The masters of dancing are having their annual convention, being held in New York. No longer need the steps be a hop, skip and jump, with no breathing space between partners. With the long skirts now in favor the movements are smooth and graceful and the waltz almost predominates. A glance at the illustrations above gives a fair idea of just what is going on at the convention.

ADJUTANT BOLLES IS VISITOR HERE

National Official of Legion Has No Prediction About Bonus Bill

Lemuel Bolles, national adjutant of the American Legion, spent a short time in Salem yesterday visiting with George A. White, who was the first national adjutant of the American Legion and one of its founders overseas. Mr. Bolles came to the coast from the national headquarters at Indianapolis and is returning there by way of California.

No prediction would be made by Mr. Bolles as to whether President Harding will veto the national bonus bill, although he was confident the law will become effective sooner or later. He said that the ex-service men have had to make a long hard fight for what they believe, and the majority of people, a just measure, and that this fight has caused some people to lose sight of the high service for the country which the Legion is performing and attempt to accuse the ex-service man of being selfish. Mr. Bolles predicted a brilliant future of patriotic service to America by the Legion members.

He has been identified with the Legion almost since its inception. At the time General White was serving as one of the national organizers, he called Mr. Bolles to national headquarters at Paris and the latter has been in active Legion organization work with the national headquarters since that time.

The Chicago Automobile association is conducting a road-courtesy campaign. Those who are pledged to it wear stickers on their cars as a badge of honor. Among other things they promise to give pedestrians a chance and they also agree not to hog the road against their fellow motorists. It was thought that the courtesy had been forgotten so far as the commerce on our highways is concerned. If it can be revived the occasion will call for three hearty cheers from somebody. Usually when a man buys himself a flivver he banishes life's little amenities from recollection and takes his merriness from the wild man of the west. It would be a fine thing we could get back to normal.

Ladies' Coats and Suits

FOR FALL WEAR

You will look from one to another of the coats and wraps. You will slip into a few—those that seem even lovelier than the rest. Choice will be difficult because every one will be becoming. The colors are so soft, the fabrics so velvety and smooth. Polo, Normandy, Plaid Backs, Marvella, Veldyne—these are a few of the fabrics.

Used by Three Generations

"I use Foley's Honey and Tar personally, give it to all my children and now to my grandchildren with the same good results. I tried many kinds of cough medicines, but never want anything but Foley's Honey and Tar," writes Mrs. E. K. Olson, Superior, Wisc. Foley's Honey and Tar was established in 1875 and has stood the test of time serving three generations. It quickly relieves colds, coughs and croup, throat, chest and bronchial trouble. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

Pacific Homestead Has Hampshire Special Issue

The Pacific Homestead issued a "Hampshire Special" on August 31, that about tops them all for special breed numbers.

The Hampshire swine have filled an aching void in the American swine market, and within a very few years they have come to be almost as popular and widespread as even the time-honored Berkshire and the later Folland Chinas and Duroc Jerseys.

Western Oregon, where grazing must be resorted to in order to raise pigs to the fattening age, to make hog-raising pay its way, is generally held to be one of the paradises of the Hampshire hogs, and the Homestead special presents the black and white Hampshires in a wonderfully attractive way.

NOTE—The Red Top tin contains Velvet that has recently been delivered from the factory. It is in fresh condition—cool and smooth in a pipe.

Each tin of Velvet TOBACCO with the RED TOP contains freshly made tobacco. Just right for your pipe.

And the mild smoothness you enjoy is the result of Velvet's two long year's ageing in wooden hogsheads. Patient ageing in Nature's way—the right way of removing raw harshness and bite.

You'll say that Velvet is cool, smooth and "sweet as a nut" in your pipe.
