HONORING Miss Marion Emmons, who will leave today for Chicago, Miss Iva Clare Love was hostess yesterday at a lovely luncheon for intimate friends of Miss Emmons. Roses and corn flowers were used in the decorations.

The guests included Miss Emmons, Miss Mary Schultz, Miss Mary Schoettle, Miss Helen Sedgwick and Miss Lucille Ross.

Miss Florence Elizabeth Cartwright spent last week-end as the guest of Mrs. Leonard Raymond Shaver in Portland. Saturday afternoon Mrs. Shaver entertained with a luncheon for Miss Cartwright.

The junior class of the high school decorated the armory for the commencement program this evening. A checked design in the class colors of green and white is used as a background for the class of 186 members which will be seated on the pitom. Miss Lois Taylor, vice president of the junior class, is in charge. Seats downstairs are reserved for relatives of graduates.

Miss Iva Clare Love, chosen from the class by the faculty, will play two violin solos. These are "Romance," (Rubenstein) and "Zapahsado," (Saraste). "Seasoning" will be the title of a talk by Arthur Montgomery, and "Democracy" will be discussed by Ward Southworth.

With the close of the present year a number of the instructors in Salem high school are severing their connection with the school, some to accept positions elsewhere and some to go into other work.

Two of the members of the local faculty, Miss Mildred Garrett and Miss Ruth Brown, both of the English department, will be married within a short time. Miss Garrett is advisor for the Girl Reserves, and Miss Brown is junior class advisor.

Miss Elizabeth Macleay, head of the English department and who has been interested in student activities, will return to her home in Olympia, Wash., and will not teach next year. Miss Macleay has been faculty advisor for

WILL DELVE A BIT IN "SPIRITISM"

Paul Fleming, Noted Magician, to Stage "Ghost Dance" at Chautauqua

Sh! Spooks! You bet—and they'll appear right before your eyes when Paul Fleming summons 'em from ethereal realms to dance about the Chautauqua stage! Impossible, you say? Well after you've seen the growth of the magic orange tree, the puzzling appearance and disappearance of the golden ball, and dozens of other mysterious maneuvers, you won't be a bit surprised when the spirits assemble for the regular evening jamboree. Of course, it might be well to remark right here that the whole thing is accomplished by trickery, but they'll be there just the same. With his company of three persons, Mr. Fleming will present the finest and most elaborate program of magic ever seen on the Chautauqua platform. It's a program that will be remembered and discussed for weeks.

the Clarion staff and for the annual. She has been connected with the English department for several years.

Miss Kittle Walker, who has taught home economics in the local school, will be head of the home economics department in the Union-Milton high school next year. Miss Walker has been advisor for the Phoenix club. Miss Eva Godfrey, director of physical education for girls, is leaving the local school but is not sure what she will do next year. Mrs. Besie Mettelman is also retiring from classroom work.

The K. O. club of the high school will hold its annual farewell banquet in the Rose room of The Spa following graduation Friday night. Only club members present. Farewell speeches will be given by old officers and the new ones installed. Members who will be present are Herman Clark, faculty advisor, Ralph Emmons, retiring president; Arthur Montgomery, Kenneth Perry, Harold Sociofsky, Herbert Sociofsky, Donald Warden, Aubrey Trawick, Guy Albin, Ellis Welty, Frances Ellis, Walter Fahrer, George Rhoten, Russell Pratt, Lester Post, Howard Post, Dee McRoberts, Arthur Hamilton, Benoit McCroskey, Mark Walispiet, and Charles Nunn.

Mrs. Seymour Jones will be hostess for the final meeting of the D. A. R. at her country home tomorrow. The program will be appropriate to Flag day, and is in charge of Miss Edith Benedict.

The engagement of Miss Ruth Taylor, president of the Lausanne Hall club and a member of Philodan Literary society, and Ralph Rehbeck of Yakima, Wash., was recently announced. Miss Taylor resides in Sunnyside, Wash. Mr. Rehbeck has been president of the Crestophilan Literary society and is a member of Sigma Tau fraternity.

Sunday evening the engagement of Miss Marguerite Cook of Portland was announced to David Lawson of Blanchard, Wash., at the Delta Phi sorority house. Miss Cook was one of the graduates and was a member of the girls' glee club. Mr. Lawson was graduated from Willamette last spring and is at present a freshman in the Portland Medical school.

Club women from all sections of the state have been invited to attend the mass meeting to be held in the public auditorium in Portland June 21, at which Miss Alice Robertson, the only woman member of congress, will deliver an address. Miss Robertson will be President Harding's personal representative at the Rose festival, and in coming here she has asked the privilege of addressing the women of Oregon.

In the invitations being sent to the women's clubs of the state, request is made that at least one representative be sent from each club to sit upon the stage and to present Miss Robertson with a rose at the reception following the meeting.

OREGON OUTDOORS

We're willing to work three hundred and sixty-five days at hard labor, or whatever we happen to be doing if ahead of us is a dream of a glorious vacation.

Freedom! From the humdrum. Freedom! To be pleasure seeking and lazy.

The refreshing tang of outdoor things breaks down the tension of tired nerves. Then comes realization and we thrill again to the keen joy of living.

Have you ever thought in the cramped-up winter days of wide stretches of blue sky, of great white mountains, of streams where the "catchin'" fine, lakes reflecting fir trees, and the lap lap of water that answers the hu-sh of many breezes—and within a day's ride of the sound of the surf?

"That's Western Oregon." See Western Oregon on a motorcycle. The Motorcycle Editor of the Oregon Statesman can tell you how to secure one without spending one cent of your own money by employing your spare moments for a few weeks.

Mother—When tempted, my son, you should say, "Get thee behind me, Satan."

Johnny—But, ma, it would be better to have him where I could keep my eye on him, wouldn't it? —Boston Transcript.
