DELIGHTFULLY informal entertaining for guests has featured the social affairs of the last week with several important parties and weddings included as well.

Among the guests in Salem during the week was Mrs. Melvin Plimpton, who recently moved to Seattle. Mrs. Plimpton has been a guest of Mrs. John J. Roberts during her visit here and has gone to the coast for a few days' visit with friends.

Mrs. F. A. Elliott entertained during the week for her niece, Miss Ruth Clark of Danville, Ill., and for her sister, Mrs. W. S. Parker of La Grande, who were her house guests for the week. Mr. and Mrs. Elliott took their guests for a trip to the beaches yesterday.

Mrs. Lenta Westcott entertained at an informal tea Tuesday for her cousin, Mrs. A. C. Stoltz, Dayton, Ohio. Twenty-five women were invited.

Arrangements for the luncheon to be given Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, wife of the vice president of the United States, who with her husband and children will be guests of Judge and Mrs. Wallace McCamant the first of the week, are being made, despite the fact that definite word has not yet been received from Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge as to when Oregon women may honor the visitor.

The luncheon is to be for all Oregon women, according to Mrs. C. P. Bishop, who is a member of the committee and who returned last night from Portland. Salem women who may wish to attend should get in touch with the Hotel Portland direct, reserving places. It was suggested that groups reserve tables together. Mrs. W. S. Kinney, member of the Oregon legislature from Clatsop county, has been selected for toastmaster for the occasion.

Since Mrs. Robert N. Stanfield was called to Pendleton on account of the death of her father, the luncheon planned by Mrs. Stanfield for Mrs. Coolidge Tuesday noon, is not to be held. As a result, Mrs. Frank O. Northrup, chairman of the committee on arrangements, Mrs. William C. Cake and Mrs. Charles P. Bishop of Salem, sent a telegram to Mrs. Coolidge yesterday asking her for the Tuesday noon date.

The luncheon is planned for hotel Portland and the program is to be short, owing to the many demands being made upon the time of Mrs. Coolidge. However, the distinguished visitor has been asked to speak.

Members of the committee are Mrs. Ben W. Olcott, Mrs. George L. Baker, Mrs. Ralph W. Williams, Mrs. John L. Rand, Mrs. W. S. Kinney, Astoria; Mrs. Fannie Kay Bishop, Salem; Mrs. George L. Williams, Mrs. William C. Cake and Mrs. Frank O. Northrup, chairman.

The Portland alumnae club of Pi Beta Phi fraternity, of which Mrs. Coolidge is a member, is planning to give a noon breakfast in her honor Tuesday at the home of the club president, Mrs. George B. Guthrie. Mrs. McCamant and Mrs. Stearns will be special guests also, others being members of the alumnae club and of active chapters of the fraternity at the different colleges.

The wedding of Miss Dorothy Chambers and Carl T. Pope was an unusually attractive event of the week. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Chambers and is a popular member of the younger social set. She is an Alpha Chi Omega and a graduate of the Oregon Agricultural college.

Mr. Pope is a graduate of Willamette university and is associated with a Portland law firm. The young couple went to southern Oregon for a short wedding trip this week. They will make their home in Portland.

The bride wore her mother's brocaded satin wedding gown and her grandmother's wedding veil which was of Venetian lace. The outfit was a pretty one and attracted much attention. The gown was made with tight bodice with exquisite lace at the throat, escaping from the tiny panels of the sleeves at the elbow and the lower edge of the dress.

The announcement of the engagement of Miss Freida Christensen and Elmer Boswell was made at a pretty party sponsored Thursday evening by Miss Hollis Vick.

Miss Mamie Von Behren was guest of honor at a pretty garden party Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Baker. Miss Von Behren will be a bride of the late summer.

Guests in Salem during the last week included Mrs. C. S. Mendenhall, Miss Marie Mendenhall and Mrs. Charles Wintermute of Everett, Wash. They were returning home following the home economics convention in Corvallis.

Miss Mendenhall was a guest of Miss Ruth Schultz while in Salem. She is supervisor of home economics at Everett having been graduated from the Oregon Agricultural college in 1920. While in college Miss Mendenhall took a prominent place in student activities and was chosen manager of the Women's Stunt show, which although it was discontinued last year because of the large number of women's houses, was formerly considered one of the most responsible positions to which a senior woman could be elected.

Mrs. Hallie Parrish Hinges gave three of her popular solos at the Cherran band concert which was given at the state penitentiary Friday evening. One of the songs, "Annie Laurie," was described as the best rendering of the old loved song that Mrs. Hinges had ever given. Other songs which she sang were "In the Garden of My Heart," and "The Sunshine of My Smile."

Mrs. George Bingham, who has been in a Portland hospital for several weeks, is now home and it is anticipated that she will soon be entirely recovered.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hofer arrived in Salem this week following their trip north from Pasadena where they were married last week. They will make their home in Salem.

Miss Bertha Davis, who has been supervisor in home economics for the Smith-Hughes work in Oregon for several years, has resigned and will assume charge of a tea room on the campus of Mills college near Oakland, Cal. The tea room is just being opened this year.

Miss Davis is well known in Salem where she has visited often
