By MARGUERITE GLEESON

MISS LENAPEARL WRIGHT and Ernest C. Stephenson were married at an elaborate church wedding yesterday afternoon. The service was held in the Central Congregational church and Rev. Clayton Judge officiated at the marriage service which was performed in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives.

The altar was banked with Tes-baskets of roses on pedestals around the altar formed a pretty background. Four girls holding streamers of maline formed an aisle for the bridal party. The girls were Bonita Edwards, Frances Sands, Eloise White, and Lucille Lewis. Miss Pearl Eyre played the wedding march and Miss Hazel Newgent sang "O, Promise Me."

The bride entered on the arm of her father, D. P. Wright. She was gowned in white canton crepe with which she wore a full length veil which hung from a silver bandeau. She carried a shower bouquet of Cecil Brunner and Ophelia roses.

Miss Winifred Eyre and Merrit Davis were the attendants. Miss Eyre wore a frock of pink taffeta and carried pink roses. A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents following the church service. Here the bridal party with the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Wright, received informally. Ices were cut and served by Miss Mary Eyre and Mrs. Clara Maffey.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson departed on a short wedding trip after which they will make their home in Burley, Ida. Mrs. Stephenson is a graduate of Salem high school and has been in the federal reclamation service for several years. Mr. Stephenson is in business in Burley, Ida., where Mrs. Stephenson has been stationed for some time.

Miss Ruth Babb, head aide in the physio therapy department of the Industrial accident commission, is spending her vacation at her home in Lake Grove, near Portland.

The annual P.E.O. picnic will be held this evening at the home of Mrs. Harwood Hall at Chemawa. Members of chapters G and AB and their families will be entertained during the evening. Picnic supper will be served at 6 o'clock.

Members of the G.A.R. and W.R.C. will be entertained Friday afternoon at a strawberry feed by Mrs. I. D. Bennett near Hazel Green. The officers of the two organizations are asking that those who have cars and can accommodate more than members of their own party arrange to take others who have no way to go to the Bennett home. The party will leave the Oregon Electric depot at 1 o'clock Friday.

Mrs. George E. Waters and Mrs. E. E. Waters are going to Portland this morning. Mrs. E. E. Waters will remain for several days visiting with relatives.

MAKES $54 NET A MONTH ON 220 HENS

The Experience of a Man on a Small Truck Farm at The Dalles, Oregon

A. D. Rouintree of The Dalles Or., owner of a small truck farm, decided last year that additional revenue was necessary and looked about for some work which would provide profitable employment for the winter months—

He decided upon the poultry business and started with 300 pullets.

The flock has paid the original cost of feed, interest on investment, and made a profit of $500 in addition, for the winter's work.

He worked, from the building of the henhouse, right through under the directions of the extension service of the Oregon A&M cultural college. His operations were used as a community demonstration in the poultry industry.

In February Mr. Rouintree had the highest egg production of any of the demonstration farms already in the state, and in March, with eggs at the lowest price in recent years, the flock, now culled to 220, returned a net profit of $54.

INGRAM IS WONDERFUL ARTIST

Noted Contralto of Metropolitan and Chicago Opera Fame to Sing at Chautauqua

The announcement that Frances Ingram, famous American contralto, formerly with the Metropolitan Opera Company and the Chicago Opera Association, is to sing at Chautauqua on the second night is creating no end of comment among those who appreciate the best in music. She is a star of the first magnitude. In addition to having a great natural voice which has already been termed by many competent critics to be the most genuine contralto of the decade, she has an extraordinary personality which combines to make her an artist whose name will go down in history as one of the adored of the musical world. She will appear in recital, assisted by the Stearns-Mettekson Trio, a company of brilliant assisting artists for the famous contralto. Miss Ingram's concert and operatic successes have been equally great.

not enough women to be had here to do the stemming.

Gooseberries Soon Gone
The strawberry season is going to be cut short, on account of the lack of rain; but it is in full tilt now; probably at the peak.

The gooseberries are already beginning to taper off in the volume of deliveries. The gooseberry season will soon be over.

The new cannery under the auspices of the Oregon Growers Cooperative association is canning gooseberries and strawberries—with all the force of women and men that they can get. They are also barreling strawberries at this Salem plant.

Cherries Coming On
On Tuesday or Wednesday next the first car of Royal Ann cherries for the season will roll out of The Dalles for New York city. This is about 10 days earlier than last year. The cherries in the Salem district are coming on fast too, and they will follow closely in the wake of the gooseberries and strawberries, and will not be gone before the loganberries begin to come in.

California Bartlett Prices
The California Pear association has fixed the prices on Bartletts for canning. It is $75 a ton for No. 1 and $40 for No. 2. This is $10 to $15 higher than last year, and higher than corresponds with the ideas of the canners. But they are paying the price. There is a pear shortage down there.

and the Oregon crop of Bartletts will not be large, either.

The California pear growers got the jump on the Oregon growers this year in naming prices. But the Oregon growers beat them to it on prunes, and the sales of Oregon prunes have already been phenomenal for this early in the season. The Oregon Growers Cooperative association is selling prunes all over the world. The fact that the foreigners are back in the prune market strong, and that the American people were educated during the war to eat more prunes, makes the outlook for the prune industry bright—great; a fact that is wonderfully encouraging to the Salem district, where the prune is the backbone, or one of the backbones (if the reader will excuse the expression) of the great and growing fruit industry.

Will Surely Help Others
The condition of the human body is reflected by the condition of the kidneys and blood. If the kidneys are not functioning properly, waste products and poisons cannot be eliminated. Rheumatic pains, swollen, aching and stiff joints and muscles, dizziness and blurred vision are symptoms of kidney trouble. Mrs. A. Lechner, 1129 Main Ave., Clifton, N. J., writes: "Foley Kidney Pills have helped me and I will gladly give you permission to use this testimonial for they will surely help." Sold everywhere.—Adv.
