

Short cuts in sewing, will be shown by demonstrators at the home economics booth at the fair given in the auditorium Friday this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Miss evening at 8 o'clock. This will be Lila ONeal will be in charge. given as a fashion show in a ser-Easy ways to make bound button ies of "reflectioons" the parts holes, quick ways to finish seams taken by 12 models, young coland trim frocks and house dress- lege women who will come over es and other short cuts will be from Corvallis for the occasion. shown by Miss O'Neale who will was given yesterday; by tion upon the glass of fashion. Miss Gertrude Strickland. De- "Tailor-maids caught by the

Mrs. Lulu May Brandt Friday afpopular in dress and which are easily done will be featured at these demonstrations bringing charge. to the women visitors an oppor-

Sunburn and insect bites make you unhappy. MENTHOLATUM cools and soothes and gently heals.

tunity to find out just how it is

"The Glass of Fashion" will be

The first will be that in which have a sewing machine there to "the spirit of the Orient arrives work with. Miss O'Neale is to influence the autumn mode in head of the costume design decolor, line and texture" and will church, Monday, September 25, tion. She had propped the pilbe known as the Shiek. The at 2 p. m. Dr. W. C. Kautner lows behind her, and was gazing A demonstratioon of just how country club scene will feature read; the marriage service. Mr. out of the window at the pines. to make a dress form to fit one- sports apparel casting its reflec- and Mrs. Ackley plan to make With no reference to the trouble monstrations will be given each glass of fashion' and afternoon day during the fair at 2 o'clock. and evening frocks, wraps and ac- Board of Missions of the Pacific brought it to her bedside. Home nursing will be taken up cessories mirror their image in with delegates from Arizona, Calithis afternoon too while Mrs. the glass of fashion will be the fornia, Nevada, Idaho, Utah and calls it a 'lick and a promise!' "I Prentise of the college will talk closing scene. College girls from Washington, wil meet at the First said gayly. on child care Thursday. Mrs. the domestic department at Congregational church in Portland Before she could speak I had es this class at the college and theme of the fashion show which lips, the president of the Oregon I had set the tray. sives a Red Cross first aid class will feature these frocks and board, delivered the address of as well for which certificates are given.

will leature these flocks and board, delivered the address of welcome, and Mrs. H. S. Ranney ly." I said in a coldly professional charge of the exhibit. Local alof San Francisco told of the tone. "I am going away on an er-Batik work will be taken up by college will assist with details of the show while all models are termoon. The things which are students at the college. Miss Breck, and Miss Cole, want to find an absolutely empty Helen McFaul, of the domestic will tell of their work in China, tray. Just push the table away art department is in general Japan and Turkey. Yesterday when you have finished, and go > work which the students are pri- Portland, Mrs. J. T. Richards of which I had carried over with the exhibits. Booths do not contain Tacoma, Miss Cole of Turkey and lic has long associated with In- Mrs. Harold S. Gilbert, the treasdian exhibits, at least not that alone. Dainty bedrooms, simply but immaculately kept, correctly set dining tables in charmingly simply decorated dining rooms, these are the thigs that attract the visitor's eye. The work of the students is

Now Showing

Matinees or Evenings: 50c-25c

Masquerader

Unanimously Acclaimed a Screen Masterpiece by those who have seen this production

A'Motion Picture Triumph!

William Wallace Graham

Soloist and teacher. Nine and a half years' study and teaching in Europe, twelve in Portland. Pupils holding responsible positions in many parts of United States as teachers and soloists. Beginners accepted; coaching in accompanying and ensemble. For appointment call Marion Hotel, Salem, Wednesday, September 6 or any Wednesday or Saturday thereafter. For reference ask any pupil.

shown for the most part in the ic communication with the part of the home it belongs in Brown.

work of the girls in making for Leila was a marvel of daintichildrens clothes including those ness. for the baby are interesting when With some sprays of trailing one reflects on the possible ef- arbutus tucked into the snowy fect on the future life of these napkin which covered it, I hurgirls in their reservation homes, ried across the lawn to the room

Mr. Alfred Ackley and Mrs. utheir home in Polk county.

Katherine Haight will be in the Oregon Agricultural college this week. Mrs. R. C. Kirkwood quickly bathed and dried her charge of the home nursing de-monstration. Mrs. Haight teach-will take the parts of the models. of Palo Alto, Cal., is in charge face and hands and wheeled be-Good taste in dress is the main of the meetings. Mrs. W. H. Phil- side her the low table upon which year's work.

> Mrs. James Lash of Los Angeles to sleep again-unless you'd like presided and the speakers were to read." Mrs. Edward Lincoln Smith of The large exhibit of the Indian Seattle, Mrs. William Parker of Leila Is Given Orders, school is attracting more than the Tacoma, Miss Walker of Foo usual interest at the fair. The Chow, China, Mrs. F. C. Little of vileged to take at the school is Saratoga, Mrs. George Edwards shown in a number of striking of Walla Walla, Mrs. Gulick of the usual exhibits which the pub- Miss Tontz of Africa. Last night urer of the Oregon board, was toastmistress at a banquet at the Sunny Side church.

CHAPTER 132

WHAT BETTY KANE OFFER-ED MADGE

Luncheon was a hurried, abstracted affair with me, so anand not in cases for display alone. Mother Graham must have The rack in the bedroom holds been strictly "on the job", imseveral lovely house gowns, while mediately before function. for the great cupboards of canned the plates on which the lamb fruit and vegetables are in the chops were served piping hot, the kitchen. A chart on the wall chops themselves and the other shows the number of quarts of viands cooked just right-whatfruit and vegetables "saved" at ever Mandy's other faults, her cooking is beyond raproach! And The booth which shows the the tray which the girl prepared > where I had left Leila with the admonition to sleep.

ella Simmerman, both of Salem, That she had obeyed my inthe latter recently from the east, junction I saw from the rested wr quietly married at the parson- look after I kad knocked and had which had sent her :lying to me. I set the tray down, and, dipping The convention of the Women's the end of a towel in some water, rand, so I cannot stay and see you Three missionaries, Miss Walk- eat this, but when I return I tray. Then I stooped and kissed her, fgnoring the trembling of her lips and the entreaty in her eyes.

"I'll be back in a few hours," I said cheerily. "Be a good girl." I was out of the door before she could do more than send a half-expostulating, half-entreating cry of "Madge, wait!" after me. But I pretended not to hear, and sped down the stairs out of earthe reflection that solitude was the one thing the excited, hyster-Adele Garrison's New Phase of thy body, and youth's natural re- Harold Lloyd in "Grandma's Boy" manner that will leave the au- ity, especially interesting for its REVELATIONS OF A WIFE sure that when she had eaten her ment tried their best to get a after "The End" is flashed on the written by Lilian Brandt.

was taking to combat them.

The Stage set For Rita.

utes to reach Beify Kane's little Thursday in "Trooper O'Neil", a shop door again. She was frank- big feature based on life in the ly glad to see me, but gave no North. On the same bill will be hint of the surprise which must another feature that has created riding, sure-shooting, silent and have been hers at my swift re- quite a furore in Salem, "The devilishly ever-present. At the ond time in one day I had found Saturday of every other week are rectly to the point, "I find that it is necessary for me to have a getting the booking moved up one and the nemesis of evildoers. wondered if you could not rent Leather Pushers' is one of the me a room for perhaps an hour, best. Each round is separate a minute. I saw that her keen, gray eyes were weighing me, debating the propriety of granting my request. Evidently what she saw satisfied her, for the next minute she said heartily:

"I cannot rent you a room, but will gladly give you the use of his one." She threw open oldfashioned folding doors to a typical "parlor" of the late Victorian the house," she said. "but they which seldom happens, I am sorcome to it. You may order tea som Bend, one of those slow sary," I smiled at her. "I expect of the way! Harold Lloyd is that he has done good comedy quite a stormy interview though "Grandma's Boy", and his grand- parts in "Human Hearts" and not a noisy one, and I think a ma is Mrs. Anna Townsend, cup of tea would be most fortify- dear old woman 79 years old. Mil- have the goods. We shall wait

She indicated the one on the The theme of "Grandma's Boy" Hughie Mack and a good many wall, and I went to it it, bracing centers about that most cherished others have found that out. with Rita Brown.

(To be continued)

MOVIE GOSSIP

LEAVING THE LIBERTY TONIGHT

HAROLD LLOYD in that Sensational Success "GRANDMA'S BOY"

LIBERTY "Grandma's Boy" with Harold Lloyd. Last time today.

BLIGH Bill Hart in "O'Malley of the Mounted.'

OREGON. Guy Bates Post in "The Masquerader."

GRAND George Walsh and Miriam Cooper in "Serenade."

For Fair Week Although the Liberty theatre he comes out on top. ical girl needed. She had a heal- was not successful in booking bound of spirits, and so I was for all of fair week, the manage- dience laughing hysterically long analysis of the motives of givers. had dawdled a bit over the full weeks booking on it but the magazine, and had drowsed again longest booking that could be seshe would be in the frame of cured was four days, therefore mind in which I wished her to the sensational comedy will close Canadian Northwestern Mounted it's engagement tonight. Sunday Policeman as the hero, portrayed I had taken the precaution to a continuous show was given and by Wm. S. Hart, is "O'Malley of put on a small hat and a sweater the house was jammed from 2 the Mounted," his Paramount's before crossing to the big house. o'clock until 11 p. m. On Mon- picture, which will be shown at Thus equipped, I knew I could day many hundreds were turned the BLIGH , theatre today. Mr. get away without my mothter-in- away; the theatre was packed Hart wrote the story and Lambert law's suspecting that I was not with people. Everybody says it is Hillyer directed and adapted it for with Leila. Mrs. Lukens had al- the biggest movie hit that has the screen. ready showed me a path which ever played in Salem; it is the ed through a neighbor's yard to best laugh show that has ever the street beyond -and a friend- bee ascreened; simply a case of wilds of the western country. Like ly short cut which she often, and laugh for 50 minutes and the fin- a bloodhound, Hart follows his by Dennis H. Stovall. which I now took with the as- ish is absolutely a roar. A very man he is after and the latter surance that even if Mother Gra- fine bunch of short reel subjects saves him from death at the hands Pierce Burton. ham were outdoors with Junior is offered on the same bill and or bandits. she wouldn't see me leaving the this show is the talk of the town place. Without betraying Leila's Those who have seen it say that confidence, I could not tell my it is worth many hours of standmother-in-law about Rita Brown's ing up to see it. Wednesday will disclosures, nor the measures I be the last showing and it is one Men Love", was for two reasons The Livesley hop yard finished pcture that you can't afford to the sensation of Florenze Zieg- picking this week.

program to follow the Lloyd pic- become the bride of Harry Payne They are also drying prunes from It didn't take me many min- ture. Charles Jones will open Whitney's eldest son. day and the cleverest two reel fight picture ever shown, will heartiest laugh out of this picopen with the big Jones feature. ture, the audience or Douglas One or two other reels will also Fairbanks. The picture is not a probably for a much shorter time and distinct and although it is a of a similar idea on the Western She looked at me steadily for bunk serals' where it leads up teckless bravado and daring plantto the climax, and then "Come ed in an atmosphere more faminext week" is flashed on the liar to the American screen pascreen. In "The Leather Pushers" tron. That is what you will see the real fight takes place in every in "The Three Buckaroos," a story round and it is one of the biggest and production by Fred. J. Balhits ever shown on a motion pic- shofer, which is to be given its Harold Lloyd in "Grandma's Boy," his new, pretentious fiveperiod-velvet furniture, "tidies." part comedy showing at LIBERTY 'shell' work" and all the other plays the part of the country boy "This belongs to the people of plainly a serious vein, throughout Burlesqued in "The Trouper." the story, it is nevertheless pure are away just now, and they al- comedy, full of the famous brand ways let me use it when I have of Lloydian humor, and also containing thrills, suspense and rap-"Grandma's Boy" lives in Blosif you wish for yourself and your towns where the Tuesday morning -friend, but it isn't necessary! express arrives Wednesday after- try and become a second Fatty "I think it will be quite neces- noon-if Monday's train gets out Arbuckle. The magazines say ing. Now, may I use your tele- dred Davis is the Boy's sweet- and see. It takes more than fat-ny nerves for the coming tilt of American ideals—courage! Between convulsions of mirth it tearing reliconfidence and the the screen in some big produc-Read the Classified Ads. philosopher of religious or scientific school has ever been able to

Lloyd is the boy, who, all his life, has been gripped by fear. Lynde. One day, after his weakness has been driven very forcibly home to him, and he is filled with shame, his little old-fashioned grand mother tells him a marvelous us. story of how his grandinther, who had distinguished himself in the Louis Couperus. Civil War, overcame his cowardice with the aid of a charm given him by a gypsy.

Grandma gives the Boy the charm, and what he does then is too good to tell. Suffice to say shot. I salved my conscience with Lierty Theatre Offerh Big Stuff that the boy finds that courage is a matter of self-confidence, and

The finale is presented in a

Evan Burrows Fontaine, the beautiful dancer who plays the part of the vampire in "Women feld's Midnight Frolic. Miss Fon-The Liberty has another fine toine forsook the footlights to ing and drying their prune crop.

A cowboy "Muscateers"! Three companions of the range-hardturn. I suspected that the little Leather Pushers". Round 5 will sign of trouble there they sit in morning. shop did not have the patronage be shown Thursday, Friday and the saddles, dissolving into view it deserved, for this was the sec- Saturday. Although Friday and like phantoms from the mists! few weeks with his crother Louis the days that "The Leather Push- moment's notice for a fight or a ers" is shown at the Liberty, the | frolic; defenders of unprotected | ployment at the paper mill in Sa management was successful in womanhood; champions of love initial showing at the BLIGH theatre on Friday and Saturday.

Wornout actors in Outworn Melodramas, Bad Acting in Bad Plays, Everything that Characterwho was afraid. While there is izes the Cheap Road Company is > Ford Sterling to play a prominent Marshall Neiland has signed part in "The Strangers Banquet", with Hobart Bosworth.

The screen needs a fat comedian, so Fatty Karr is going to "Omar The Tentmaker" so he may ness to make a good comedian.

Theda Bara is coming back to us vampires coming feature.

Buster Keaton is noted for his fine crop of prunes this year. He quick wit. The other day a friend is having them dried at Carpenter of his was complaining to Buster that a fine pair of patent leather shoes that he had purspent the summer with her sister. chased a few weeks before had Mrs. A. Coolidge started for Okcracked all over. Buster spoke up lahoma Tuesday. and said: "Oh that's because the patent has expired.

in his fall crops.

Richard Dix is said to have received a tempting offer to go into vaudeville but he thinks that he will stay with the films. His role in "The Christian" is said to be a big success.

The Old Homestead", Theodore application for authority to ap-Roberts took off the old overalls propriate water from one unand switched to monocles and named creek, from Fall creek and pirate's boots to play the part of Nehalem river for locomotive a semi-piratical trader in Thomas supply at points in Columbia and Meighan's "The Man Who Saw Washington county at a cost of Tomorrow."

AT THE LIBRARY

NEW BOOKS

"Fourteen Thousand Miles Through the Air," the story of Smith.

and Telegraph Receivers for Be- development in Coos county.

ginners," by M. B. Sleeper. "Chronicles of Chicora Wood," sketches of her early life in South

Elizabeth W. Alliston Pringle.

"Land Drainage, by W. L. Powers and T. A. H. Teeter. "Pirate's Hope," by Francis

"Small Souls," by Louis Coup-

"Later Life," by Louis Couper-"Twilight of the Souls," by

The above are three of the four titles which make up the series of Books of Small Souls by the most prominent writer of fiction of Ition of 24 acres in Baker county. Holland today.

"One Man in His Time," by Ellen Glasgow.

"How Much Shall I Give?" a view of the whole subject of char-Silhouettes."

poems by Mabel Holmes Parsons. "Collected Poems," by Rupert "Reading from the Apocrypha," by E. H. Blakeney.

"It is to Laugh," a book of games and stunts, by Edna Geister, the author of "Ice Breakers." Boys' Books

"Connie Morgan in the Fur Country," a story of trapping in There is a mystery of real thrill the northwest, by James B. Hen-"Spell of the Shank Kamby,"

"Bob's Hill Trails." by Charles

LIVESLEY NEWS

LIVESLEY, Or., Sept. 23 .-

Carpenter brothers are harvestseveral neighboring orchards. Alice Zielke who had an operation for appendicitis recently is getting strong again. Nolan Phillips and family started for California Wednesday

Clifford Johnston is spending a

Louis Johnston has secured em-

Rev. Earl MvAbee and his wife and small son arrived at the par-for the balance of 1922 and next sonage last Saturday. Rev. Mcyear, so it is a certainty that no Abee will be pastor here in place expense will be spared in the fam. of Rev. E. G. Ranton who has been sent to Gresham, Or. C. D. Query has a large and brothers drier.

William Meier is busy putting

Mrs. S. L. Suprrier who has

Water for Locomotives Is Wanted by Company

The United Railways company of Portland has filed with the After playing an old rube in state engineering department an about $10,000.

> By the city of Forest Grove, covering the appropriation of four second feet from Gates creek, a tributary of Tualenin river to for municipal water supply for the city of Forest Grove, in Washington county.

By Charles W. Smith of Banthe first air flight from London don, covering the appropriation to Australia, told by Sir Ross N. of water from Cut creek and south branch of Cut creek for "Construction" of Radiophone mining purposes, and for power

By the Winona Mineral Springs company of Oak Ridge, covering the appropriation of water from Carolina, descriptive of the so- 148 horsepower in Lane county cial conditions since 1850, by for lighting and power purposes. By Max Arp of Eagene, coverirg the appropriation of water from a spring creek tributary to Willametta river for domestic supply, and for irrigation pur> poses in Lane county. By C. P. Sonnichson of Hood River, covering the appropriation, of water fro moverfidw from the city spring for irrigation of one acre in Hood River county.

By John Hamann of Baker, covering the appropriation of water from Blue Canyon greek, and from Powder river, for arriga-By George Mitchell and Richard Kelly of Boardman, covering the appropriation of water from Columbia river for domestic use in Morrow county. By W. E. Roberts of Portland, covering the appropriation of water from an unnamed spring creek for fish pond purposes in Multnomah county.

> Salem Woolen Mills Store

neuralgic, sciatic and rheumatic pains, headache, backache and all other aches are quickly relieved by

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills

Contain no dangerous habitforming drugs. Why don't you try them?

· Ask your druggist

Special - - - - Fair Week STANDARD GUARANTEE

> 30x31/2 Fabrie $ 7.50 30x3½ Cord

All Factory Firsts

Size. Cords. $10.75 30x31/2 $15.75 32x31/2 $19.25 31x4 $18.50 32x4*18.95 $22.50 $23.50 32x41/ $24.00 33x41/ $24.90 34x41/2 $26.50 35x41/2 34.50 33x5 35.85 35x5 59.6536x6

We Carry Various Standard Makes

Malcom Tire Co.

Commercial & Court Sts., Established 1917