FOURTH OF JULY IN PARIS.

Dancing in the streets of Paris remains, as it has done for a hundred years, the great popular sport of the French Fourth. There are orchestras in every division of every ward, in every little square and in every little place. This is so true, and there is so much dancing, that for three evenings July 13, 14 and 15, from twilight to 3 A. M. and all the afternoon of the 14th, you can dance farandole from one end of Paris to the other, and always be with the dancing music for it.

Spooky Entertainment for Church at Waconda

Under the direction of the Father and Son club of Waconda an entertainment will be given tomorrow night at the Waconda Methodist church. The performers will be E. Cooke Patton and Frank Wagar, both of Salem and both magicians. Neither has seen the other perform, so their programs are to be in the nature of a contest to see who can mystify the most people.

They are advertised as "Those Spooky Swindlers, Patton & Wagar, in an Evening of Magical Mystery and Bunkology. Catch Us If You Can—We Won't Care."

Patton's numbers will be the following: That Mysterious Collection, Confection Extraordinary, That Torn Card, Red-White-Blue, The Hand of Dr. Q, Ching-Ling Foo, Which, When and Where, The Phantom Tube, Mysterious Clock, Watch the Pocket.

Mr. Wagar's numbers will be these: Excuse Me, Who's Got the Kerchief, More Cigarettes, That Funny Half Dollar, You Never Can Tell, They Will Come Up, Blocks Woo-Foo-Chow, No Intoxication, Cocco Birdie, Wilful Destruction.

AMERICA'S GIFT TO MARSHAL FOCH.

Among the unique and treasured exhibits at the exposition recently opened at the Palais de La Legion d'Honneur, in Paris, is this helmet of massive gold, bearing the French coc on the crest. It was presented by the people of America to Marshal Foch on the occasion of his recent visit to this country.

Case of Assault is Sent Back by Court

The supreme court yesterday in an opinion written by Justice McCourt reversed the lower court for Wallawa county, Judge J. W. Knowles, in the case of the state against R. R. Turner, appellant, who was convicted on a charge of assault with intent to kill. He was alleged to have fired a gun at Crawford Hunter.

No other written opinions were handed down by the supreme court. Oral petitions for rehearing were denied in the cases of Livesley vs Strauss and Adler vs Rosen. Appeal was dismissed and judgment affirmed in the case of Quarles vs Wickman.

NEW CORPORATIONS

Articles of incorporation were filed yesterday by Kuehn's Automobile company of Portland, capitalized at $10,000. The incorporators are Louis E. Kuehn, Henry C. Kuehn and Louis E. Kuehn.

Permits to operate in Oregon were issued to the Shriners hospital for crippled children, a corporation of Atlanta, Ga., of which George L. Baker is attorney-in-fact for Oregon. The capitalization of the latter is $200,000.

The Swan Island Real Estate company of Portland filed notification of a decrease in capitalization from $100,000 to $800.

Resolutions of dissolution were filed by the Oregon Grocery company of Portland.

Sensational Charges Made in Divorce Suit

That her husband had often cursed and abused her and on various occasions threatened to "end it all for all of them," were some of the allegations set forth in a plea for divorce filed by Mrs. Arthur Albert Schwab against her husband in the Marion county circuit court yesterday.

The Schwabs, who have five minor children, were married at Gervais in November, 1910. She alleges in her complaint that during recent years her husband had made life, together, unbearable and that he had abused her and all the members of her church because she insisted on sending the children to the services. On one occasion he declared she was insane, she alleges, and threatened to have her committed to the asylum. It was shortly after this, on May 15 of this year, that she declares she could no longer stand his cruel treatment, and taking the five children, left his home.

She is asking for $150 attorney fees and $75 per month temporary alimony, pending settlement of the action.

Mortgage is Burned by Bethany Reformed Church

The members of Bethany Reformed church, Capitol and Marion streets, are breathing much easier since they are out of debt. They feel so much relieved that last Sunday they celebrated the event by special services of thanksgiving.

Rev. Mr. Denny, the pastor, spoke inspiringly in German and spoke in English. Officers of the church destroyed the mortgage and notes. The women of the church were so enthused over the happy occasion that they surpassed their former creditable efforts by preparing a bountiful repast for the congregation and visiting friends.

Strawberry Season May Come to End This Week

Unless rain affords quick relief to the berry growers throughout the county the strawberry season will come to an end this week and the raisers of loganberries will harvest about half a normal crop, according to County Fruit Inspector S. H. Van Trump, who completed a survey of conditions around Salem yesterday.

Harvesting of loganberries should start about July 1, but it is doubtful whether the picking will be under way before the beginning of the second week in July.

ADVERTISING MAN BACK ON THE JOB

Papers of all descriptions were flying in all directions this morning in the office of Ted Brenner, advertising manager for the Peoples Cash Store of this city. "Ted" as he is popularly known has just arrived with his bride from a three weeks honeymoon tour of the California resorts and beaches. In addition to acquiring a coat of tan Mr. Brenner brought back a bag full of new ideas which he expects to "spring" on the buying public of Salem at an early date. In fact, he promises to outdo all former efforts along the line of money saving events which have in the past proved such great attractions for the customers of the store.

Bobbie Drager Saves Lad From Drowning in River

Little Alfred Niemeyer, 6 years old and a son of E. A. Niemeyer, 1288 North Church street, was saved from drowning in the Willamette river Monday by Bobbie Drager, 13 years old. With 10 or 12 other North Salem youngsters the two boys went with Mrs. M. I. Gwynn to swim near the gravel pit in the north part of town.

Alfred, who had been floating on a log, suddenly sank. Mrs. Gwynn knowing that he could not swim, called to the other boys. Bobbie Drager dived to the lad's rescue.
