JACK DEMPSEY MAY BE FORCED TO BOX BLACK CHALLENGER

NEW YORK, June 23.—Jack Dempsey, world's heavy-weight champion, has 17 days in which formally to accept the challenge of Harry Wills, negro, for a bout for the title or have his crown put up for competition in New York State.

The decision was reached by the New York boxing commission today as a part of the campaign started earlier in the week to force titleholders in every division to meet capable contenders or quit and start all over again. Two champions, Johnny Kilbane of the featherweights and Johnny Wilson of the middleweights, already have been shorn of their crowns so far as the empire state is concerned.

Negotiations for a Dempsey-Wills bout already are under way. Upon his arrival here yesterday, Jack Kearns, the champion's manager, want into conference with Tex Rickard, promoter and Frank Flournoy, matchmaker, and it was announced that a tentative agreement had been reached, a definite contract to be signed when a site was selected for

"I think that everything will be finished before July 10, the date the commission has set," Frank Flournoy said
