LOWERS WHEAT

alk of Settlement and Interest Shown by Outsiders Has Reflection

CHICAGO, July 29 .- Talk of settlement in the railroad strike and absence of outside interest led to downturns today in the price of wheat. At the finish wheat was down 1/4 to 1 cent, with September $1.07% to $1.08, and December $1.10 to $1.10 %. Corn declined % to 1%c; oats were unchanged to 16c off, and provisions 21/2 to 15 cents higher. Trade in wheat was light and the tone weak. Absence of outside interest and the call for a peace meeting among the chairmen of the shop crafts in Chicago, following the proposal of President Harding in an effort to end the walkout were the principal factors. Most all of the action in the wheat trade occurred during the last 30 minutes. Receipts here were 400 cars and dull, prices being weak with wheat. Rains over the corn belt were much needed and the forecast for more moisture over Sunday was a depressing factor in the corn market. Provisions were strong in line with higher hog values.
