DE VALERA IS DEFENDANT IN FUND ACTION

Temporary Injunction Signed to Prevent Money in New York Banks Going Into His Hands.

MICHAEL COLLINS AND OTHERS BRING SUIT

Sum of $2,300,000 Tied up in Depositories by Action of Court

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—A temporary injunction restraining local banks in which are deposited moneys collected for the Irish republican cause from releasing them to Eamonn De Valera or any of his agents, was signed late today by Supreme Court Justice Burr on application of attorneys representing Michael Collins and other officers of the Irish Free State forces.

It was announced that approximately $2,300,000 was tied up by the order. Service complaint on De Valera and the other defendants was ordered to be made through the insertion of advertisements in papers in England and Ireland. Most of the funds involved are said to be deposited with the Guaranty Trust company and the Harrison National bank.

De Valera Called Fugitive

The main contention urged against the De Valera custody of the Irish funds, the application for an injunction read, was that Ireland is now a nation; that De Valera is against the present government and is a fugitive, and that he is not entitled to the money.

If De Valera or his forces were granted the funds in American banks, the free state representatives contend, it would be devoted to the carrying on of further revolution against the present government and prolong needless and unjustifiable civil war in a country which has expressed by the ballot its preference for the Irish free state form of government.

Free State Bonds Ready

It is further stated in the application that the Irish free state bonds of that nation and that the quickest way to end the present revolt is to deprive De Valera, and his aides of funds from this country.

All checks on these funds were deposited in the local banks in De Valera's name up to the time of the signing of the Irish peace treaty, it was said today. The money was under the jurisdiction of three trustees—Bishop Michael Fogarty, Irish prelate; Stephen M. O'Mara and De Valera. O'Mara is mayor of Limerick. They in turn were responsible to the Daily Bireann.

Status Brings Inquiry

Opponents of De Valera charged that, in spite of their protests, not less than $250,000 was withdrawn from the Irish funds in this city during the early part of this year. There was begun some time ago a series of inquiries concerning the exact status of the funds. Those who opposed De Valera charged they could obtain no information from him and that legal proceedings were thus necessitated.

The Firm of Attorneys Representing

The firm of attorneys representing the Irish free state officials today deposited with the county clerk a bond of $50,000 guaranteeing the good faith of the applicants. The funds involved are represented by $1,500,000 in securities and $800,000 in cash.

State Bonded Debts Are Over Billion Dollars

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—The state governments of the United States have a total bonded debt of $1,071,506,981, or $10.18 per capita, according to a survey made public tonight by the Bank of America.

New York has the largest individual state debt, totaling $267,784,000, but its per capita debt of $15.07 is comparatively low. South Dakota has the largest per capita debt, $75.02, while Kansas, Kentucky, Nebraska and Wisconsin have no bonded indebtedness.

The present per capita state debt is approximately the same as the per capita federal debt of $10.60, in 1913. The present public debt of the federal government is $33,922,900,000, or approximately $226 per capita.

WITNESSES CALLED BY GRAND JURY IN VOTE INVESTIGATION

TWO DALLAS MEN INJURED IN ACCIDENT

Fan Explodes—O. Bewley has Compound Leg Fracture, Calkins Crushed Foot

DALLAS, Or., Aug. 21.—(Special to the Statesman)—O. Bewley, chief engineer for the local plant of the Mountain States Power company, and Cecil Calkins, an engineer of the plant, were painfully injured Saturday when a blower fan located under one of the boilers at the plant exploded while they were repairing it and threw the cast iron covering upon them.

Bewley received a compound fracture of the right leg and for a time it was thought that owing to the splintered condition of the member it would have to be amputated. Later reports, however from the Dallas hospital where the injured men were taken it that the leg can be saved.

Calkins received a crushed foot where one piece of the fan covering struck him, but was otherwise uninjured.

QUAKE RIPS ACQUEDUCT NEAR L. A.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 21.—An earthquake Saturday broke the concrete aqueduct which carries water from the Sierra Nevada mountains to Los Angeles and about 105 feet of structure was washed away. Ample reservoir facilities between the break and Los Angeles safeguard the city from any danger of water shortage.

Three Carloads Prunes Shipped from Two Walls

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Aug. 21.—Three carloads of prunes were shipped from the Walla Walla valley today as the first consignment of the season. From now until the crop is picked the prunes will be shipped out in large numbers, the crop for the year being estimated at about 500 carloads.

Johnstown Mayor's Order Proves Fine Advertising Stroke, Even If Beer Does Lack its Old Kick

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Aug. 21.—(By the Associated Press)—While prohibition sleuths ostensibly were searching for bootleggers, Johnstown's supply of empty beer bottles continued to increase tonight.

Mayor Joseph Cauffiel, avowed supporter of the "pure beer for my constituents" movement, smiled a lot and said nothing.

Prohibition Agent E. A. Spragg Directing a Force of Seven Detectives

said his men had not found any bootleggers yet but that they had hopes.

Little Bugs Go Swimming
Meanwhile little black bugs continued to make an aquarium of the city's drinking water reservoir.

The steady, insistent demand for the "stuff the mayor ordered" began to lacerate the nerves of beverage dispensers today and they abandoned their efforts to explain to customers: "That the mayor's act was a hoax," and that they couldn't think of selling anything containing more than half of one per cent. And besides that the prohibition agent was listening.

Journalists Thirsty
The proprietor of one third parlor who was visited this afternoon by two really parched newspapermen, promptly agreed to fill

Patton Calls Legal Phrase Foolish, Then More Are Hurling at Him

The big redwood in Sumner street grew several inches in diameter last night while the city council men debated whether to save its life or slaughter it off hand.

HUSBAND TO BE BOUGHT

Mrs. Spreckles Wakefield Offers Another Wife $100 Monthly; She Agrees

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 21.—An offer by Mrs. Edith Huntington Spreckles Wakefield, first wife of the late "Jack" Spreckles, California millionaire, and herself prominent in San Francisco society, to "buy" another woman's husband from her for $100 a month for the rest of her life, came to light here today and is admitted by all persons involved.

Divorces Are Planned

A statement from Mrs. Wakefield tonight said: "It was a long time ago that I told Mrs. Kendrick that I loved her husband and wanted to marry him. I promised her she would have a home with Rodney and myself as long as she lived. She is a very sick girl and I took care of her for weeks. A hundred times she told me how grateful she was and in the presence of her husband and his mother and sister. When we left her I put $600 in the bank for her to draw on."

Wife Makes Admission

The wife said in a statement: "Mrs. Wakefield wrote me a letter five or six weeks ago when I was in a sanatorium, asking me to come to her home in Sausalito."

Back For More

An inspiration came and he continued: "You know a lot of us old timers woke up yesterday to the fact that we were beck numbers. We never believed in advertising. We do now. Why, we sold enough of this Volstead stuff yesterday to float a battleship through the Panama canal—and people kept coming back for more. They actually thought it was the real article. So when we told 'em the truth they winked and told us to trot it out."

Rush Keeps On

"We thought the rush was over when we closed our places early this morning, but we were fooled. Every other automobile party drives up, rushes in—gives three cheers for the mayor—and demands service.

"Yes why let 'em suffer is right."

And another half dollar dropped into the cash register.

Referendum Not Ordered

In the end, the referendum vote was not ordered. But they hadn't run out of arguments when the debate closed. The mayor

Forty Varieties Fruit Put Into Single Stack

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Aug. 21.—Forty different varieties of fruit and vegetables raised in Walla Walla county and now in season are being put into the form of a pyramid for the dining room of a local hotel in preparation for the "first fifty dollar" dinner of the county farm bureau here tomorrow evening. No charge will be made for the dinner itself, but 50¢ a plate will be paid in by those attending and a block of stock in the proposed Walla Walla public market will be exchanged for each payment.

LIGHTNER IS SENT ASHORE AND TO JAIL

Alleged Narcotic Law Violator Will be Brought to Portland for His Trial

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 21.—David Lightner, wanted in Portland, Ore., to answer charges of violation of the federal narcotic laws and impersonating a United States officer, claimed Canadian citizenship today when he was brought ashore from the United States shipping steamer West Farallon, which arrived yesterday from the Orient.

This was denied by W. R. Woods, federal narcotic agent, of Portland, who originally arrested Lightner and who came here to identify him, and who made the contrary declaration that Lightner was a native of the city where he is expected to face trial.

Previously announced plans to start Lightner to Portland today were changed. Instead he was taken before a United States commissioner here and arraigned. His preliminary hearing was set for August 28 and his bond fixed at $5,000. In default of bond he was placed in the Los Angeles county jail.

Lightner, who jumped bond of $10,000 in Portland shortly before his trial was to begin, fled to the Orient, was arrested in Shanghai, broke jail and stowed away on the West Farallon. Two days out he was discovered, later identified and made the remainder of the trip to Los Angeles in irons.

PICKING OF HOPS STARTS IN VALLEY

Gleaning of Fuggles Under Way—Recent Rains Beneficial in Effect

Hop picking is now in more or less general swing, since Monday morning, which had been agreed upon as the opening date for many yards in the valley. The recent rains, however, gave some of the yards a new lease of life and growth, and some are still growing so famously because of the rain, that their picking will be delayed a few days.

Some hops were picked two or more weeks ago before the rain, to save what could be saved from the ravages of the red spider. This insect thrives best in dry weather, when the plants have the least resistant power. The rain raved a good many fields from being picked before maturity because of the spider. Only the fuggle or early hops are being gathered at this time; the cluster variety comes a little later.

Some interesting data is being gathered from hop irrigation. On the Jones ranch in the Mission Bottom north of town, some water was given the hops from a pumping system at the river. The hops look to be two or three times the yield of the average over the country. The same is true of a wonderfield field of hops on the Beaver Island Fruit company ranch, just south of Wheatland ferry. This ranch has produced up to 2800 pounds of hops to an acre in other exceptional years, so good yields are not uncommon there, but the hops that were irrigated there this year, even though the irrigation was not begun until near the close of July, certainly look as if hops and water were bosom friends. A yield of better than a ton to the acre, even in this dry season, seems assured, though the pickers have not yet begun on the heaviest irrigated portion, as the hops are not yet ripe enough there.

It is understood that some of the hop yards near Independence, have been so hard hit by the drought that they will not be seriously picked. The price of hops is low enough to make the added investment of the picking seem unjustified in the lighter yields.

Tacoma Man Dead After Accident at Freewater

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Aug. 21.—Ernest Toddhunter, 30, of Tacoma, died late this afternoon as a result of a motorcycle accident at Freewater, Ore., Sunday, when his machine became unmanageable, leaving the road. The machine struck an irrigation ditch, went through a barbed wire fence, hurtled 30 feet through the air and crashed into the side of a house. Toddhunter was unconscious from the time of the accident until his death.

NEW SUIT FILED

YAKIMA, Wash., Aug. 21.—Another suit was filed today by the government in federal court here to restrain Lillian Busch, Yakima county treasurer from taxing certain Indian lands near Toppenish.

ORDERED BACK

DUQUIN, Ill., Aug. 21.—(By The Associated Press)—Virtually all coal mine operators of the Duquoin field, one of the largest in southern Illinois, today ordered their engineers and shift men back to work.

NO SETTLEMENT

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 21.—The joint conference of mine workers and operators' representatives adjourned today's session without reaching a settlement of the labor troubles in the hard coal field.

OREGON GUARD TO HAVE TEAM IN BIG SHOOT

Federal Appropriation Received Through Telegraph Makes Possible Sending of Fourteen Men.

CAMP PERRY, OHIO MECCA OF RIFLEMEN

Salem, Dallas and Albany Among Cities to Be Represented in Matches

Oregon will be represented by a selected team of 14 expert riflemen in the national rifle matches at Camp Perry, Ohio, next month, according to announcement made last night by Brigadier General George A. White, adjutant general of the state.

Telegraphic appropriation from the United States treasury sufficient to cover the cost of the Oregon citizen soldiers was received by General White, after hope had been practically abandoned for the team, since only a limited number of states can be represented this year because of limited federal appropriations.

Names Announced Today

Selection of the team had already been practically completed in readiness for possible authority from Washington, and it includes the 12 best riflemen from the infantry units of the state, so far as their ability has been demonstrated on the rifle ranges this year.

Towns represented in the team are Portland, Salem, Hood River, Dallas, Marshfield and Albany. Announcement of the names will be made today when the alternates and team officers have been agreed upon.

Team Leaves Monday

The Oregon national guard team will leave Portland next Monday over the Union Pacific line and will spend a month shooting in the national matches.

The Oregonians will be in competition with the crack riflemen from the army, navy and marine corps.

Unlicensed Dogs Target of Lane County Court

EUGENE, Or., Aug. 21.—Following the report of the killing of 48 sheep of a flock at Santa Clara near this city by marauding dogs, the Lane county court announced that a campaign will be started against all unlicensed dogs which are causing more damage to sheep than the predatory animals according to reports of county officials.

Since the first of the year the county has paid out $1,045.38 to sheep owners as damages representing 50 per cent of the total loss as the result of killing by dogs.

Walla Walla Budget is $20,000 Lower in Year

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Aug. 21.—Walla Walla county's budget this year will be at least $20,000 lower than that of last year, it was estimated today by Deputy Auditor A. T. Bedell, who has charge of the budget making. Blanks were distributed today to all county officials asking the amounts expected by each department for the coming year. Trimming of these will follow and the preliminary budget will be made up in early September.

$100,000 DEMANDED IN WOMAN'S CHARGE

Mrs. Sarah Gillespie Byfield filed suit in Atlanta, Ga., for $100,000 against Walter T. Candler, sportsman and capitalist, charging that he caused her "personal injury and humiliation" in an alleged attack made upon her while aboard the steamship Berengaria, en route to France.

The suit, which was filed in the superior court, followed an action brought by Candler against her husband, Clyde K. Byfield, prominent automobile man, charging blackmail and to restrain him from cashing a $25,000 note given Byfield.

MRS. CANDLER IS FOR HUBBY

Wife of Man Accused by Mrs. Byfield Avers Charges Are Untrue

HONOLULU, T. H., Aug. 21.—Entirely disbeliever of the allegations in Mrs. Sarah Gillespie Byfield's $100,000 damage suit against Walter T. Candler, was voiced here today by Mr. Candler's wife. "If I believed for a moment that there was a word of truth in the charges I likely would be first to curse my husband," said Mrs. Candler, who is in Honolulu on a pleasure trip. "I warned him against these people some time ago," she added.

Mrs. Candler said she had cabled her husband expressing her disbelief of the charges of Mrs. Byfield's suit. She hopes to sail for the mainland next Wednesday and said her plans for returning had been made before she received word of the filing of the suit.

BONUS BILL IS NEXT TO COME BEFORE BODY

Unanimous Consent Agreement for Final Vote is Sought, But With Little Hope for Success.

M'CUMBER WILL TALK AT LENGTH WEDNESDAY

Easy Passage in Upper House of Congress Predicted by Leaders

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—Senate Republican leaders continued negotiations today for a unanimous consent agreement for a final senate vote on the soldiers' bonus bill, but apparently with little prospect of immediate success.

Some progress was reported, but it was understood that four or five senators objected to an agreement at this time.

Bill Comes Up Wednesday.
The bonus measure is the senate's unfinished business and will be taken up after the senate reconvenes Wednesday. Chairman McCumber of the finance committee, plans to deliver a prepared address at that time in support of it and some majority leaders said that unless there was an agreement meantime for a time for the final vote the legislation would have to be fought out to a finish on the floor.

Several substitute measures have been proposed and many amendments to the committee draft as promised. All of these are expected to lead to more or less prolonged discussion.

Conference Follows Vote

After the bonus is passed by the senate—and the general belief at the capitol is that it will go through—finally by a substantial majority—it would, in the usual course, be sent to conference for the composing of differences between the senate and house. In that event it would be handled by the same conference committee which the tariff measure would be referred this week with little prospect that it would receive attention until after the committee had completed its work on the tariff.

Federal Appeal Halted in Joseph Woerndle Case

PORTLAND, Or., Aug. 21.—Steps by the government to appeal the case against Joseph Woerndle, former Austrian consular here, in which the government lost its fight to have his citizenship cancelled because he had loaned his passport to Hans Boehm, German spy, before the United States entered the World War, were halted today by orders received by District Attorney Lester W. Humphreys from J. W. Beck, assistant attorney general of the United States.

Body of Portland Boy Recovered from River

PORTLAND, Or., Aug. 21.—The body of 15-year-old John Zimmerman, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Zimmerman, was recovered from the Willamette river today. The lad disappeared from his home last Thursday telling relatives he was going swimming a short distance down stream from where the body was found.

VOTERS HURRY

YAKIMA, Wash., Aug. 21.—Yakima voters, anxious to register for the coming primary elections thronged the office of the city clerk this evening and formed a queue extending far out into the street, in an eleven-hour rush to get their names on the list.

HOGAN LANDS

CHICAGO, Aug. 21.—After an all day battle with strong headwinds, Don Hogan, who left Denver this morning in an attempt to break the flying record between Denver and Detroit, Mich., landed in Chicago shortly before dark tonight.

PLANE ARRIVES

NASSAU, New Province Bahamas, Aug. 21.—(By the Associated Press)—The American seaplane piloted by Lieutenant Hinton, which left West Palm Beach this morning on one leg of its journey to Rio Janeiro, arrived here at 1:35 o'clock this afternoon.
