TRADE WAS REGRETTABLE, IS ASSERTION OF BAN JOHNSON

CHICAGO, July 24.—(By the Associated Press)—President Ban Johnson of the American league tonight declared the deal which sent Joe Dugan, star third baseman with the Boston Americans to the New York Yanks was a "regrettable transaction" and that trades of this character in mid-season must be "discouraged and legislated against."

The Yanks acquired Dugan and Elmer Smith, a hard hitting outfielder in exchange for Elmer Miller, an outfielder; John Mitchell, a substitute shortstop, Wilson Fewster, an infielder and a pitcher to be selected later.

"A point has been reached where the public regards with aversion and apprehension any deal for players between the Boston and New York clubs," President Johnson said. "The New York club may secure temporary relief in the acquisition of Dugan and Smith, but they will prove materially helpful to the building up of the team."

President Johnson tonight called a meeting of the club owners to be held here August 27. Questions involving the draft and the nature of the trophy to be awarded the most valuable player in the American league will be among the subjects discussed.

The meeting was not called as a result of the New York-Boston deal, but legislation prohibiting mid-season trades probably will be discussed, President Johnson said.

LOGANBERRY CASE UNDER REHEARING

Previous Records Not to be Introduced in Case Two Judges Rule

The first important step was taken in the case of The Phez company against the Salem Fruit union in circuit court yesterday when Judges George G. Bingham and Percy R. Kelly, sitting on banc, sustained the objection of the defendants' attorneys to the introduction of the records of the previous hearing into the present case.

Nearly 100 growers who are interested in the case, were in the court room yesterday. Half of the number, at least, are called as witnesses.

Approximately $200,000 is involved in the case which is the outcome of an alleged breach of contract.

It was stipulated by counsel for both sides yesterday that the year of 1921 would be ruled out of the case since there could have been little damage to the plaintiff company due to the fact that the market price for loganberries was not over 3 1-2 cents for that year.

The principal witnesses called yesterday were A. C. Longshore of the Northwest National bank of Portland, and William S. Waldon, cashier of the Ladd & Smith bank of this city who testified to establish the extent of credit of the plaintiff company. H. S. Gile, former president of the Phez company, was also on the witness stand, testifying to the price of berries during the years in which the growers are alleged to have violated the terms of their contracts—1919, 1920.

The original contracts were introduced in evidence with the exception of the one of E. S. Paxson, whose attorney has not yet arrived.

Testimony will again be heard in the case today, but it is probable that the hearing will then be continued due to the scheduled contest hearing of the Hall-Olcott case which is to start today.

KU KLUXERS TO KEEP COSTUMES

Imperial Wizard Denies That He Ordered Discontinuance of Nightshirts

ATLANTA, Ga., July 24.—Edward Young Clark, Imperial wizard pro tem of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, late today issued a statement denying that he had unmasked the Ku Klux Klan in Georgia or any other part of the country. The only thing he did he said was to issue an executive order, applying only to Georgia, "stopping for the time being all parades and the use of the mask and costume for any purpose in Georgia by the Klansmen except in the klavern or lodge room of the Klan."

"In explanation of the reason why I issued the order stopping parades and the use of the mask or costume in Georgia for the present time, I desire to say that I did so because of concerted effort in Georgia at the present time to make it appear that the Ku Klux Klan is directly responsible for acts of lawlessness in the state or directly responsible because of imitation of our costume by lawless elements or by those seeking to discredit our organization. I thought the best way to clear up such a situation was to issue the executive order which I did."

LEAGUE MEETS AT FALLS CITY

Sixty young people of Salem, representing the three Methodist churches of the city, started on Monday morning for the annual Epworth league assembly which is to be held this year in Falls City. This is the first year in this new home, for some years past the assembly has convened in Jefferson. They went over by truck and autocar, for a full week's stay.

Rev. Blaine Kirkpatrick of the First Methodist church and Dr. C. E. Hickman, of Kimball school of Theology, are two of the directors and leaders of the big meeting. A total attendance of 200 or more is expected. The people of Falls City furnished the ground and the lumber for the buildings and are loyally supporting the whole enterprise.

The young people of Salem, 50 of them, went over on the Fourth of July, and put in a days work in helping to get the place in readiness for the camp. It is said to be a delightful camping place, and a wonderful week is believed to be ahead of the young people who attend.

Several of the older folks are going for chaperons and directors, cooks and teachers and counselors. An excellent program of spiritual and social and athletic features has been made out.
