GREAT VOLO IS EVENT WINNER

Some of Most Spectacular Racing in Half Century Seen at Lexington

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 2.—(By The Associated Press)—Some of the most spectacular racing in its 50 years of history was witnessed at the opening day of the golden jubilee meeting of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeder's association here today. The feature event, the Walnut Hall cup, went to Sanford Smalls 4-year-old colt, the Great Volo. The three heats were said to be the fastest ever trotted in the event. The third heat equalled the record set by Anto Guy in 1918.

Peter the Brewer in a hot stretch drive, landed the first heat from Czar Worthy in impressive style, but Cox changed his tactics with the Great Volo in the second and third heats, coming from behind and landed the brother to Peter Volo and Volga in front.

Bitless Racing Brings Crowd to Events Yesterday

CHICAGO, Oct. 2.—Hawthorne's second day of bitless horseracing today found the old, weather-beaten track jammed with "bookies," "touts," "regulars" and other figures in sporting life who were anxious to wager their money on the outcome of the races.

As in by-gone years, a generation and more ago, there were little groups of individuals buzzing each other beneath the stand but no money changed hands so far as could be ascertained by representatives of the state's attorney's office who were present at the track.

Any betting as "oral" and it was hard to obtain evidence. Officials of the Illinois Jockey club expressed pleasure at the size of the crowd, which was given out as 7,000 as against 25,000 admissions Saturday. They said that a continuation of this patronage would assure the return of horse racing.

LAWSON ESTATE GOES TO PIECES

Treasures of Dreamworld Turned Over to Trustees to Satisfy Creditors

SCITUATE, Oct. 2.—The treasures of Dreamworld, the once showy estate of Thomas W. Lawson, which he had turned over to trustees for sale to satisfy his creditors were being tagged today by appraisers.

The proceedings, preliminary to disposition under the auctioneer's hammer on October 12 and 13, marked the latest chapter in the spectacular career of the man who made millions in the stock market. Dreamworld, built on speculative profits, is being sold partly because of speculative losses.

Mr. Lawson, it became known today, suffered not only in the crash of the stock market value in the post war period but lost heavily also in the recent failure of the Boston exchange house of Haskell & Co., which succeeded indirectly the firm of Lawson, Arnold & Co. founded by the author of "Frenzied Finance."

From the main building, Dreamworld hall, and its treasures of paintings, books, rugs, furniture and bric-a-brac and from the smaller buildings the extensive farm machinery and the prized lot of police dogs, the trustees expect to realize upwards of $500,000. In all, it is said, Mr. Lawson spent $3,250,000 on them. His indebtedness is placed at about $225,000 aside from such sums as the courts may hold him liable for in the Haskell failure.

Dreamworld was built originally in 1900, it was understood, to satisfy a wish of Mrs. Lawson.

Liquor Taxes in Sweden Yield Over $32,000,000

STOCKHOLM, Sept. 14.—(By Mail)—Sweden's income from liquor trade taxes during 1922 will be over 121,000,000 kroner, or more than $32,000,000, according to the official reports just published by the liquor control board.

One of the arguments used by Sweden's "wet" in the recent prohibition referendum in Sweden, which resulted in a victory for the anti-prohibitionists, was that in case Sweden went dry there would be a heavy loss of revenue from liquor taxes, and that other commodities might have to be sur-taxed to make up the deficit.
