overcoming the indifference to citizenship, and in feeling that the American, as well as the foreign born, live up to the highest standards of citizenship."

Delegates Make Trip
Delegates motored from Tillamook to Lake Lytle for the afternoon session, at which Miss Anne Shannon Monroe spoke on "Notable Writers of Oregon." She named many of the younger writers of verse and fiction in this state and predicted that soon Oregon would turn out the best literary work in the United States. The Tillamook women entertained the visitors with a banquet tonight at the Lake Lytle hotel, after which the delegates returned by automobile to Tillamook. B. F. Irvine spoke tonight on "Looking Forward."

Which is Larger the Sun or a Cent?

"Why—the sun of course" you will say. But remember—you can hold the cent so close to your eye that you lose sight of the sun.

Some baking powders can be bought for a few pennies less than Calumet—but don't hold these cents too close to your eyes—you will not be able to see the quality—the purity—the dependability of

CALUMET BAKING POWDER

In other words, don't be deceived by a few pennies—the cheapest baking powder in price is often the most expensive.

When you buy Calumet you know that it will produce pure, sweet, and wholesome bakings. You know that you use less because it contains more than the ordinary leavening strength.

Buy it—try it—be convinced.

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 ounces. Some baking powders come in 12 ounce instead of 16 ounce cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.
