Considerable Irregularity Develops, But Strong Hands Control

NEW YORK, Aug. 24. - Coniderable irregularity developed in today's fairly active stock market session, but there was abundant evidence that the control of the market as a whole continues to be in strong hands.

Unfavorable overnight developoid not result in any extensive liquidation of carrier shares, although many issues yielded slightwould do, Substantial support set in, however, and the market steadied, most declines being of a fractional nature. Northern Pacific climbed up to a new high for the year, buying of the stock being based on reports of an early resumption of the 7 per cent dividend and the expectation of oil developments in its Montana land holdings. United States Steel duplicated its year's high price, with sympathetic advices in shares of some of the independent companies, presumably in response to reports of higher prices and profitable

MORAL COURSES WILL BE ADDED

Stories With Purpose to Be Given Children in Oregon Schools

"Moral Instruction in the Public Schools Through the Story," is the title of a pamphlet being distributed among the county school superintendents of the state by J. A. Churchill, state superintendent, For each one of the elementary the pupils. Under each virtue a number of books are listed that may be obtained from the Oregon state library.

In the foreword Mr. Churchill says:

"It is a matter of vital concern to those who have the interests of the nation at heart that ways and means be developed to give the children of our schools education along the lines of character building. That 'the children of today are the citizens of tomorrow' is a truism makes it none morrow' is a truism makes it none | 1921 crop, nominal, new contracts 11

the less imperative that we give careful heed to the kind of character material we are putting, or allowing to be put, into the moral structure of those future citizens, More and more the realization is growing that the school has not been doing all that it can in this important matter, and more and more firmly is the conviction by ing forced upon those who are thinking in terms of national interest that the school must take over as a definite part of its work the moral instruction of the chil-

Visiting Salesman Proves to Be Clever Magician

A few Salemites who happened to be in the Patton Brothers' store ments in the rail strike situation Tuesday, had the privilege of seeing some of the cleverest magician work ever presented in the city, J. DeForest, representing the Allen ly at the start because of general C. Gilbert company, manufacturuncertainty as to what the market ers of the Erector toys and of radio outfits, gave a demonstration of his skill that is said to be absolutely dazzling.

He has been a professional magician for years, has toured the world several times. and is a rare performer.

Perhaps the most interesting part of his story, however, is the fact that he represents a former Salem boy, Allen C. Gilbert, New Haven, Connecticut, in a business way. Gilbert was born in Salem. a son of the late Frank N. Gilbert, and at one time knew almost everybody in the Willamette valley. Young Gilbert at one time held the world's record as a pole vaulter, and represented the United States at one of the early Olympian games series.
