HONORING members of the club who participated in the golf tournament at Tualatin, an informal dance will be sponsored by the club at the club house Thursday evening.

The showing made by the six members of the club entered in the tournament was considered especially good. Of the four women, Mrs. H. H. Olinger qualified in the championship flight; Mrs. Errel Kay won the first flight; Mrs. E. N. Gillingham the second flight and Mrs. E. L. Baker was runner up in the third flight.

Errel Kay qualified for the championship flight and Lloyd Farmer qualified in the fifth flight.

A number of Salem persons will be among those attending the second annual presentation of the "Wayfarer" in Seattle the coming week. This great production in which hundreds of persons take part is presented in the University of Washington stadium. It is said that last year, the first time it was produced, hundreds were turned away for lack of seating capacity in the great stadium which seats 8000 people.

The pageant is a community production directed by a Seattle musician. The part of the Wayfarer was taken last year by a man living in the University district. On his travels through time, from the creation to the present, he is accompanied by Understanding, who explains each happening as it is enacted on the stage of life. The "Wayfarer" is seeking spiritual understanding.

The closing episode, "The Pageant of the Nations," had more than 2800 persons in it last year. The entire bowl of the stadium is used in presenting this episode. More than 500 school children take part in the chorus, "Come all Ye Faithful." Theo Karl, who sang last fall in Salem, was one of the soloists for the production.

The stage settings for the play cost $65,000, while all of the chorus workers donated their time. A small amount was cleared last year, which was applied on the stadium debt. The great musical production begins this week Monday, July 24, and will continue until July 29.

Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Findley and their daughters, Miss Mary, Miss Genevieve, Miss Louise, Miss Pauline and Miss Edith, are among those from Salem going to Seattle to witness the production.

Honoring Miss Myra Wohrer of Cleveland, Mrs. Harvey L. Newcomb was a charming hostess at a pretty luncheon Saturday in the Marion hotel dining room. Miss Opal Crawford, sister of the hostess and a bride elect of the coming fall, shared honors with Miss Wohrer, and the hostesses' small daughter, Joan LaVergne, whose third birthday it was.

Effective table decorations were low bowls of pink sweet peas, while centering the table was placed a large mink birthday cake bearing three pink candles.

Covers were laid for Miss Wohrer, Miss Crawford, Baby Joan La Vergne Newcomb, Miss Jesse Harris, Miss Gene Belle, Miss May Boller, Miss Fay Hendrickson, and the hostess.

Mrs. James Nicholson gave a lovely party for her small son, Jimmie, Tuesday afternoon, celebrating his sixth birthday. A large cake topped by six candles was a delightful feature of the affair for the young guests.

Quantities of Dorothy Perkins roses were used about the rooms and in other ways the pink and green motif was carried out about the rooms. Mrs. Nicholson was assisted in serving by her sisters, Miss Carlyn Erickson,

The little folks enjoying the party were:

Lois and Betty Cohn from Honolulu; Claudine Gueffroy, Doris Arbuckle, May Louise Whitmore, Jean Trobert, Julia Johnson, Josephine Cornoyer, Maxine Glover, Barbara Moberg, Flavia

husband down the Willamette river in Oregon, in a flat-bottomed rowboat.

The building of the boat, its simple equipment, and the travelers' joyous adventures in rain and in sunshine, tentless by night and sometimes fasting by day, but always relishing the simple human relations they established with those they met on river and on shore, make a story filled with fresh air and a breezy philosophy.

The writers of Socialist pamphlets are hard up for introductions to their little essays. Invariably their printed propaganda begins somewhat after this manner: "In order to live in peace and comfort human beings require food, shelter and clothing. Isn't that refreshing news?"

—and Father did the Washing Once

This incident was told of a local man, in a local home.

The laundress failed to show up—his wife was indisposed—something simply had to be done about the washing, so of an evening he decided he'd be laundress himself.

For an hour he sloshed and lifted and lugged—and in the morning called us.

We have been calling regularly ever since—his hour in the cellar convinced him that washing is indeed no work for a woman.

But we do more than lighten labor—we give saving, sanitary service—cleanse everything sweetly in rainsoft water and suds of pure, mild soap—iron daintily—call promptly and deliver punctually. In a word, we give you modern laundering service.

Try this service and you'll want no more of the old. Phone us today.
