Nurse Who Waited on Mother Never Saw Twins, But Tells Officers She Thought They Were Real.

DARKENED CHAMBER CAUSE OF SUSPICION

Daughter-in-Law Stands by Plaintiff in Unusual Hammond Affair

HAMMOND, Ind., Oct. 18.—Testimony that dolls occupied the bed thought by her husband to contain the twins which Frank McNally declared were born to his wife, who he charges murdered them, was given by a neighbor, Mrs. Agnes Sphirmer at the preliminary hearing in municipal court today of Mrs. Hazel McNally.

Mrs. Mary Griffith, a nurse and neighbor who cared for Mrs. McNally, said that the latter would not let anyone handle the babies. Pair Kept in Dark The fact that the twins were always kept in a darkened room aroused suspicions of neighbors, Mrs. Sphirmer testified. When she spoke to Mr. McNally about it, she continued, he gave her permission to visit the home in the absence of the wife. The witness said that when she entered the room and drew back the coverlet on the bed occupied by the twins, she saw two large dolls.

The nurse said that she was called to the McNally home two days after the twins were said to have been born.

BOOTH AND COLLINS GIVE $100,000 EACH AND MR. DAY $5000

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 18.—Gifts aggregating $205,000 to Willamette university of Salem, were announced here tonight following a meeting called to discuss plans for conducting a campaign for $1,250,000 endowment for the institution. The campaign dates have been set for November 20 to December 20. R. A. Booth of Eugene, and F. S. Collins of Portland each gave $100,000 today, and J. W. Day of Portland gave $5,000.

The gifts mentioned above really bring the amount now subscribed for the Willamette endowment fund up to $555,000. The Rockefeller foundation has agreed to contribute $350,000 to the university fund. This, however, is contingent upon a total of $1,000,000 being subscribed.

COON KEEPS NORTH SALEM ON QUI VIVE

W. N. Woodyry Buys One to Train His Dog: It Leads Them Very Merry Life

Citizens living in the vicinity of North Capitol and Madison streets have found life much more exciting the last few days than formerly. First came the boom incident to the opening of North Capitol and now comes W. N. Woodyry with his fox hounds and coon to relieve the dull moments incident to suburban life.

Hunting is Mr. Woodyry's favorite pastime and in company with his good friend Albert Taylor, they have recently made several expeditions to the jungles in search of game. They have four fox hounds and one pointer. To help train the dogs, a few days ago Mr. Woodyry bought a coon. Last evening Messrs. Wood-

PROHI LAW TO STAND, AVERS MR. HARDING

Country Will Never Depart from Eighteenth Amendment, Says President to Christian Workers.

FULL DUTY TO WORLD ADMINISTRATION IDEAL

Better Results Possible for Sunday Schools, Says Hugh S. Magill

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—President Harding was quoted by delegates to the conference of allied Christian societies who called upon him at the White House tonight just before the close of their two-day meeting as declaring that the nation, in his opinion, would never depart from the 18th amendment.

The president, the delegates said, expressed his further belief that the country, in its international relations, should do its utmost for the rest of the world.

Fred B. Smith Speaks

The president greeted the delegates in his study and listened to an address made on their behalf by Fred B. Smith, chairman of the conference, who said the conference was interested in two things, enforcement of the 18th amendment and the exercise of America's full duty to the rest of the world.

These two subjects were said to have been the basis of the president's response. He was quoted as saying that it had been found difficult to carry out the provisions of the 18th amendment and the prohibition enforcement act in some of its minor details inasmuch as it was the administration's opinion that the law followed in every respect the flag.

However, he added, progress was being made along lines of enforcement and the country, he

MEMORIAL TO SAM SIMPSON IS ANNOUNCED

Funds Will be Received on Friday, Nov. 10, Birth anniversary of Poet

The Samuel L. Simpson Memorial association has set apart Friday November 10, as the time for raising funds to erect a monument to the Oregon poet. Samuel L. Simpson was born on November 10, 1845 in the state of Missouri. He was brought by his parents to Oregon in 1846 and died in Portland on June 14, 1900.

Simpson was one of the early pioneers of Oregon. He was a graduate of Willamette university in the class of 1866. He was admitted to the bar as a practicing attorney in 1867.

The association wishes all persons throughout the state consisting of pioneers, alumni and students of Willamette university and those who admire Simpson's poetry and believe in honoring a poet and literary character such as Sam Simpson was to assist in raising funds for his monument on this date.

The money collected can be sent to A. N. Bush, the banker of Salem and the treasurer of this association.

If it is practical to do so, the association would recommend also that literary exercises be held in every county of the state suitable for such an event as Sam Simpson's birthday.—P. H. D'Arcy is president of the association and Lillian M. Hackleman, secretary.

RACES MIXED

VANCOUVER, Wash., Oct. 18.—Shinsoichi Miyagawa, a Japanese, and Miss Regina A. R. Freeman, who said she was a Cherokee Indian, arrived here today from Salt Lake City, obtained a marriage license and were married by a justice of the peace.

BOY INJURED

HEPPNER, Ore., Oct. 18.—Philip Mahoney, 15-year-old son of W. P. Mahoney, cashier of the First National Bank of Heppner, received serious injuries today while hunting pheasants. His gun was discharged accidentally and the charge tore away the muscle of his right arm and a few shots penetrated his ear.

HE PUT SPIDER AND BUG INTO MILK BOTTLES TO GET REVENGE, SAYS HIS SIGNED CONFESSION

ELEVEN LOTS IN ADDITION SOLD

Contract Made for Abstracts to Be Delivered on Flat Rate Basis

Eleven lots have been sold in the Highway addition to Salem, and many other buyers are hesitating only while deciding which location to choose. Those who have not picked out their homes in this newest part of Salem, can soon do so from official blue prints. Those are to be made up at once, and distributed to the stores, banks and other business houses of the city, so that everybody can know just what the property looks like. Some of the sales committee will be on the ground every evening, from 5 o'clock onward, to assist applicants in finding just what they want and some one will be there all Sunday afternoon for the same purpose. They want to sell them all quickly.

Paul Schindler of Salem has made himself and a lot of other people a lot of trouble. For the questionable pleasure of revenge he has laid himself liable to a three-year term in the penitentiary, a $1,000 fine, and to be thrown out of the United States as an undesirable citizen. All because he put a spider and some other things into the milk.

Schindler was last spring an employe of the Fairmount dairy on South Commercial street. Following disagreement in which he was discharged, he found work with another Salem firm where it is understood that he bought a partnership interest. But he held the idea of harming the men for whom he had formerly worked.

Grain Handlers on Some Docks Join With Strikers

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 18.—Grain handlers on some docks today joined with the striking longshoremen. Most of the docks reported only a small number of men as having walked out, but one dock, the Columbia lost a considerable portion of its help.

Fourteen vessels were working cargo today and the neutral hiring hall reported that about two-thirds of the requirements for longshore help were being met.

Followed the Wagon He did this in a curious but effective way.

Following the trail of the milk delivery wagons in the early morning, according to his own confession, he opened the Fairmount dairy bottles in one place and put a handful of street dirt into each bottle. At another place he put in a bug, at another a spider and spider web, and at some places he carried away the cream bottles that had been left. Reports were made to the dairy that their product was altogether bad. They put on a system of sleuthing and found who was doing the work.

Schindler confronted with some of the evidence, gave a signed confession before District Attorney Carson as to what he had done. When brought before Judge Unruh Wednesday he was released on his own recognizance for a hearing on the charge of malicious injury to property. He will have a hearing shortly.

Penalty Severe The penalty for conviction on such a charge is severe. It may be from six months to three years in the penitentiary, or from three to 12 months in the county jail, or a fine from $50 up to $1000.

Schindler only two weeks ago made application for American citizenship. He came from Switzerland two years ago. Under the new immigration laws passed in 1921, as explained by Inspector Bonham of the federal bureau when he lectured before the Kiwanis club of Salem Tuesday, Schindler might be deported for any crime of which he is convicted within five years after his coming to the United States. This is an additional punishment after he serves the court sentence for the offense itself.

Schindler is not related to the Schindler Brothers, former proprietors of the Fairmount dairy, who still run their dairy farm on the River road south of Salem.

OVER 300 I. W. W. NABBED LAST NIGHT; OTHERS ARE WARNED TO STAY AWAY

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 18.—More than 300 alleged members of the I. W. W. had been arrested here up to 8:30 o'clock tonight, following the issuance of orders to the police to round up all men having membership cards of that order in their possession.

Among those arrested was William Ford, who has been directing the longshoremen's strike here.

Reports received by county and city law enforcement officers that thousands of members of the I. W. W. were on their way here to participate in and extend, if possible the longshoremen's strike now in progress resulted in tonight's action.

The city council passed an emergency ordinance today appropriating $10,000 for employment of special police officers on the waterfront. Seventy-five of them were put on duty at once. Within the ensuing three hours scores of alleged I. W. W. were arrested on the dock picket lines and at various other places. About 50 were taken as they got off of incoming trains. Every man who had an I. W. W. card was put in jail.

District Attorney Stanley Myers said he had information that a general invasion of Portland by radicals had been planned.

Mayor George L. Baker tonight issued a statement to the public, saying in part:

"With the outbreak of a general I. W. W. strike on the water-

MR. HAWLEY URGES REPUBLICAN PARTY VICTORY IN OREGON

MEDFORD, Ore., Oct. 18.—Before a large audience here tonight Representative Hawley opened the Republican campaign in Jackson county and his own campaign for reelection. At the same time he will talk in behalf of national Republican policies. His program will keep him on the road throughout the western district of Oregon and for a short time in Washington until after November 1.

In tonight's audience were Republican delegations from Ashland and other towns of Jackson county. Mr. Hawley arrived here this afternoon after having spent the day in Ashland in conference with Republican leaders. This noon at the Ashland hotel he was the honored guest at luncheon of prominent Republicans of that city.

Following his speech and visit here he will spend tomorrow at Grants Pass and speak there at night. Friday will be spent in Roseburg and Saturday in Eugene, with addresses both places.

Mr. Hawley expressed confidence that the Republican party in Oregon would be victorious at the polls generally on November 7.

In his address tonight he held that to continue the Republican party in power was essential to the welfare of the people of the nation; asserted that that could only be done by the party presenting a united front everywhere and that Oregon would be found doing its duty.
