SALEM LOSES
MONDAY GAME

Playing is Desultory—Sunday Contest Is Victory for Local Club

Desultory playing by the Salem Senators particularly by Pitcher Sage and Catcher Emil Houser, caused the Senators to lose the game with the Portland railway clerks yesterday by a score of 8 to 4.

The game was the fourth of the series with the clerks, and each team has now won two games.

Six Costly Errors.

Salem made six costly errors yesterday, three of them by Houser at shortstop. The always reliable Proctor played a good game at first and made a home run in the sixth that scored Slade ahead of him. Girod played good ball at third.

The visitors scored their first run in the first inning when LaMear came in on a sacrifice fly. The clerks scored three more in the fourth due to ragged playing by the Salem team. They scored one in the seventh and three in the ninth.

LaMear Has Bad Inning. Salem scored twice in the sixth and twice in the seventh. LaMear, the peppy Portland catcher had a bad inning in the seventh, one Salem run being due to his overthrow at third and the other to a passed ball.

The Sunday game with the same team was won by Salem 8 to 4, just the reverse of the score yesterday. In the Sunday game Salem made 15 hits off the delivery of Drake. The clerks got the start of the game, scoring four in the first two innings, all of the runs being due to home runs.

Two-base hits were made Sunday by the two Gills brothers, Houser and Shackman. Both teams played well in the field, a spectacular play being made by Slade when he ran back from his place and grabbed a long fly that would have brought in a run had he failed to get it.

One more game will be played between the two teams. Next Sunday the Senators are to play the Marshfield team.

SQUIRE EDGE GATE—Squirming Out of a Tight Place

LYNCH BEATS
PAL MOORE

Challenger Severely Battered in Ten-Round Mill With Belted Bantam

RINGSIDE, Michigan City, Ind., Sept. 4.—(By the Associated Press)—Joe Lynch, world's bantamweight champion got revenge today for the popular 12-round victory Pal Moore of Memphis, Tenn. scored over him two years ago, when he defeated Moore in a sensational 10-round contest in Floy Fitzsimmons' sun-baked arena before 7,000 spectators here this afternoon.

Moore was all but wrecked out in the seventh round and managed to survive only through a remarkable demonstration of gameness.

Lynch battered him helplessly and groggy with short punches to the jaw, and Moore, sitting in a neutral corner, took the count of nine before staggering to his feet.

The champion drove him into the ropes and knocked him down a second time in the same corner.

Moore again waited for the count of nine before kamely struggling to his feet. Although hurt and badly dazed, he was fighting when the bell ended the round.

Previous to the seventh Moore had piled up enough points in the second, fifth and sixth rounds to give him a slight lead, despite the fact he was knocked to his knees in the third.

Short Punch Nasty One

Lynch shot a short right hand punch in this round that did not travel more than a foot. Moore's legs shot out from under him as if he had touched an electric wire.

He did not take a count, jumping to his feet instantly and resumed his task of throwing punches at the champion.

Moore's peculiar freakish style of boxing, jumping in and out and hitting from any angle, seemed to bother Lynch in the first six rounds and then Lynch decided to do some jumping himself.

He started in to imitate Moore's style and finally whipped over a savage short right that shook the challenger to his heels.

Moore Backs Into Ropes

Moore backed into the ropes and Lynch piled in after him, landing rights and lefts, to the chin until Moore, bleeding and helpless, sank into a corner on the verge of a knockout.

When the bell ended the uneven round, Moore's seconds worked frantically over the challenger and got him into fair's good shape for the eighth. Moore, although slightly dazed, seemed to know what it was all about, as he backed out of danger and kept pecking away with a tantalizing left.

Lynch, however, had the better of the eighth and ninth, but Moore came back strong in the tenth and had Lynch backing away.

Rib Is Broken

After the match Moore was examined by Dr. C. W. K. Briggs of Chicago, who discovered that the challenger suffered a broken rib in the left side, in the region of the kidneys. It was thought that Lynch did that damage with a right hand punch in the seventh round.

This was their second meeting with the championship at stake. They were scheduled to box at 119 pounds but the champion was said to be overweight.

Besides Lynch three other champions displayed their wares before the big Labor day crowd. Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, whose scheduled bout with Bill Brennan was stopped by Governor McCray of Indiana, appeared in a four-round exhibition, boxing two sparring partners two two-minute rounds each.

Portland Man Appears

The 10-round contest between Jimmy Clabby of Hammond, Ind., Australian middleweight champion, and Jimmy Darcy of Portland, Or., went the limit, with Clabby having the better of it in boxing. Darcy was 12 pounds overweight, entering the ring at 168 pounds, while Clabby scaled 156 pounds.

Dempsey was scheduled to meet Bill Brennan here today boxed two sparring partners two 2-minute rounds and had both of them weary, although big pillow gloves were used. Jack Thompson, a big negro, faced Dempsey the first two rounds and Andrew Anderson of Chicago, caught the champion's punches in the last two.

CHAMPION LEADS DIFFICULT FIELD

Jesse Guilford Performs Remarkable Golf Round in Spite of Weather

BROOKLINE, Mass., Sept. 4.—A champion led his field of contending title seekers today when Jesse Guilford of the Woodland Golf club came home through mists and rain, boggy fairways and waterlogged greens, winner of medal honors in the qualifying round of 36 holes in the national amateur golf championship tournament which is to decide his successor.

His score was 144, 74 in the perfect conditions of Saturday when the first 18 holes were played and 70 under the difficulties caused by rains that fell constantly all day today.

His round this afternoon not only constituted a new amateur competitive record for the Country club course, supplanting the 71 made by Bobby Gardner of Chicago on Saturday but it equaled the professional record held by the British master, Edward, by an event to the aggregate of 144, which equals the lowest medal score ever made in national amateur title tournaments.

Guilford gained honors as medalist in a competition remarkable under the condition play that prevailed. Only a stroke removed from him was Bobby Jones, the boy wonder golfer from Atlanta, who went around today in a 72 to complete a card of 145.

Jones a few minutes before had broken a tie between Great Britain and the United States for low score. Cyril H. J. Tolley, British amateur champion last year had set the medal mark for the day at 148 with a 74 under the wet conditions of the morning.

Chick Evans, another champion asserting himself, tied Tolley also with a 74.

It took 162 to qualify for the last of the 36 places and five men had to play knockout under a rainbow spanned sudden course for the last three places.

West and east, members of the official British golf team and native Americans were represented in the list. Those who go into match play tomorrow include:

W. C. Fownes of Pittsburgh, winner in 1910; Robert A. Gardner, twice national champion; Francis Ouimet, titlist in 1914; W. B. Torrance and C. C. Aymer of the British team; Willie Hunter, British amateur champion last year, now a resident in New York; Thomas D. Armour, also a star in Great Britain until he took up his residence in New York; Rudy Knepper of Sioux City whose 73 was a notable effort that gained him the place today.
