AUTUMN social activity has taken a decided step forward during the last week with the beginning of the bridge clubs and the plans for the coming winter's social affairs.

The fall dance given annually by the Junior Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church is an event anticipated by Salem society as one of the big social events of the fall season. The date for the dance has been set for October 19.

The instructors in the Salem schools will be entertained at the reception next Friday which is being sponsored by the Business and Professional Women's club. This is the second year that the women of the club have so honored the instructors and the affair, it is anticipated, will be an unusually attractive event. Miss Mirpah Blair is president of the club.

One of the most charming of fall weddings was that of Miss Odell Savage and Merrill Ohling which took place yesterday at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. Mark Savage. Rev. Ward Willis Long officiated at the marriage service which was read under an archway formed of ferns and delicately shaded asters.

The rooms of the Savage home were lavishly decorated with quantities of asters in shades of lavender, shell pink and white. Mrs. Ethel Thomas Gittings played the wedding march and accompanied Miss Ethel McGilchrist who sang "At Dawning."

The bride was charmingly gowned in an imported model of silk crepe trimmed with crystal beads and embroidery. Her full length veil was edged with silver and was worn with a wreath of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of Cecil Bruner roses, bride's roses and sweet peas.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mark Savage. The only attendants were tiny Julia Johnson, ring bearer and Floyd Smith as page. The ring bearer was frocked in a dainty dress of pink over white while the page wore a white costume. He held the bride's bouquet during the wedding ceremony.

A reception was held following the wedding at which more than 50 guests were present. College friends of the bride assisted in serving. They were Miss Ina Moore, Miss Gladys Nichols, Miss Mary Paroungan, Miss Florence Howe, Miss Estelle Satchewell. The young couple have gone on a short wedding trip to northern points and will be at home to their friends later in the month at their new bungalow on South High street.

Mrs. Ohling was graduated from Willamette university in 1920 and later took post graduate work at Wellesley where she did distinguished work in dramatic composition. Her drama "Joan" was awarded special award that year in the east.

Mr. Ohling is employed with Homer Smith in Salem. He was graduated from Willamette in 1920 and formerly lived in Albany. He is a member of Sigma Tau. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Ohling have recently moved from Albany to Salem.

Dr. and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney entertained at the annual reception for the faculty members of the university Friday evening. Cardinal and gold, the college colors, were used in the decorations through the rooms of the Doney home. Zinnias and marigold were used to accomplish the blending of the college colors.

Music and informal discussions of vacation experiences were a pleasant form of social entertainment during the evening.

The wedding of Miss Gladys Dimler and Cyril Suing will be held Monday at 9 o'clock at St. Joseph's church. Miss Dimler is a daughter of Mrs. Margaret Dimler and has been the inspiration for a number of affairs during the last few weeks. Mr. Suing is a son of Mrs. Josephine Suing and is employed at the Salem Bank of Commerce.

Miss Leah Suing and Francis Walsh will be the attendants at the wedding Monday. Rev. J. R. Buck will officiate.

Mrs. Theo. M. Barr was hostess at a pretty party honoring Miss Dimler Wednesday evening. More than 40 guests enjoyed the evening affair which was in the nature of a shower.

The rooms of the Barr home were pretty with bright hued
