JUNE brides have held first place in society during the last week. The double wedding of Miss Mable and Miss Mildred Garret Thursday evening was one of the prettiest of the week. Both were well known in Salem socially and as students of the university.

The wedding of Miss Edna Ackerman, Wednesday was another pretty affair. Miss Ackerman has been a popular member of the younger set and she will be missed by a group of friends when she takes up her home in California. The announcement of the betrothal of Miss Hazel Bishop with the announcement of her wedding date for July 7 is of interest to many Salem folks. Miss Bishop will wed Samuel B. Gillette.

THE pretty double wedding on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Ida Garrett was of unusual interest to Salem folks. Miss Mable Garrett became the bride of C. Everett Wagner and Miss Mildred Garrett became the bride of Paul N. Day of Bremerton, Wash.

The service was read before an altar banked high with ferns and roses. The rooms were pretty with quantities of ocean spray combined with the roses in pink and white. Rev. Blaine E. Kirkpatrick officiated. The brides carried bridal bouquets of roses and sweet peas. Both of the brides wore frocks of white tulle.

The tiny Evans twins, Josephine and Beatrice acted as flower girls and formed an aisle of tulle through which the couples passed. Tiny David Thompson carried the rings. There were no other attendants.

Preceding the wedding service Loren Bassler sang "Because" and Mrs. Bassler played the wedding march. Miss Loriel Blatchford sang "At Dawning" following the ceremony. Music during the reception following the service was furnished by Miss Viola Ash, violinist, and Byron Arnold, pianist.

Those assisting in serving during the reception were Miss Emma Shanafelt, Miss Esther Paroungian, Miss Elsie Hop Lee, Miss Winifred Eyre, Miss Edna Gilbert, Miss Loriel Blatchford, and Miss Mildred Clark.

Both of the brides have lived in Salem for several years and have hosts of friends here. Mrs. Wagner was graduated from Willamette university four years ago and later took advanced work in Boston university. She has been English instructor in Salem high school during the last year.

Mr. Wagner is a graduate of University of West Virginia and took post graduate work in Boston university. He is pastor of the Chelsea Methodist church in New York City where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Day were both graduated from Willamette university in 1921. Mr. Day has been instructor at Columbia college in Milton, Ore., the last year.

Out of town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Day, Frances Day, Floyd Reeves, Marjory Cable and Claude Ludwig of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Day, parents of Mr. Day, and Miss Ivah Day, his sister, from Bremerton; Miss Lois Warner of Spokane; Mrs. J. H. Phillips of Wenatchee, Wash., and Miss Mary Spaulding of Echo.

MISS EDNA ACKERMAN became the bride of Alfred McClintock at a pretty wedding on Wednesday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Ackerman. Only a few relatives were present. Rev. W. C. Kantner officiated.

Miss Pauline McClintock attended the bride while Glenn Ackerman was best man. The bride wore a pink silk crepe frock while Miss McClintock was gown in white. The bride carried a shower bouquet of Cecil Bruner roses.

The service was read under a pretty archway of flowers fashioned over the fireplace. The archway was banked high with flowers and greenery. Miss Lois Nye played Mendelssohn's wedding march. Miss Ruth Tucker sang "Because" and "O Promise Me."

Luncheon was served following the marriage service and the young couple left for a wedding trip to Seaside. They will make their home in Weed, Cal.

Mrs. McClintock is well known in Salem where she has made her home for several years. She is a graduate of Salem high school and later attended Oregon Agricultural college.

She was later employed in the industrial accident commission. She worked in the Portland Telegram office in Portland during the winter months.

Until recently Mr. McClintock has been employed at the Valley Motor company. He formerly attended Willamette university.

Out of town guests at the wedding included Mr. McClintock's parents from Weed, Cal., and Glenn Ackerman of Pendleton.

Mrs. W. Melvin Plimpton, who leaves today for Seattle where the family will make their home, has been the inspiration for a number of delightful affairs during the last week.

Mrs. William H. Lytle and Mrs. Ben W. Olcott were hostesses Tuesday at a pretty luncheon party at the Olcott home. Mrs. James Linn and Mrs. Frederick Thielson were hostesses in her honor Wednesday and Mrs. John J. Roberts entertained the members of the Thursday Bridge club in Mrs. Plimpton's honor Thursday afternoon.

Members of the Thursday Bridge Luncheon club were entertained Tuesday by Mrs. Olcott and Mrs. Lytle in Mrs. Plimpton's honor. Great baskets of gladiolus, delphinium and roses were used about the rooms. A buffet luncheon was served by Mrs. William Boot and Mrs. Amos Strong. Mrs. Plimpton won the high score at bridge.

Those invited to honor Mrs. Plimpton were: Mrs. Frederick Lampert, Mrs. David Eyre, Mrs. T. C. Smith, Jr., Mrs. John McNary, Mrs. John J. Roberts, Mrs. J. Shelley Saurman, Mrs. O. C. Locke, Mrs. William Boot, Mrs. Asahel Bush, Mrs. Dan Fry, Jr., Mrs. Henry Meyers, Mrs. William Burghardt, Jr., Mrs. Lenora Saurman, of Philadelphia, Mrs. Frederick Thielson, Mrs. James Linn, Mrs. W. Connell Dyer, Mrs. Clifford Brown, Mrs. William Walton.

Mrs. James Linn entertained for Mrs. Plimpton Wednesday with a delightful luncheon at the Marion hotel. A large basket of flowers in pastel shades centered the table at which covers were laid for 14 guests.

Mrs. Frederick Thielson was hostess for the same group following the luncheon at an afternoon bridge party. Mrs. O. C. Locke won high score during the afternoon. Janet Plimpton and Nancy Thielson served tea.

Guests for the two affairs honoring Mrs. Plimpton were: Mrs. Asahel Bush, Mrs. William Boot, Mrs. Ben W. Olcott, Mrs. Amos Strong, Mrs. William Burghardt, Jr., Mrs. Percy Young, of Albany, Mrs. William H. Lytle, Mrs. John J. Roberts, Mrs. William Walton, Mrs. O. C. Locke, Mrs. Frank Andrae.

The Bridge luncheon club were guests of Mrs. John J. Roberts at a pretty luncheon honoring Mrs. Plimpton, Thursday. A buffet luncheon was served. Mrs. Asahel Bush and Mrs. Frederick Thielson presiding. A handkerchief shower was a surprise feature for Mrs. Plimpton during the afternoon.

The marriage of Miss Mary Esther Bailey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Bailey, to Ralph Wilbur Southwick, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Southwick was an event of yesterday.

Rev. Wad Willis Long of the First Presbyterian church officiated. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Jean Bailey and Mr. Southwick was attended by Donald J. Ryan of Oregon City.

Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left for an extended trip to points south. They will be at home at their new home, 1075 Marion street, after July 1.

Formal announcement of the engagement of Miss Hazel lone Bishop to Samuel Burns Gillette was made at a charming luncheon Tuesday. Mrs. J. A. Bishop, mother of the bride elect, was hostess for the affair. The wedding date has been set for July 7.

Miss Bishop is the only daughter of Mrs. J. A. Bishop and the late J. A. Bishop. She is a granddaughter of W. R. Bishop of Portland, well known Oregon pioneer. Mr. Gillette is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Gillette of Grants Pass and has been employed for two years in the state highway department. Both of the young folks are well known in Salem and have hosts of friends here.

Announcement was made during the last week of the marriage of C. N. Panunzio, former instructor at Willamette university. His bride was formerly Miss Lenore Ryan of Berkeley, Cal. Mr. and Mrs. Panunzio were in Salem during the week and have gone to northern points for several weeks.

The Past Matrons club of the Order of the Eastern Star were entertained Friday at a breakfast party at the home of Mrs. A. H. Steiner. Associate hostesses were Mrs. George H. Burnett and Mrs. William McCall. Wild flowers decorated the small tables at which the guests were seated.

The club will not meet again until fall when the first session will be in the form of a picnic in Grotto's grove. A business session followed the breakfast party.

Members of the organization present for the breakfast were Mrs. David A. Wright, Mrs. LaFore, Mrs. Margaret Witten, Mrs. Barbara Hauenstein of Ohio, who was a special guest; Mrs. Ida M. Babcock, Mrs. George G. Brown, Mrs. Hazel Bishop, Mrs. Lena Cherrington, Mrs. Cupper, Mrs. Ira Darby, Mrs. Derby, Mrs. James Godfrey, Mrs. Paul Hauser, Mrs. May, Mrs. M. L. Myers, Mrs. B. J. Miles, Miss Minnie Moeller, Mrs. Walter Smith, Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, Mrs. Amos Vass.

Miss Constance Kantner accompanied the Whitney Boys' chorus to Portland. She assisted Dr. H. C. Eppley, director, during the Rose festival.

Mrs. Cornelia Marvin, state librarian, returned Friday from a six weeks trip east.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Pettit returned Friday from an extended visit to eastern points. They are spending the week-end in Portland and Mr. Pettit will resume his work on the Oregonian tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Roodell of Creston, Union county, Iowa, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. George N. Thompson. They are driving through and will be here for several days.

Miss Mabel Brassfield and Earl K. McCoy will be married Wednesday at St. Joseph's church. Miss Brassfield is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Brassfield of Gervais. She has been working in Portland for the last year. They will make their home in Portland.

Two brothers of Miss Brassfield, Harry Brassfield and Edward E. Brassfield of Homer, Neb., are guests in Salem, having come to be present at the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brassfield and family have been guests at the E. A. Thompson home for the last week, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Brassfield and four children arrived in Salem last night, after having driven through to the coast in 13 days. Mrs. E. A. Thompson is a sister of the Nebraska men.

A farewell party for Miss Helen Pollack was given Thursday evening by members of the K. C. club. Miss Pollack will leave within a few weeks to make her home in Corvallis.

Following a fine party at the Liberty theater the group gathered in the Rose room of The Spa. Miss Charlotte Zieher acted as toastmistress for the occasion. Members honoring Miss Pollack included Miss Charlotte and Miss Eugenia Zieher, Miss Hollis Vick, Miss Helene Gregg, Miss Margaret Stoltz, Miss Myrtle Jensen, Miss Helen Arpke, Miss Mabel Van Patton, Miss Helen Gray, Miss Marie Rostein, Miss Lois Taylor, Miss Nera Miller, Miss Mildred Hansen, Miss Edith Brotherton, Miss Pauline Knowland, Miss Genevieve Endicott and Miss Melba Davenport.

The suburban home of Mr. and Mrs. George Vick was the scene of a pretty lawn party Friday evening. Miss Marjory Edmunds was the honor guest for the occasion. Miss Edmunds leaves today for her home in Grand Rapids, Mich., after a residence in Salem of more than a year.

Japanese lanterns on the spacious lawn and within the rooms added a pretty touch. Cards and dancing were enjoyed during the evening. Miss Hollis Vick and Miss Helene Gregg were hostesses for the party and served dainty refreshments during the evening.

The guests included Miss Ruth Ross, Miss Myrtle Jensen, Miss Ruth Peck, Miss Margaret Stoltz, Herbert Socolofsky, Harold Socolofsky, Truman Collins, Ward Southworth, Kenneth Perry, Francis Ellis and Charles Nunn.

If Machines Wear Out—What of Mothers?

If machines wear out—what of mothers? Machines can be replaced—mothers, never.

Why not let our washing machines do your family washing and save mother's strength for more important things?

We can obtain new laundry equipment when ours wears out—but you can't fill mother's place in the home. Save her by having us take the washing off her shoulders.

By gently sousing clothes up and down in warm water, soft as new-fallen rain, with suds of mild white soap we wash your apparel spotlessly clean and preserve the fabrics.

Far better than that, our washing process will add years to mother's life.

Phone and our driver will call.
