LEW TENDLER KNOCKS OUT BARRETT IN SIXTH ROUND

PHILADELPHIA, June 6.—Lew Tandler of Philadelphia tonight knocked out Bobby Barrett of Chicago Heights, Pa., in the sixth round of their scheduled eight-round bout at the National league baseball park in the presence of more than 20,000 spectators, one of the biggest crowds that ever saw a boxing match in Philadelphia. The knockout came toward the close of the sixth round.

In the semi-final, Earl France of Los Angeles, shaded Tim Droncy of Lancaster in a clever, clean eight-round bout. Not once during the contest did Referee Kuch have to put his hand on either man or step between them to prevent hitting in the breakaway.

Tandler and Barrett weighed in at ringside, both tipping the beam at 137 1/2 pounds. Herman Taylor, one of the promoters of the show, was chosen as referee.

Tandler Fights Fiercely. In the first round, after a cautious start, Tandler drove into Barrett with a series of swings to the body, interspersed with several sharp jabs into the face. Before the close of the round, Barrett was bleeding from the nose and as the going rounded Tandler had his opponent well on the run.

Barrett tried his vicious swings in the second round but Tandler was too fast for him. Barrett's attempted blows missing their mark on each occasion. Tandler did little but jab Barrett in the face with his right in this round.

Barrett Takes Punishment. In the next two rounds Tandler forced Barrett to take a lot of punishment. The Philadelphia kept jabbing with rights to Barrett's face with an occasional slashing uppercut that had his opponent bleeding freely from the nose and mouth when the third round ended.

The fourth was a repetition of the third with Barrett attempting more of his wild swings, none of which landed. Tandler, in the meantime, continued to hammer Barrett all over the body and several times had him staggering.

Legion and Y. M. C. A. Teams Will Meet Tonight

Tonight the Y. M. C. A. team and the American legion play in the Twilight league series. The Legionaires have made it 1000 per cent straight up to date, but they have the strong Y team to face tonight, and two more games before the series is over. On Friday night the State Housers meet the Valley Motorists. The game Monday night, between the Bankers and the Loggers, ran into three extra innings before the Bankers got one precarious run lead. All the teams are picking up, and some snappy ball is being played by all the teams, winners and losers alike.

Ellis Elected Captain Of Bearcats Ball Team

Dave Ellis, junior at Willamette university will be the Bearcats baseball captain for next year. He was elected last night. Ellis won his letter in baseball for this year. He is president of the Philodorian society and member of the Phi Kappa Pi fraternity.

LEADING CANDIDATES FOR OLDEST U. S. TURF CLASSIC

FRISCO IS BACK IN FIRST PLACE

Seals Beat Los Angeles, Oaks Tame Tigers in Southern California

SAN FRANCISCO, June 6.—San Francisco stepped back into first place today with a 2 to 1 victory over Los Angeles while the Oaks were taming the Tigers at Los Angeles. It was eight straight for the Seals. The Seals played errorless ball behind Geary and in the ninth, Elly and KIKIDuff cut down what bore the earmarks of hits. The Angels scored in the ninth on Twambly's single and Lindimore's triple.

In the history of the Belmont Stakes a story was once related of a lecturer who, upon making the statement that the principal races in America were the Irish and the Germans, was greeted by a snout from the rear of the audience. "How about the Suburban and the Belmont?" The official handicapper of the metropolitan race courses has a wealth of supporting history behind him when he asserts that "if age, tradition and the celebrity of its winners entitle a race to the dignity of a 'classic' nobody will dispute the claim for the Belmont Stakes." In the fifty-five years since it was first run in 1867—nearly a decade before the first Kentucky Derby—the Belmont has produced more great race horses and more great sires among its winners than any other three-year-old stakes in the country. This year its adherents have realized their dream in giving the race a value of $50,000. And so it is only natural that just now the Belmont Stakes of 1922, which will be decided at Belmont Park on June 10, should become the centre of interest in the summer racing season in America. With the absence of Morvich it leaves the roll of probable starters without any outstanding figure, and never in recent years has it appeared so open a race. Last year the superiority of Grey Lag had been granted, and there was 'little interest in the race. In the year before Man of War even more completely deprived it of interest as a sporting event. But to-day there are probably a score of trainers who have very definite hopes of winning the great race, and it would not be at all surprising to see one of the biggest fields of many years going to the post.

A Good Reputation plus a Better Price—$10.90

THE new low mark of $10.90 for the 30 x 3 1/2 size "Usco" created something of a sensation. Naturally, the first impulsive remark was on the "wonderful price."

Even more to the point are the comments of today.

People are getting more used to the $10.90 price—but the "Usco" value is still a cause for wonder.

With thousands of $10.90 "Usco's" running today, every locality has had a chance to check up on the surprising tire value.

Let all these "Usco" Tires now serving their owners so well remind you of this—

Whatever the price of "Usco," it has got to deliver big value because it has always done so.

YANKEES START INVASION WEST

New York, Washington, Detroit and St. Louis Are Day's Winners

CHICAGO, June 6.—(American.)—New York started its first invasion of the west with a victory over Chicago. The locals outbit the visitors but were unable to bounce them except in one inning, when they saved themselves from a shutout. The Yankees hit Faber safely in only three innings and they registered each time. Meusel cracked out his fourth homer of the season, while Babe Ruth fanned twice, rolled out on another occasion and made Strunk back up to the fence for a line drive in his other time up.

Brains, onT Dress, That Count, Says Invitation

The Marion county eighth grade graduation isn't intended to be old clothes week, exactly, but it is not to be a parade of exquisite or Beau Brummels or enamelled faces. The Marion county schools are to hold one grand graduation service at the Salem high school auditorium, Saturday, June 17, at 2 o'clock, in which all the 492 graduates already passed and the 125 to 150 yet to pass June 8 and 9, may be graduated formally and spectacularly. Some of the districts have already held local graduation exercises, but others have waited for this big central event. The county superintendent of schools has just sent out announcements to all the earlier graduates, and will send to all the later ones next week, the following brief but suggestive letter:

"Dear Pupil: Please accept my congratulations on your success in passing the eighth grade examination. We shall hold the county graduation exercises on Saturday, June 17 at 2:00 p. m., in the Salem high school building. The diplomas will be presented at that time. Please endeavor to come and receive yours. Please do not go to any great expense in preparation for this event. It is brains and not dress that counts. Cordially yours, Mary L. Fulkerson."
