MISS ILLA SPAULDING became the bride of Lewis Dalrymple Griffith at a charming home wedding last night. The lovely Spaulding home on Court street was decorated in lavender and yellow, with quantities of asters used about the rooms to carry out the color scheme. The couple stood before the fireplace at the west end of the living room while the more than 200 guests were in the rooms which open off the living room and the hall. A great bunch of large asters occupied a place over the mantle. The wedding party came down the stairs to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Ruth Heinrich. Tiny Jean Marie Spaulding and Ila Mills, nieces of the bride, as flower girls, led the bridal party. Little Roberta Mills carried the ring.

The four bridesmaids were Miss Olga Gray, Miss Olga Brucher, Miss Nathel Donaca and Miss Grace Humphres. They were gowned, two in yellow and two in lavender chiffon. They wore silver wreaths in their hair and carried silver baskets with flowers. Mrs. Roy H. Mills, matron of honor, was gowned in lavender taffeta and carried yellow asters while Miss Grace Holt, maid of honor, wore yellow taffeta and carried lavender asters.

The bride, who came in with her father, Charles Kent Spaulding, wore a lovely gown of white satin-backed cotton crepe, trimmed with real Brussels lace. Her veil was worn with a slight train and was trimmed with the same pattern of Brussels lace. Her only ornament was a long string of pearls. Frederick Deckbach attended Mr. Griffith. Rev. Ward Willis Long read the marriage service as the couple stood before the improvised altar. The bride carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses, orchids and lilies of the valley.

Following the wedding service a reception was held in the large living room. Mr. and Mrs. Charles K. Spaulding, parents of the bride, and Mrs. J. C. Griffith stood with the bride and groom to receive the guests.

Punch was served on the large porch by Miss Ruth Barnes and Miss Hildah Tillinghast. Catherine Hartley opened the door for the guests, who were directed about the rooms by Miss Virginia Holt and Miss Josephine Albert. Those assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding, Mrs. H. Clifford Spaulding, Mrs. John C. Griffith, Mrs. E. S. Tillinghast, Mrs. C. H. Robertson, Mrs. E. C. Cross and Mrs. Frank Brown.

Supper was served in the billiard room down stairs later in the evening. The bride's table was prettily decorated with clever shades for the candles in yellow and lavender. At the bride's table were the other members of the bridal party and Rev. and Mrs. Ward Willis Long.

The guests were served to a buffet supper at a long table. Those serving were Miss Martha Marshall, Miss Bernice Craig, Miss Clara Britenstein, Miss Amelia Babcock, Miss Edna Von Reardon, Miss Ruth Schultz, Miss Mary Jane Albert, Miss Caroline Starkler, Miss Bess Keebler, Miss Lucille Helmer, Miss Florence Grason, Miss Genevieve Spriggs, Miss Rosa Helne. The bride's mother wore a gown of periwinkle silk crepe with bead trim. Mrs. J. C. Griffith, the groom's mother, was gowned in black velvet and georgette trimmed with steel-cut beads. Both Mr. and Mrs. Griffith are popular young folks in Salem, having attended school here and both going later to Oregon Agricultural college where Mrs. Griffith was graduated last June. She is a member of Alpha Chi Omega.

Mr. Griffith is a son of Mrs. J. C. Griffith and is well known and popular in Salem. He is a member of Phi Delta Theta. They will make their home in a charming new bungalow on Court street, following a short wedding trip.

The gifts, which were many and beautiful, were displayed in one of the rooms on the second floor of the Spaulding home.

A public reception will be given this evening for Miss Mary Schultz in the Commercial club rooms following the concert which she will give jointly with Franklin Launer at the armory. Miss Schultz many friends are invited to attend the reception which is being sponsored by the War Mothers in her honor.

It is partly in the nature of a farewell for her, since she will leave early in the week for New York.

Friends of the W. O. Hawley family have received word of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hawley. Mr. Hawley is a son of Congressman and Mrs. Willis C. Hawley of Salem. Mrs. Kenneth Hawley was a Pennsylvania girl. They live near the large manufacturing plant where Mr. Hawley is employed.

A number of Salem women, members of the Daughters of the American Revolution were hostesses at a pretty luncheon party at the Marion hotel yesterday for members of the Daughters of the War of 1812 who came down to place markers on the graves of two men who are buried in the local cemetery and who fought in the colonial war.

The out of town persons present were Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Riggs, Mrs. Klein and son Robert, all of Portland; Mrs. J. M. Knight, an officer of the Daughters of 1812 and who was in charge of the services; Mrs. John Keating, former state regent of the D. A. R. and also a member of the Daughters of 1812; Mrs. Esther Allen Jones and Mrs. Lulu Crandall of The Dalles and George Himes, president of the Oregon Historical society.

Salem women who were included were Mrs. U. G. Shipley, regent of Chemaketa chapter of the D. A. R., Mrs. Seymour Jones, state committee woman of the D. A. R., Mrs. S. C. Dyer, Mrs. C. C. Clark, Miss Ola Clark, Miss Lillian Applegate.

Mrs. Riggs is a daughter of Leven Nelson English, whose grave was one of those decorated. Mrs. Klein, her daughter and a granddaughter of the colonial hero was accompanied by her small son, Robert, who placed a bouquet of flowers on the grave of his distinguished great grandfather. Mrs. Keating placed white carnations on the grave of John P. Gaines, who also fought in the war of 1812 and was later the first territorial governor of Oregon.

A number of Salem folks were guests at a pretty musicale and dancing party at the home of Mrs. Percy A. Young in Albany last Saturday. Mrs. Bogard Rogers of Los Angeles. Mrs. Young's daughter, gave two groups of vocal numbers and Mrs. William H. Burghardt of Salem gave three groups of piano numbers.

Dancing followed the musicale. The Salem folks who drove over for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Burghardt, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Mr. and Mrs. William Walton, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hofer, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thielsen and Carl Gabrielson.

Mrs. W. H. Lytle has as her guests, her sister, Mrs. Robert N. Stanfield and daughter, Miss Barbara Stanfield, who will be here for a few days before leaving for Washington, D. C., to join Senator Stanfield. Miss Stanfield returns in time for school.

Sport Suits for Young Men
 Better Clothes for Less Money

YOUNG MEN will find Sport Suits, in their deftly developed variation of style lines, in indisputable leadership. The popularity of the model also will be more in evidence among business men who like to "step out a step or two" away from their customary conservatism in dress.

Illustrated here is unquestionably the leader among the styles of Sport Suits. The pictures give both the front and back view. The four patch pockets to button, the straight yoke, the inverted pleat and three-quarter loose belt are all outstanding style-features which give a preference to this model.

In addition to the two and three-button single breasted model, there are double breasted models greatly favored by many; also semi-conservative styles. Choice of wear-resisting cassimeres in blues, grays and browns, club checks, tartan plaids and fancy mixtures. Sizes 35 to 44.
