DOUBLE-HEADER HERE ON SUNDAY

Senators and Bandon to Play Two Games—Local Stars With Coos Bay

A nifty dish of baseball will be handed out to all comers next Sunday afternoon at Oxford park when the Salem Senators are scheduled to tangle with the Bandon baseball nine in a double-header, the first game starting at 1:30 o'clock.

In the Bandon aggregation the Senators have picked a tough morsel and they will have to step it faster than they did last Monday if they carry home the side meat. The visitors are closing a highly successful season with the championship of the Coos Bay league safely tucked to their masthead. The Coos Bay league was made up of four teams, Marshfield, Bandon, North Bandon and Coquille.

On the Bandon line-up are found several former Salem stars, among whom are McKenna, Hayes, Keene and Duffy. On the mound it is said that Harper, the Bandon twirler, leaves a mean game.

Carson will probably pitch the first game for the home team but it is not known yet who will take his job in the second tilt.

Salem will have the following men:

Adolph, first base; Bishop, second base; Baker, short stop; Girard, third base; Gill, Hobson, Proctor, Slade, outfielders; Carson and Sage, pitchers; Hauser and Jones, catchers; Mike Miller, utility.

RACE WINNERS ARE ANNOUNCED

Enthusiasm Shown in Athletic Events at Y.M.C.A. Held Yesterday

A pop-eyed enthusiastic aquatic meet was held at the Y tank Thursday afternoon, in which a large number of boys who have been swimming regularly during the summer, were participants. They haven't lost much of their summer tan and apparently not a speck of their pep or yelling ability. They slid through the water like greased, ball-bearing trout and they certainly made a whole day of the tank events.

The winners were:
Class A, 11 to 13 Years
1. Claude Martin; 2. Voyle Franklin; 3. Wallace Hug.
Two length—1. Voyle Franklin; 2. Claude Martin; 3. Duane Kirk.

Underwater swim—1. Bill East; 2. Harold Hedlund.
Candle race—1. Stuart Kippe; 2. Weldon Kirk; 3. Harold Hedlund.

Two minute swim—1. Bill East; 2. Harold Hedlund.
Swim on back—1. Kippe and Esch; 2. Weldon Kirk.
Front and back swim—1. Weldon Kirk; 2. Stuart Kippe; 3. Harry Esch.
Bob Boardman was the starter for all events, and Meade Elliott and John Eaton the judges and timers. There was a large crowd of enthusiastic rooters and friends.

The candle race was a novelty event, in which each contestant swam once the length of the tank, there to be given a candle and a match with which to light it. With the candle lighted they had to swim back to the other end of the tank. It's fun for the spectators, but it's a long guess with the swimmer whether he can train the water not to splash over his ticklish little candle.

The two minute race was a distance heat to cover the greatest distance in the elapsed time.

SQUIRE EDGEGATE—The Old Man Throws a Frown

CAMPAIGN TO BEGIN TONIGHT

Intensive Movement for Willamette Endowment to Receive Impetus

Willamette university's endowment campaign begins tonight, with "Willamette night" at the Methodist conference, now in session in Salem.

The university is asking for $1,000,000 permanent endowment and for $250,000 for equipment and clean-up service. Some of this money is already in sight, but much more has to come from the pockets of Oregon people.

Famed Workers Enlisted
To carry on this financial campaign, the general board of education is sending a picked, nationally famous organization of university men who make it their life work to carry on just such campaigns. They arrived in Salem yesterday and spent the day looking over the field preparatory to starting their work.

Dr. W. Arthur Smith of Cleveland, Ohio, is in general charge. He is assisted by Dr. H. C. Burkholder of Topeka, Kansas; Dr. C. P. Loughlin of Columbus; Dr. A. J. Arnett of Winfield, Kansas; Miss Lorena M. Pask, assistant publicist; Miss Margaret Barrett of New London, Ohio, head stenographer, and Miss H. Loughlin, Toledo, Ohio, office manager.

Needs Closely Studied
They have made a profound study of church needs of college students, of city and town and country as these are related to the church university. The formal campaign is to begin October, to close December 20, after 60 days of intensive work. But prior to the formal opening date the men of the organization will visit all Oregon, speaking, getting acquainted with the people and the state resources, and laying out their definite plans.

There will be many other workers, however, besides these seven. All the university faculty, every Methodist minister of the state, thousands of friends and graduates and well-wishers, will be of the working force, and there will be a number of stenographers, for the letter mail will be very heavy.

The same corps of workers put over a similar campaign for the Nebraska Wesleyan university at Lincoln, a school that had about 1500 students and not enough money or facilities to care for its needs. The demand there was for $1,337,500 for endowment, gymnasium, heating plant and other necessities almost identical with those of Willamette, and they got the last dollar. They say that if Nebraska could do as well last year, certainly Oregon ought to reach the smaller sum.

R. A. Booth of Eugene, member of the Willamette board of trustees, is to be the principal speaker at the conference meeting tonight, when the university campaign will be formally launched. Edgar B. Piper, editor of The Oregonian, and an alumnus of Willamette, is to preside as chairman of the meeting.

"If they did, we know they are dead. They would be overcome by gas fumes which Dr. L. H. Duschak of the industrial accident commission says will kill in two minutes. But the entombed men did not know and could not know of this condition.
"Taking for granted that a few of the cooler heads descended to the lower levels and barricaded themselves, it is possible that the terrific gas fumes have penetrated to their temporary safety zones.

THREE SUSPECTS ARE STILL HELD

Photographs and Finger Prints Taken at State Prison Yesterday

Salem police last night were still holding Dick Morgan, Ed Davis and John Augustine, who were arrested Wednesday night when the officers found a quantity of jewelry as well as a complete set of lock picks and finger stalls in their possession. The latter are often used by safe robbers to prevent leaving finger prints.

According to Chief of Police Moffitt there is little doubt that the men are wanted in some other city, and their photographs and finger prints were taken at the Oregon penitentiary Bertillon room yesterday morning and sent to police over the northwest.

The men absolutely refuse to talk when questioned as to the jewelry and lock picks. They will be held on an open charge for investigation until tonight, when it is probable a charge of vagrancy will be placed against them provided out of town officers do not make claim for them before that time.

175 SALEM ELKS GO TO SEASIDE

Antlered Boys Dressed in Convict Stripes Create Sensation on Way

Nearly 175 Salem Elks, many of them dressed in striped convict garb, left by automobile caravan yesterday for Seaside where they will attend the state convention of the Elks lodge. Thirty-five motor cars were in the fleet.

A state traffic officer was furnished as an escort. I. R. Smith, one of the Salem Elks' committee, announced that there would be only one stop on the way to the coast, this to be for 45 minutes at the Elks' temple in Portland.

Headquarters of the Salem delegation are at the Seaside hotel. The convention will close Saturday night and most of the local members will return Sunday. The Elks band and chanters were included in the crowd going from here.

said, evidently in a man's handwriting and signed with Hochbrun's name.

For a considerable period of time after Hochbrun's killing, rents from his property were collected by someone, Chief Drew said. Another unexplained detail, he stated, is that Hochbrun's body was found lying across a trunk while Mrs. Winborn said he fell to the floor when shot. Chief Drew expressed the belief that the body, which was a heavy one, could not have been raised by the woman alone.

Seattle authorities are expected here tomorrow night to take Mrs. Winborn back north.

CLOVERDALE IS FOR SIX CENTS

Seventy-Five Per Cent of Growers for Loganberry Minimum Price

A successful though not extremely large meeting of loganberry growers was held in the Cloverdale district last night, to consider the movement started in the Liberty district to demand 6 cents for logans for the 1923 crop.

The growers agreed heartily to the justice of the increased price and fully 75 per cent of all the loganberry acreage in the district was signed up for "six cents or no

(By Associated Press.)—Brazil's celebration of the 100th anniversary of her independence was inaugurated this morning in earnest next week, and will probably last for three weeks or even a little longer. After that, the promoters of the movement expect to make the organization of the entire Willamette valley into a 6-cent unit.

President Mumford of the Liberty association, H. R. Jones of Rosedale, and George Heckert of Sunnyside, went over to present the matter to the Cloverdale folks.

It is understood that this will probably be the last loganberry meeting to be called until after the p rone season is over. The prune picking and drying will be
