

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Bohler Sees Game—Coach Roy Bohler of Willamette went over to Corvallis to see the O. A. C. Pacific game, Saturday. He says that Pacific has a well-finished team that plays a fine brand of football, and that the Aggies were lucky to hold the long end of the score. The game was not spectacular from the spectators' point of view, though it was a good exhibition of dogged determination and consistent playing.

Roast Duck—Or Chicken Dinner served all day at the Gray Belle.—Adv.

Candy Day Special—Saturday, Oct. 14, Krauses' Milk chocolates, $1 per box at the Little Lady's Little Store.

Tourists Number 2810—Tourists registering at the local auto camp grounds during the present season have numbered more than 2800. This includes only the single registration, while many of those registering in this manner remain for several days. The number of tourists who have returned to Salem for a second time during the season, has been unusually large. The conveniences provided by the local camp are appreciated by the travelers who come from almost every state in the union. California and Washington are claimed as home by the greater number of tourists after Oregon which ranks first.

Card of Thanks—The family of the late Scott A. Riggs desire to express their deepest appreciation for the many kindnesses shown—in their great sorrow and loss, Mrs. S. A. Riggs, Mr. and Mrs. Zadoc J. Riggs, Mrs. Fannie and Margaret Mulkey.—Adv.

Chicken Dinner—Served all day at The Spa.—Adv.

All A Mistake—A misinterpreted advertisement has brought a whole sheaf of letters to the Salem Chamber of Commerce. A florist at Salem, Ohio, advertised his place for sale, but instead of saying Ohio, he used only the initial letter, Salem, O. A greenhouse man at Holdrege, Nebraska, understood it to mean Salem, Ore., and he has been bombarding the office with letters of inquiry. He likes the map, the climate, the trees, the people, the mountains, everything that Oregon has to offer and he wants to buy that greenhouse and floral business—in Oregon.

Miss Helen Bode—Representing Prof. Shaw's cut lace embroidery class at Miller's store will continue to teach all next week.—Adv.

One Marriage License—Only one marriage license was issued on Saturday, from the office of the Marion county clerk. It was for Benjamin A. Baker and Emma Hendricks.

Chicken Dinner—Served all day at The Spa.—Adv.

Hobble in and See—Dr. S. F. Scott, S. C., 301-302 Masonic bldg., and you will dance out, your foot troubles over and forgotten. Phone 640 for appointment.—Adv.

Divorce Is Sought—Nellie Oakes has filed a suit for divorce against William Oakes, whom she says is in Kelseyville, Cal. Cruelty and non-support are alleged as the principal causes for the action.

Hobble in and See—Dr. S. F. Scott, S. C., 301-302 Masonic bldg., and you will dance out, your foot troubles over and forgotten. Phone 640 for appointment.—Adv.

Broken Arches—And other deformities of the feet corrected without loss of time from your occupation. Drs. White and Marshall, U. S. Bank bldg.—Adv.

Ballots With Printer—With the Marion county ballots already in the hands of the printer, there will be no new candidates on the ticket except as they are written in. The completed copy was delivered by County Clerk Boyer, Friday morning, and the ballots themselves will soon be returned to him for sending out to the precinct officers.

Neighbors of Woodcraft—Neighbor Burns funeral, Monday, 2 p. m. from Clough's, Guardian Neighbor.—Adv.

Luncheon Monday—Special attention is called to the first grand opening dinner of the new Salem Chamber of Commerce, Monday noon. It's the same old place, the same old price, the same perfection salads and things, and partly the same old people; but there will be new folks there, too, and the name is the newest thing in Salem since it was changed from the Salem Commercial club, Wednesday night. Most of the literary section will be given to local speakers, for a symposium on Chambers of Commerce in general. All are invited.

Card of Thanks—We desire to thank our friends and neighbors for the beautiful floral gifts, and for their kind assistance in the care and burial of our husband and brother, Mrs. D. W. Cummings, W. L. and G. L. Cummings.—Adv.

Chicken Dinner—Served all day at The Spa.—Adv.

Holland Bulbs—Chrysanthemums, carnations, and all kinds of potted flowers for immediate delivery. We specialize in funeral designs. Plant Flower Shop, 185 South Commercial. Phone 471. We deliver.—Adv.

Suspect Held—T. T. Westfall was arrested by the Salem police Saturday, and is being held to answer satisfactorily several questions. He has a ten-thousand dollar moustache, a bank's worth of diamonds either genuine or near, a front like Wallingford in his palmest day—and he has a $2000 Studebaker car that he tried to sell for $500, which aroused the police suspicions. The police say that he was registered at the Portland hotel in Portland as T. T. Westfall; at the Multnomah as W. E. Braungnell; at the Benson as T. B. Thomas, and that's as far as they have gotten—yet. They are dragging the country for more information that Westfall has not yet made public.

Laura Grant, Teacher of Piano—268 N. Cottage. Phone 1709J.—Adv.

Card of Thanks—We wish to thank the many friends for their sympathy and assistance during the illness and following the death of the late Ira A. Davis, husband and father, Mrs. Mary Davis and family.—Adv.

Attend Convention—"A wonderful High Y is in progress at Silverton," is the report brought late last night by Secretary Kells of the Salem Y, after spending Saturday with the convention. It is breaking all records for attendance, from all over Marion county. The Salem high school delegates were: Arthur Hamilton, Benoit McCroskey, Kenneth Perry, Claire Tucker and Russell Pratt. All these delegates went on Saturday, and stayed over night for the second day. Gorge Rhoten is to go over this morning. Vernon Sackett and a number of Willamette students also attended. Secretary Kells, Boys' Secretary Meade Elliott, and Luther J. Chapin, president of the Marion county High Y club, attended the sessions Saturday, driving back to Salem late last night.

Financial—Write Warren Armington, 248 North Summer street for information regarding the new apartment house to be built on Tjelson lot, corner Court and Capitol St. Stock will pay 17 per cent. Salem will have president and treasurer. Quick action if you want A-1 investment.—Adv.

Salem Floral & Nursery Co.—Flowers for all occasions. Store in Masonic Temple.—Adv.

Trusses—Fitted at Tyler's Drug Store by an expert in the business.—Adv.

Chicken Dinner—Served all day at The Spa.—Adv.

Dismissal Asked—In an answer filed Saturday the Associated Oil company asks dismissal of the injunction proceedings brought by the city of Portland against the company and Sam A. Kozler, secretary of state, to prevent the state's collection of a tax on gasoline. The city of Portland avers that the tax is unconstitutional.

Candy Special—Today Krauses' Milk chocolates, $1 per box at the Little Lady's Little Store.

Candy Day Special—Saturday, Oct. 14, Krauses' Milk chocolates, $1 per box at the Little Lady's Little Store.

Lieutenants Wanted—Second Lieutenants of the regular army will be selected at Camp Lewis during the week beginning October 23. A special board has been appointed to examine candidates, and young men between the ages of 21 and 30 will have the opportunity of filling the vacancies now awaiting for the qualified applicant. The war department is endeavoring to fill the existing vacancies in the army as soon as practicable after January 1, 1923, and it is considered that those young men who take advantage of the present opportunity to take the examination for commission in the army will be particularly favored by an early appointment.
