2,000 PERSONS ATTEND
SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC

every year. Of these 800 come as dependents needing protection or aid, through no fault of their own. The other 1000 are alleged "delinquents," but most of these are from delinquent homes, where there is strife or separation. He says that he does not spend 5 per cent of his time dealing with the children themselves, even these "bad" children; he talks to their parents, their guardians, and finds out where they are lax or in the wrong. "I always ask a regular set of questions. One of these is: 'Do you attend Sunday school?' Usually the answer is 'no,' or 'I did, once, but don't now.' I believe the Sunday school is the most valuable influence in bringing children up rightly. It is an anchor for their whole lives. If we don't keep our sons and daughters right America is a failure."

Women Jurors Don't Help
The speaker said that it had been hoped that the woman juror system, inaugurated while he and the other soldier boys were across the sea, would bring about a revolution in the legal enforcement of a single standard of morals for men and for women. The result has not proved that women jurors are more ready to enforce the penalties against men offenders than the average men jurors. He urged a higher standard of morals, and a single standard. "The only thing for parents to do is to rear their children according to the Bible," said the judge.

Menaces Named
Judge Kanzer held up as menaces to sane morality for the children the public dance, the public swimming pool and the auto joy rides without proper chaperonage. He urged every parent to make it a business to be a pal of boys and girls, so as to steer them past the dangers of unguided youth. He said further that it is a calamity for the average family of small means to move into a city. It means farewell to most of their chances

MULKEY OF MONMOUTH WILL BOX BILLY GARDEAU OF BOISE

"Dubs" Mulkey of Monmouth will box Billy Gardeau of Boise, Idaho, 10 rounds at the Salem armory on August 11 at Company F's first boxing show of the season.
"Dubs" has fought several times in Salem and other points in the valley and is well known to Salem fans. He is an aggressive, shifty, hard hitting boy and a willing mixer, and is a prime favorite with the cash customers who pay their money to see a fight. He has won so easily in his previous bouts with the valley boys that there has been an increasing demand to see him in action with a boy who really stacks up as a first class boxer, and the bugs will get their opportunity to see how really good he is a week from Friday night at the armory.

Gardeau Pleasing Boxer
Billy Gardeau has a pleasing style of milling which will make a hit in Salem, and a record behind him when he speaks for himself, having met the best boys on the coast and in the middle west at the Portland armory. He also holds a 10-round decision over Mulkey from the Fourth of July at Harrisburg and thinks he can make it two straight wins.

Anderson Trains Mulkey
Bud Anderson, one time lightweight king of the Pacific coast and contender for world championship honors, will train Mulkey for the coming fight. Anderson believes that Mulkey is a comer, and says that when "Dubs" gets through with Gardeau on August 11, Billy will know he has been to a horse race. Both boys will get down to the hard training grind tomorrow morning. Gardeau will train in Portland for a few days and will start working out at the local armory probably the latter part of the week. Mulkey will put in a hard week at Vancouver, Wash., and will wind up his training at Salem.

Bayes to Box
In the semi-windup, Jimmy Anderson of Tillamook will meet Phil Bayes of Salem in a six-round mix. Bayes is well known here, having won three or four straight fights without having been beaten. Anderson has been winning consistently on the coast. In his last start at Tillamook on July 4, he won in the second round. He is regarded by followers of the boxing game in Tillamook county as a youngster with a future, and should put up a great battle. The winner of

Leaders Boost Picnic
Much of the success of the picnic is due to President Fred DeVries; to Claude A. Kells, general head of the sports and games; to Rev. R. L. Putnam, Maj. James S. Dusenberry and Col. Carl Abrams, parade committee; and to the superintendents of the various schools that made such fine showings from all over the county. About 25 schools in all were represented.

Explorer Abandons Ship
NOME, Alaska, July 29.—Captain Roald Amundsen has abandoned his attempt to reach Point Barrow in the gas boat Maud, his exploration ship, and has transferred to the schooner Holmes, according to a wireless message received here.

this fight will probably be matched with "Brick" Coyle of Vancouver, Wash., on the next card. Bayes is having considerable trouble getting sparring partners to work out with him. There has been a good floor provided in the basement of the armory and if any of the boys around town who will be willing to go a couple of rounds a day with Phil will come down there evenings after 8 o'clock, it will be a big help to him in getting into the best of shape.

Children Enjoy Fun
A wonderful afternoon it was for the children who took part in the games. Some of them had never seen the new plays that were offered. Several hundred children were on the great floor during the afternoon playing a score of interesting new or old games. Tug-of-war, indoor baseball, races, egg and potato races, and a vast variety of clever adaptations of the old games were played. "There wasn't anything more interesting than the girls' tug-of-war. The stadium floor, newly sawdusted and wet down, so that it wouldn't raise a dust, was the most delightful play place that many of the children had ever seen. They enjoyed it down to the last shaving.

Mary Miles Minter IN "South of Suva"

Midnight in a tropical jungle. The wild beating of toms-toms. The flare of torches. The frenzied dance of Fiji warriors in their hideous war paint. The weird, chanting of a voodoo priest.

And in the center of this scene, bound by ropes to the stone altar and illuminated by the flaring torchlight—a white girl, about to be sacrificed to the angry island gods.
