BASEBALL PUZZLE FOUND IN LEAGUE

Some Twilight Teams Won Without Any Other Team Losing, Apparently

When the two fall-enders in the Junior Twilight league dropped out of the running they introduced a mathematical problem into the score that the sporting sharp are still trying to figure out. The score of the four teams still in the league shows that the aggregate of wins is 20; but only 11 games have been lost—and they've got the police and the penitentiary trail hounds on the track of the missing losses. How anybody could win with nobody losing is the problem that is worrying the logicians.

The real explanation, of course, is that some of the winners picked off some easy scores against the two delinquents, and the final score doesn't account for them. The league managers are threatening it out.

But according to the figures as they stand, the Eagles are ahead, with six wins and only one loss. That calamitous game was played last night with the Angels, their nearest rivals for first place. The Angels have played one more game than the Eagles, and their score is now six wins with two losses. The Eagles have another deferred game to play Friday, with the All-Stars. If the Stars should win the Angels and the Eagles would be tied for first place, and would have to fight it out in a post-season game. The All-Stars have lost five and won only three; the Lucky Steers, the fourth of the quartet to finish the season, have won five and lost three.

The Angels administered a crushing defeat to the Eagles last night, the first time the feathered ones have bitten the dust this season. The champs were off their feed for the time, and their formidable opponents took them down the line for a booting. Johnson of the Angels made two runs, and six others counted before the five innings were over.

Football Schedule is Partially Announced

Coach Roy Bohler plans to leave Friday for Pullman, Wash., to start in a six weeks summer course in college athletics. Washington State college is offering a fine course in this advanced teaching work, and Mr. Bohler intends to take advantage of it.

Mr. Bohler has announced a part of the football schedule for next fall. Oregon is to be taken on October 7, the first game of the year. The Bearcats meet Albany college October 21; Chemawa, October 28; Whitman, November 4; Pacific, November 17; Linfield, November 24; the College of Puget Sound, Thanksgiving day and a game with Mt. Ansel may be sandwiched in, perhaps on Armistice day.

Court Street Gang Beats State Street Ball Players

Court street indoor baseball boys lapped the State streeters last night, 12 to 9 in an interesting, hard-fought game.

The one feature of the game was the home run of Lee Crawford, the first baseman of the Court street gang. How he did lambaste that ball Babe Ruth and his wagon-tongue bat would have looked like a piker with a wooden leg and a bum lamp, beside that powerful swat that laid the State streeters low.

The batteries were Webster Ross, pitcher, and "Bill" East, catcher for the Court street team; and Waters and Collins, for the State's. The game was outdoors, for all its name.

COLORED GIANTS COMING SUNDAY

Reorganized Senator Team to Play Skilled Portland Aggregation

Salem's reorganized Senators, with Jack Hayes as field captain, will meet the Portland Colored Giants at Oxford park, Sunday afternoon.

With the exception of Barr, only local players will appear Sunday, Manager Harry Wenderoth announces. Lund will pitch, while Barr will probably play in the outfield.

Hayes is booked to backstop for Lund. As a catcher Hayes first acquired popularity with Salem fans although with the exception of one game he has not worked in this position during the present season.

The line-up follows: Lund, pitcher; Hayes, catcher;

LEGION DEFEATS Y, SCORE 1 TO 0

One of Best Games of Twilight League Series Played Yesterday

The Legion kept up its winning streak by noosing out the Y. M. C. A., 1 to 0, Wednesday in one of the tightest pitched games of the Twilight league series.

Weeks pitching for the Legion was supported by airtight ball and only two men reached first base off his own delivery. Brown picking a clean single and Barrick drawing a pass to first by receiving one in the short ribs. Zosel serving for the triangle held the hard hitting soldiers to four scattered bingles and but for an untimely error in the closing cast to the battle would have gone into extra innings.

Parker, playing shortstop for the Legion showed exceptional form, handling six chances without a boot. Barrick, the fielding star for the Y, cut off several likely hits around second base. Many rabid fans witnessed the contest and went away highly elated over the brand of ball play offered by the Twilight league this year.

The Legionaires look like probable winners of the handsome silver cup given by the Central Pharmacy to the winners of the series. So far the Legion team has not been defeated, and will put forth every effort to capture the remaining two games on the schedule, which will give them the record of going through the season without a defeat. The next game will be between the Valley Motor and the State House Friday evening at 6 o'clock, Willamette field.

Following is the line up of yesterday's contest:

American Legion — Small 3b; McKittrick, 1b; Moorman, 3b; Gibson, 1f; Pearmine, c; Parker, S. S.; Elliott, cf; Dailey, rf; Weeks, p.

Y. M. C. A. — Grege, 1b; Brown, ss; Barrick, 2b; Moody, cf; Loder, 1f; Bonesteel, 3b; Caughill, c; Kramer, rf; Zosel, p.

Two high class games have been played this week, the first one on Monday with three extra innings to play off a tied score of 1 to 1, and the one Wednesday with a score of 1 to 0. The game last night was practically errorless, and fast as a league game. The crowds have become unaccountably small, for the class of ball being played.

Salem used to have Twilight league games 20 years ago. Then there were no movies, no autos, no golf; the people turned out almost to a man, to see the games, and a professional burglar could have carried away almost the whole town when everybody went to the game to see the finish of the season's fight.

HONORS GIVEN AT WILLAMETTE

Stars in Athletics and Fencibles Receive Symbols of Achievement

Senior chapel at Willamette was a very impressive service yesterday. Installation of officers, awards day and a short business session of the student body made the period a very full one: Bruce White, Grace Brainard, Ruth Smith and Albert Logan were installed as the new officers. Their term of office dates from yesterday.

Athletic awards increased the number of letter men of the Bearcats when certificates, sweaters, and blankets were given to 12 men. Doney and Moodie were the recipients of the four-year service symbols, the blanket. Certificates in baseball were presented Ramon Dimick, William Ashby, Albert Logan, Oris Gillett, Irving Shepard, Mike Edwards, Dave Ellis and Harold Isham. Track awards were made to Elmer Streyve, Dean Pollock, Jack Vinson, Lyle Perrine, Albert Logan, Bill Vinson and William Ashby. Edward Huston received a sweater and a letter for his work in tennis.

The spellbinders came in for their share of the awards for an unusually large number of awards were made for debate and oratory. The forensic ability of Willamette has been on a very high winning plane this year, with one of the best debating teams of the Pacific northwest. Bar-pins and certificates were given to Robert Littler, Robert Notson, Rodney Alden, Louise Joughin, Elaine Oberg, Violet Coe, Roy Skeen, and Lorlei Blatchford.

An innovation at Willamette was the awarding of a gold C to at least 40 per cent of the Collegian staff. H. Hoover, Robert Notson, Dean Pollock, Lucille Bunch, Ruth Richards, Robert Littler and Mabel Rentro were the students to be given the new insignia.

Professor Matthews spoke briefly.
