LABOR BOARD HEADS HOLD JOINT PARLEY

shop work was also hindering a settlement.

Secretary Davis said he believed the matter of establishing national adjustment boards "could be adjusted," and asserted that in his opinion the contract question "does not stand in the way of an agreement."

Asked whether the matter of separate peace negotiations between striking shopmen and the individual roads was discussed, Secretary Davis hesitated for some time then replied:

"I would rather not answer that question."

Mr. Davis said every angle of the situation had been discussed with Mr. Jewell and his co-leaders. The general complaint of the labor chiefs, he said, was that the carriers do not accept the decisions of the labor while the employees in nearly every instance have abided by these decisions.

Mr. Jewell and the other labor chiefs attending the meeting made no comment on the conference, but left immediately after its conclusion for Chicago. Among those at the meeting were Mr. Jewell, the international presidents of the six shop crafts unions and Timothy Healy, president of the firemen and others union, which is also striking.

Earlier in the day Secretary Davis conferred on the rail situation with W. L. McMenimen, labor member of the railroad labor board. Mr. Davis said that the entire situation was discussed and that he had gained the views of both the board and the unions. He explained that his conferences with Mr. McMenimen and the labor heads were not so much to formulate peace measures as to become thoroughly informed regarding the dispute, as the labor board does not come under the jurisdiction of his departments.

Secretary Davis said that he expected to leave for Washington tomorrow or Monday and if not until Monday, expected to meet labor board members, at Chicago Monday morning. He said a complete report of the conferences would be made to the president upon his return to Washington.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC SATURDAY

Parade Will be Feature of Day; Many Churches To Take Part

The big annual Marion County Sunday School picnic is only one week off—it comes Saturday, July 29. The parade is to form down town, and after an extended march through the business portion of the city, will go to the state grounds where the big picnic dinner, the speaking and other literary programs, and the athletic and sports events will be held.

Judge W. M. Bushey, county superintendent Mrs. Mary Fulkerson, and County Treasurer Mrs. Mildred Brooks, are to serve as judges of the big parade. Last year the Bungalow Christian church of Salem won the first place, with a wonderfully clever pageant that included a large number of cars and people. This year, as large a display and as clever a line of ideas, is expected.

While it is recognized by President Fred DeVries and other workers that the unusual berry situation has called for almost everybody's time so that there have been few workers free to do as much for this parade as they might wish to do, it is urged that every Sunday school take steps this week to be represented, both in the parade and in the picnic itself. The time is already short for preparation.

SILVERTON BUYS FIRE EQUIPMENT
New Hose to Be Added to Department—Stage Licenses Issued by Council

SILVERTON, Or., July 21.
(Special to the Statesman)—Recorder M. Van Valkenburg has been authorized to purchase $1166.50 worth of new fire equipment. The purchase will include 1000 feet of hose. Recommendation of the new purchase was made by the fire commissioners.

O. G. Larson is the new school clerk of District No. 4. Formerly the clerk has been elected by the people but under the new school law he is now chosen by the school board.

A Silvertown city ordinance forbids the storing of more than one gallon of gasoline in any building except in the tanks of automobiles or in the underground tanks at filling stations.

L. O. Herold was granted the contract for the putting of hard surface on Grant street.

The franchise ordinances governing the operating of stage lines and trucks on the city streets were taken up at the last meeting of the city council. An annual license payable in advance in the sum of $200 was granted the Parker stage line; The C. and M. stage line, $150; the Pacific Transfer Company, $130; Lawery Dray line, $70.

Y. Secretary Returns From Summer Camp

Secretary Claude A. Kells of the Salem Y. M. C. A. returned Saturday afternoon with his family from a two weeks stay at the Y. M. C. A. secretaries' camp at Seabeck. Seabeck is an old logging camp, where the logs were cut out and the people moved away, but the houses are left and the owner has held the place and beautified it for public purposes. It is the best known summer camp in the northwest, perhaps. The Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A. and a number of church and other social work organizations meet there regularly.

Mr. Kells met three of his own associates and fellow graduates from the Springfield (Mass.) college; one of them has been a missionary Y worker in India for eight years. Dr. C. J. Whitaker, who was pastor of the First Baptist church of Salem back in the '90s, was a speaker; and there were four members of the inter-
