A LAWN fete will be given Friday on the lawn of the Homer Smith home on Summer street by a committee of the Salem Women's club. The affair is a benefit for the Women's community building fund being raised by the organization.

Final plans for the affair were discussed yesterday at a meeting held in the Commercial club rooms. Mrs. George G. Brown is chairman of the committee of 25 women.

The lawn fete will be open from 3 to 5 o'clock and from 8 until 10 o'clock in the evening.

Other members of the committee who will act as hostesses for the affair are: Mrs. J. G. Shipley, Mrs. Don J. Fry, Sr., Mrs. Earl Anderson, Mrs. H. S. Gile, Mrs. E. L. Myers, Mrs. Ronald Glover, Mrs. R. B. Goodin, Mrs. E. M. Hossnell, Mrs. Walter Stolz, Mrs. L. H. McMahan, Mrs. W. I. Staley, Mrs. L. M. Purvine, Mrs. C. M. Epley, Mrs. Fannie A. Brown, Mrs. J. O. Goltra, Mrs. Helen Howard, Mrs. Mary Howell, Miss Frances Richards, Miss Nina McNary, Miss Hallie Gibson, Miss Elizabeth Macley, Miss Margaret Cosper, Miss Minna Harding, Miss Ethel Fletcher.

Many Salem persons were among those attending the concert given last night in Silverton by Miss Mary Schultz, popular Salem violinist. Miss Schultz's program last night was practically the same as that which she gave six weeks ago in Salem.

Among the local folks going over were Miss Grace Fawk, Miss Evelyn Roberts, Miss Eva Roberts, Miss Bernice Shelton, Mr. and Mrs. W. Everett Anderson, Mrs. H. C. Schultz, Mrs. C. Schwab, Miss Marie Schwab, Miss Nellie Schwab, Mrs. George J. Pearce, Miss Dorothy Pearce, Miss Lena Belle Tartar, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Albert, Paul Wallace, Frank Lovell, Miss Elizabeth Lord, Miss Effie Kroll of Piedmont, Cal., Miss Marie Churchill, Miss Mabel Robertson, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Petri of Portland.

Miss Susie Mildred Hazell was married Sunday afternoon to George Feller. Rev. John A. McNees of the Pratum Methodist church officiated. Relatives and close friends of the bride party were present. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hazell.

The couple stood for the marriage service under an arch of pink roses and ferns. A large white bell hung from the top of

Porch Furniture - Must Stand Use

Porch accessories must stand hard use, sunshine, and dust. Silk is out of place, according to Helen McFaul, instructor in household art at the Oregon Agricultural college, who thinks that the porch should be the most practical part of the house in summer.

The color scheme may use the colors of the flowers if the porch overlooks a garden, suggests Miss McFaul. Potted flowers kept on the porch add a lively color note. Green is not the only color appropriate for porch use. Combinations of orange and blue, purple and violet with yellow, and gray with bright tints are more interesting. Bright cretonnes are often used with materials of dull shades.

Painted furniture is individual, attractive, and offers a means of making use of discarded pieces. The varnish should be removed before painting is begun. Three coats of paint give good results, thinks Miss McFaul. Braided rugs with old-fashioned furniture are a happy combination. Thombottom chairs, gate-leg tables, wicker of Chinese grass furniture are interesting and inexpensive.

The porch light offers a wide opportunity for originality, Miss McFaul added. If a lamp is used, the standard may be iron, in imitation of Italian or Spanish style, or wicker. Crepes and parchment play an important part in shades. Japanese and Chinese paper shades are also used.

LUTHERANS HAVE RED-LETTER DAY

Sunday was a red-letter day for Lutherans of the Missouri Synod living in this locality. St. Johns congregation celebrated its annual mission festival and the diamond jubilee of the synod. A large number of Lutherans from the neighboring congregations at Portland, Oregon City, Albany and Corvallis were present.

In the forenoon service the Rev. W. F. Georg, field secretary of the Oregon and Washington district, chose I Corinthians 15:5, showing how God has in the past poured out his blessings upon the preaching of the Word and that his promises serve as an earnest of his blessing in the future.

The Rev. Prof. J. H. C. Fritz of Concordia seminary addressed the assembly in the afternoon. He entered at length into a discussion of the cause of the founding of the Missouri synod.

A small number of Saxons left Germany in 1838 for no other reason than that the laws of the land made it impossible for them to serve God according to the dictates of their conscience. Infidelity had taken possession of the universities and grew rank in the church. The preaching of Christ crucified was frowned upon and in some localities, forbidden. They know that the constitution of this country vouchsafed religious liberty and decided to embark for these hospitable shores.

As years rolled on a zealous number rallied around the simple preaching of the gospel. The Missouri synod, which was founded nine years after the coming of the Saxons and has grown into a body of more than a million souls, adheres to this day to the old confession, that the bible is the sole guide of Christian belief and

WHAT TO READ

"Working with the Working Woman" is the title of a book recently completed by Corolla Stratton Parker. Mrs. Parker is interested in economic relations, especially those of the working women.

To gain material for her book she took six different positions in factories of widely differing conditions of labor. The stories she tells of her work in these different places is something for the reader to think about at least.

"The Church and the Library," by Arthur E. Bostwick in the June Bookman, should prove food for thought among church workers. Mr. Bostwick has held high positions in the library world, having served as librarian in New York city libraries, Brooklyn public library, and is now head librarian in St. Louis.

That with two exceptions the churches make little or no use of the library, is the assertion of Mr. Bostwick based on his experience. Mr. Bostwick based on his experience the year books of the different churches, their authorized books of hymns, authorized statement of doctrines, liturgy and fundamental law under whatever term it is known, Mr. Bostwick says.

Among non-fiction books, "Queen Victoria" remains the most popular, according to the Bookman's list. Others in order of their popularity are "Mirrors of Washington," "Americanization of Edward Bok," "Story of Man-Kind," "Mirrors of Downing Street," "Woodrow Wilson as I Know Him," "Glass of Fashion," "Margot Asquith" and "The Friendly Arctic."

Among the fiction books, "If Winter Comes" leads the list of ten now published by the Bookman, instead of the usual six from each of four districts. Others in order are "Her Father's Daughter," "To the Last Man," "Brass," "Helen of the Old House," "Head of the House Combe," "Main Street," "Brimming Cup," "Pride of Paloman," and "The Three Soldiers."

Among the new books at the library are "The Glass of Fashion" and "Painted Windows." These are both by the same author as "The Mirrors of Downing Street."

As the Mirrors of Downing tells of prominent political figures in England, so in turn the Glass of Fashion and Painted Windows treat of social figures and prominent churchmen. What the author's views on the church is can be gleaned also from the last chapters of "The Mirrors of Downing Street."

"The Mirrors of Washington" which handles political men in the United States in the same way as the English author handles England's prominent men, is still among the much wanted books at the Salem library.

Sinclair Lewis, author of the much discussed "Main Street," is to bring out a new novel in the near future. This is said to be about a man and not a town.

"The Vehement Flame," by Margaret Deland, is one of the books beginning to be among the best sellers.

"The Three Soldiers" is one of the new most called for books. This is a story of reconstruction, said among the soldiers. Concerning the book, readers differ widely in their opinions. Some claim the cases taken are exaggerated, while others who have been associated with reconstruction work feel that it has not been overdrawn in the least.

His Friend Recommended Them
"Six years ago," writes W. H. Shadwell, Stanley, Va., "I had kidney trouble, and at times was unable to raise myself in bed. Foley Kidney Pills were recommended to me by the Chief of the Fire Department. After using three bottles I was completely relieved and have never had a return of the symptoms." Why suffer when you can get relief from rheumatic pains, backache, swollen, sore and stiff joints, sleep disturbing bladderweakness and other symptoms of disordered kidneys. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

HAS RAISED A NEW STANDARD FOR BAKING POWDER

Because it's made in the most careful and scientific manner from absolutely pure materials that remain pure in the baking and insure wholesome, healthful food.

Because it possesses the greatest leavening power.

Because it is not affected by time or weather—it never loses its strength and never fails.

Because it is more economical—you save when you buy it and you save when you use it.

These are a few of the reasons why Calumet is the standard baking powder—the choice of millions—more being sold than of any other brand.

Try it—always buy it. Your grocer can supply you.

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 oz. Some baking powders come in 12 oz. cans instead of 16 oz. cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

that the bible, knows of no other way to salvation than Christ and his atonement.

About 1200 attended the services. The Lutheran Choral club of Portland heightened the gladness of the occasion by rendering Beethoven's "Ehre Gottes in der Natur," Gounod's "Praise Ye the Lord" and Mendelssohn's "March from Athalia."
