For Sale—Prof. Guy C. Larkins was at Silverton Tuesday. Prof. Larkins made the statement in the Hoosier real estate office that he took $300 worth of evergreen blackberries off his three-acre tract near Marquam this year. And this three acres is not all in evergreens, either, by any means. There is other fruit, good seven-room house, chicken yard and good store building. This property is for sale by J. E. Hosmer, Silverton, Ore., for $2000.—Adv.

Fraternity Members Meet—Sigma Phi Epsilon, fraternity from O. A. C., held its first organizational meeting at the Commercial club last night. Thirteen members were present, including one visiting fraternity brother from California. They sang and yelled, and then took in the movie and show and a square meal at The Spa. They plan to meet again during the state fair, when they will have a number of visitors from Portland and Corvallis, and will form a permanent state organization later in the year. For the temporary organization, Arthur McClain is president and Lloyd Gregg secretary-treasurer.

the periodical prophecies of the end of the world.

Lack of a senate quorum has been the chief cause of delay in Cuba in adopting the reforms which General Crowder now demands in an ultimatum. Apparently the senators like the honor of office rather than its work.

SILVERTON NEWS

SILVERTON, Ore., Sept. 7.—(Special to The Statesman.) Mrs. Harriet Jones, who has been living in the Hosmer apartments, has moved to California.

C. S. Sattuck has moved into his new home which he just recently purchased. Andrew Quall purchased the place formerly owned by Mr. Sattuck and has moved there from his farm.

L. O. Hadley and family have gone on a camping trip which will take them through Oregon and Washington.

Attorney J. Hosmer made a business trip to Salem Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Downs of Portland spent the first part of the week with Mrs. Downs' mother, Mrs. J. M. Brown.

Word has been received that a baby boy was born to Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Johnson of San Francisco. Mrs. Johnson will be remembered as Miss Bernice Smith, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Smith of Silverton.

Rev. and Mrs. Valdemar Sorenson of Minnesota are expected to arrive at Silverton some time next week. Mrs. Sorenson is the daughter of Mrs. J. P. Larson and is coming west because of the serious illness of her mother. Arthur Madsen and Lawrence Smith are on a hunting trip in southern Oregon.

Silverton folk are daily flocking to Mission Bottom for peaches. It is reported that the evergreen blackberry yield has been enormous this year. Prof. Guy Larkins reports that he took $300 worth of the berries from his three acre tract of land near Marquam. He added that this tract was by no means all in berries either, as it contained several other kinds of fruit.
