AGGIES TO PLAY U. OF W. SATURDAY

O. A. C. Rooks Are Slated to Play Chemawa Indians on Bell Field

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Oct. 19.—Varsity and rook teams are working hard in preparation for the games Saturday. The varsity will meet the Huskies at Seattle and the rooks will play Chemawa on Bell field.

Arrangements have been made to start the Rook-Chemawa game at 1 o'clock in order to give the students a chance to see and then watch the score board for the results of the Washington game.

Some of the varsity men who have been on the shelf for a week or more are turning out again and by Saturday the coaches hope to be able to use them. Those who have had the influenza are still too weak to do much scrimmaging work but they all seem to be anxious to get a chance at Washington, it is reported.

The rooks paid a high price for their victory over Columbia last Saturday, if the 1st of injured could be used as an indication. J. D. L. Kint had to turn in his suit on account of a weak heart, J. M. Gibson is laid up with a broken nose, Verne Collier had an arm thrown out, Sigrist dislocated his shoulder, Moss has a bad charlie horse, and Price, first string quarterback, is hobbling around with a sore foot.

Coach Hubbard has not decided who will start the game Saturday, but says that the rooks will win.

Coach Mathews has armed his men with several plays arranged especially for Washington State. The Cougars have trained hard this week, following their close call Saturday when a lone dropkick saved them

ADVANCE DOPE IS FOR WASHINGTON

Oregon Aggies Much Outweighed When They Go Against Seattle Team

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Oct. 19.—Advance dope on the U. of W. O.A.C. football game, gives Washington the long end of the score by three touchdowns, but Coach Rutherford is from Missouri, when speaking of dope.

Rutherford's team has a slight handicap in being outweighed at least 15 pounds to the man on the line and possibly more in the backfield. This is not worrying from a tie score with Gonzaga University.

Into the Pendleton, Ore., game Oregon will send a team which is still crippled but which will be strengthened somewhat by the return to the eleven of Chapman and Gram, two backs, and Parsons, a lineman, Oregon, despite its infirmities is expected to win tomorrow for Whitman dropped a game to Idaho earlier in the season.

WHITMAN TAKES 2 TEAMS ALONG

Line-up in Game With Oregon Today Not Definitely Decided Upon

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Oct. 19.—Two complete teams and several additional substitutes will be taken to Pendleton from Whitman college tomorrow morning for the "battle of the century" tomorrow afternoon against the University of Oregon football warriors.

Despite the fact that a large number of men are being taken on the trip, it is thought that the same eleven who played the game through against the University of Idaho will be the ones who will be called upon to act against the Lemon-Yellow squad.

Salem District Laymen and Ministers Promote Willamette Campaign

"We'd never feel happy if we didn't project our life into the future, in the lives of the young men and women whom Willamette university is sending out as graduates," was the story told by an 80-year-old couple.

They live in a little house, worth perhaps $500. They have $4,000 in other property. The home they are keeping "selfishly," perhaps. The other holdings they are dividing 50-50 with the university, and their check will be for $2,000.

Spirit Spells Success That's the spirit with which the friends of Willamette university are going into the campaign for an adequate endowment, and for better immediate facilities to care for the students now crowding the institution. The delegation of visiting ministers and laymen met to perfect their district organization, Thursday, with delegates from as far down the valley as Eugene. The Oregon conference has been divided into the four superintendents' districts, and this is the last of the four to hold its meeting.

Addresses Heard In the afternoon Dr. John W. Hancher of Chicago gave an address on the need of such schools as Willamette. Dr. W. A. Smith, the head of the endowment campaign committee outlined the plan of work that is to be followed in the campaign now on. A number of one-minute talks were made on the university problems.

Sunday, October 22, will be "Launching Sunday," when the campaign, its need and its appeal, is to be presented from every Methodist pulpit in Oregon. The campaign will be finished in two months from this date.

EMERALD CASE OF BIG SCOPE

Many Intricacies Enter Into Problem of Seizing Booze Smugglers

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Representations of the British government to the state department in protesting against seizure beyond the three-mile limit of the Canadian schooner Emerald, held as a liquor smuggling suspect, were of wide scope it was learned today, than at first known.

In addition to dealing with the specific case of the Emerald, the British communication presented the view that the recent American executive order limiting prohibition enforcement operations to territorial waters should apply to all previous seizures of British craft where it had not been established as a matter of fact that the vessel was sending contraband ashore in her own boats.

The American answer to this claim that the government's present policy should have retroactive effect and automatically release a considerable number of British vessels seized as smugglers will be deferred until official data as to the Emerald case is at hand.

CORN SHOW IS COUNTY PLAN

Exhibit in Salem in December Voted at Federation Meeting Last Night

Eight communities were represented at the Marion County Federation meeting at the Chamber of Commerce last night. A number of women were in attendance from Silverton, Mount Angel, Sunnyside, and other communities. President George Hubbs of Silverton was not able to attend because of illness in his family.

A. M. Fuikerson of Salem Heights presided in his stead, and Joseph Keber of Mount Angel served as secretary. Donald Marvin, song leader, loaned by the Portland Community Service association, gave the crowd some exceptionally good community singing. His accompanist was Miss Louise Findley of Salem. The crowd gave them a hearty vote of thanks.

Corn Show Proposed

A corn show for Marion county is quite definitely in sight as one result of last night's meeting. Joseph Keber, Luther J. Chapin and Harley White, all of them authorities on agricultural conditions, told of the exceptional corn that was grown here the past year, the best in the valley's history, they agreed; and they urged that a corn show be instituted. This was voted upon, to be looked after by the agricultural committee. Secretary Duncan of the Chamber of Commerce is to hunt for a place to hold the show in Salem, and it is to be arranged for, if possible, about the second week in December.

Duryea Main Speaker

Morris J. Duryea, of the State Chamber of Commerce, was the principal speaker. He was loaned last year to the Pilgrim Ter-Centennial at Plymouth Rock, and he used the marvelous story of the Pilgrims and their influence as his text. He urged that the lessons they inculcated, of frugality, industry, education, civic responsibility be perpetuated here in the west, where the last great trek of the Pilgrim blood was made. He urged a better spirit of cooperation, a widening of the frontiers of sociability and of business fraternity.

Speaker is Interesting

Duryea is an attractive speaker, and his address was listened to with marked interest. He is in Salem to remain for several days, to assist in the Chamber of Commerce drive next week. A light lunch was served to the guests, at the close of the literary program. It was a rainy night, but that did not change the spirit of friendly welcome that prevailed all through the meeting.
