

LIQUOR BAN IS EFFECTIVE AT 12 LAST NIGHT

Requests for Further Extension of Preparatory Time Not Approved by United States Officials.

AMERICAN SHIPS DRY UPON THE SEVEN SEAS

Foreigners Can be Checked up Only Within Three-Mile Limit

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Provisions of the liquor statutes, held by Attorney General Daugherty to prohibit transportation and sale of alcoholic beverages on American vessels anywhere and on foreign vessels within three miles of the United States coast, became effective tonight at midnight.

The extension of time ordered by President Harding to permit ship lines to arrange their affairs to conform to the ruling, expired at midnight and enforcement officials declared suggestions for a further extension had not been approved.

Instructions Delayed

It was considered probable that several days would elapse before customs and prohibition forces would have at hand specific instructions as to the scope of their authority under the Daugherty opinion, but this, it was declared, would have no effect on the operation of the law. A foreign vessel, sailing with inhibited cargo after today, it was said, would be liable to the penalties fixed by the Volstead act if and when she entered American coastal waters bearing that cargo.

American Ban Complete

American ships, under the ruling of the attorney general which received the formal approval of President Harding are prohibited from possessing liquor regardless of where they are in operation. The ban was made operative as to shipping board tonnage as soon as the ruling was published though time was allowed for the disposal of any illicit stocks on board vessels of the fleet then at sea.

Enforcement officials are hopeful for a decision coming from the federal court in New York, where the new interpretation of the law is under fire by both foreign and American lines—before the arrival of a vessel in violation of the ban necessitates punitive action against the ship, the agents and her master, as required by law.

Crisis at Midnight

It is pointed out that only vessels which clear from foreign ports after midnight tonight come within the restrictions, thus giving a further "automatic stay" of from five to seven days in the cases of most ships on the regular Atlantic routes, and of an even longer period with respect to ships crossing the Pacific.

Reversal Expected

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Steamship company officials were confident today that Federal Judge Learned Hand would make public his decision Monday on their suits to enjoin permanent enforcement of the Daugherty ruling, forbidding foreign and American ships from entering or leaving American harbors carrying liquor under seal.

Meanwhile federal prohibition enforcement agents here are restrained from enforcing the federal ruling until Judge Hand's decision expires, it was said.

The request of the defense to be allowed to inspect and copy the grand jury notes was denied.

NOMINEES AT SILVERTON IN FUNNY FLIGHT

They Forgot To File Acceptances of Nomination and May Not Get On Ballot

SILVERTON, Ore., Oct. 21.—(Special to The Statesman.)—Considerable excitement has been current for the past week at Silvertown due to the failure on the part of men nominated at primary elections for city offices to file acceptance in the county clerk's office.

According to Oregon state laws officers receiving nominations at primary elections must file acceptance within 40 days prior to general election or forfeit their names upon the official ballot.

A signed receipt was received from County Clerk Boyer's office saying that the present officials were blameless as all election results were forwarded according to law.

This is the first time Silvertown election has come under the general election laws and this is said to be the probable cause for the neglect.

The attorney general has the say of whether or not the nominees shall be permitted to have their names written on the ballot. It is said that if this is refused the old officers may be retained.

MAN HANGED BY HIS HEELS

Murilla Gagged, Bound, Suspended Head Down, Robbed; Brutes Caught

SALINAS, Cal., Oct. 21.—Zolla Murilla who said he is a business man of Casper, Wyo., today was held up, bound, gagged, hanged by his heels from the limb of a tree over a creek bed near the highway between Salinas and San Juan and robbed by two men.

While hanging helpless from the tree limb Murilla alleges the two men tried to make their escape in his automobile after robbing him of $115 in currency and $200 in travelers' checks and a watch and other valuables.

A passing motorist heard Murilla's groans and took him down from the tree and then hastened to notify the police. Traffic officer Harry Elasho of Salinas overtook the two men who gave their names as Joseph Somers and Walter Walton.

District Attorney Worth said tonight the two men confessed.

Young, Des Moines, surrendered himself, pleaded guilty and furnished bond of $250. The other four men for whom warrants have been issued have arranged to surrender Monday, the inspectors said tonight.

The 34 are all the mail theft cases which will be presented to the federal grand jury which convenes October 31, Inspector C. H. Glenn, in charge of the investigation said tonight.

Killing of Chancellor Fails of Accomplishment

BERLIN, Oct. 21.—This was the day set for the assassination of Chancellor Wirth, but he was still living and happy tonight, and a young man said by the police to have informed them of the plot remained imprisoned at Hagen in the province of Westphalia.

According to the information which the police said he gave them voluntarily, the murder was to have been carried out in the same manner as the assassination of the late foreign minister Rathenau. The youth was publicly reported to have said that an organization sworn to bring about the assassination of the chancellor hired him to do it, and that he accepted the engagement, but from the beginning never intended to keep his word.

LOYD GEORGE DECLINES TO UNCOVER HAND

Late Premier of Britain Defends Administration But Speaks Only Vaguely of Future Affairs.

FLAYING OF ENEMIES CAREFULLY AVOIDED

Little Welshman Declares He Will Be Worthy of Confidence Given Him

LEEDS, Oct. 21.—(By the Associated Press.)—In a characteristic speech before a sympathetic audience today, David Lloyd George defended his administration but refrained from revealing his program. He spoke strongly of the past, but vaguely of the future. Apparently his plans are not yet formed, or he feels that the time is not ripe for disclosing them.

He promised the people that whatever the future might bring, he would do nothing mean or paltry, declaring: "I will play no part that is unworthy of the confidence placed in me by the people of this country at the greatest moment in the empire's history."

Crime Against Nation Seen

Mr. Lloyd George did not say specifically that it was not his purpose to lead the Liberal body. He did refrain, as at Manchester, from endorsing Austen Chamberlain's pronouncement that the Labor party was a menace to the country. After reviewing the achievements of his government in war and peace, and particularly holding up its success in restoring Great Britain's commercial prestige, he exclaimed: "And they have smashed the combination that has pulled through our trade, our commerce, and our credit throughout the world. It is a crime against the nation."

He voiced a warm tribute to his chancellors of the exchequer, Mr. Chamberlain and Sir Robert Stevenson Horne, and paid his compliments to the anti-waste buty, declaring that its leaders gave no help when it came to enforcing specific economies. He passed over lightly the word "revolution," which is the spear point of Mr. Chamberlain's attack on labor and asserted that the government had dealt successfully with industrial crises and now had got peace throughout the industrial world.

Americans Approved

One of his "keenest" phrases was: "We are just beginning to look the dollar in the face on equal terms," after claiming the approach of sterling exchange toward normal as one of the most important works of the government.

Enthusiasts recently accused the retiring premier of coldness toward the league of nations, but he eulogized that as another of the government's great works. He had good words for the Washington agreement and for the Unionists who cooperated in the Irish settlement.

A typical passage was:

"Education for the people; housing difficulties; disarmament; peace with Ireland; more liberty in India; these are not things that sound well in Mayfair, and they have no special appeal in Belgravia. It is really cheerful to know that when you have been spending your strength as I have for years in trying to serve your country, you are not forgotten the first time a resolution is passed against you at a Westend club."

Personalities Avoided

Characteristic as the speech was as far as it went, it lacked personalities, which usually give spice to Mr. Lloyd George's platform appearances. He had no hard words for his enemies. Mr. Bonar Law has been a friend, and was still his friend. He declared that no one who might possibly join in the Georgian caravan could be offended by anything he said today.

In the morning, accompanied by several members of parliament, Mr. Lloyd George laid a wreath at the foot of the Leeds war memorial; then lunched with the lord mayor at the town hall before the ceremony of conferring the freedom of the city. His arrival at the hall, accompanied by Mrs. Lloyd George and their daughter, Meghan, was a signal for an outburst of enthusiasm

ROAD LEVIES TO BE VOTED IN DISTRICTS

November 4 is Date Set For Special Balloting in Marion County Sections

Judge Bushey of the county court has just finished posting the notices for special road tax elections in which the Marion county road districts that wish to vote special levies for highway improvements. The elections will be held November 4.

There are about 100 road districts in the county, all of which have the privilege of spending a lot of money for roads if they so desire. Most of them do so elect, and they vote their wisher at these special elections. This year, there are 29 districts, or almost one-third of all in the county, that will vote on the matter though not all these elections may vote favorably. The bonds can be up to 10 mills and some of them do run that high though usually they stop at about 5 mills, according to the court reports.

BOY OF 17 IS SLAYER

William Robert Lynch Declares That Thomas McCormick Picked on Him

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 21.—William Robert Lynch, 17, was charged with murder tonight. The police said the boy had confessed to killing Thomas J. McCormick, 16, last night, because McCormick had "picked on" him.

Lynch, according to the police, said there had been a grudge between him and McCormick. Last night they met in the lavatory of a motion picture theatre and resumed the quarrel.

Lynch is said to have declared that McCormick threw a knife at him whereupon he drew a revolver and fired five times.

Proposed Estimates Approved for 1923 at Meeting of Committee

Six more firemen are to be added to the present force of 14 men, according to the recommendations of the official city budget committee, now on file. The fire department cost will be increased from $23,886 to $34,651, independent of any action that may be taken in the voting of bonds for the proposed new pump, $13,500.

Two Persons ARE GRILLED BY OFFICIALS

Ralph Gorsline, Vestryman, and Maid in Hall Home Severely Quizzed by District Attorney.

INDICTMENTS EXPECTED WHEN JURY MEETS

Servant Denies Conversation With Mrs. Hall Before Murder Found

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Oct. 21.—Developments in the investigation of the murder of the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and Mrs. Eleanor Reinhardt Mills tonight centered about the sitting of the Somerset county grand jury at Somerville, Monday when, it is learned, indictments against at least two persons, probably a man and a woman, will be asked by County Prosecutor Beekman.

Confident that he has built up a stronger case than is generally believed, Prosecutor Beekman today questioned several of the newer figures in the mystery. He disclosed nothing of the results, nor the identity of the two persons, said to have been eye witnesses of the double slaying, upon whose testimony he is believed to rely greatly in obtaining the indictments.

INDICTMENTS EXPECTED WHEN JURY MEETS

Servant Denies Conversation With Mrs. Hall Before Murder Found

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Oct. 21.—Developments in the investigation of the murder of the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and Mrs. Eleanor Reinhardt Mills tonight centered about the sitting of the Somerset county grand jury at Somerville, Monday when, it is learned, indictments against at least two persons, probably a man and a woman, will be asked by County Prosecutor Beekman.

Confident that he has built up a stronger case than is generally believed, Prosecutor Beekman today questioned several of the newer figures in the mystery. He disclosed nothing of the results, nor the identity of the two persons, said to have been eye witnesses of the double slaying, upon whose testimony he is believed to rely greatly in obtaining the indictments.

Two Are Questioned

Two persons were questioned today, one a maid in the Hall home, and the other a vestryman in the rector's church. The latter, Ralph V. M. Gorsline, who was examined in his home by Prosecutor Beekman, was reported to have accompanied a young woman home from the Y. M. C. A. on the night of the murder. Whether in so doing, he chanced upon knowledge of the crime either in passing the scene of the murder or elsewhere, was not learned.

Maid is Grilled

Timothy N. Pfeiffer, counsel for Mrs. Hall, made known the nature of the examination of Barbara Tough, a maid in the Hall home, who was grilled for two hours today. The maid denied he said, that Mrs. Hall told her of the minister's death before the finding of the bodies was announced.

Indictment Expected

Whether it is upon these witnesses that Prosecutor Beekman intends to build the case he will present to the grand jury Monday or upon discoveries not yet made public, is not known. He expressed confidence of obtaining an indictment, however, saying he has something to justify his action in putting the case before that body.

New Fashions Fail to Have College Approval

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—Long clinging skirts, high heels and narrow vamp shoes did not prove popular at a meeting of the deans of women's colleges in Illinois here today. Due to the present sensible style of dressing, the good effect of girls' camps and the greater emancipation of women the 1922 high school girl is of a much more vigorous type than her predecessors of other years, speakers agreed. Concern was expressed that a return to the "slinker" style would mean that much gained would be lost.

New President Installed for Bryn Mawr College

BRYN MAWR, Pa., Oct. 21.—Miss Marion Edwards Parks was installed today as president of Bryn Mawr college in the presence of a gathering of university presidents and delegates from learned societies. She is the third president of the college and succeeds Dr. M. Carey Thomas.

LUTHERANS VOTE

MONDAY, 9 O'CLOCK, IS ZERO HOUR FOR MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

Monday, at 9 a. m. o'clock, is the zero hour for the over-the-top Chamber of Commerce budget campaign battle. It will be a three-days fight against tight-wads, misinformation, Let-George-do-it-ism, forgetfulness, personal dislikes and every other cause that can keep a business man out of the big business machine of the city.

A meeting of the working committees will be held each day at the club rooms to talk it over. They hope to clean up the work in three days, October 23, 24 and 25.

REED MILLER IS SOLOIST FOR CLUB

Singer of Eminence Will Assist Local Organization November 10

Reed Miller, rated as one of the greatest orators and concert tenors of the country, is to be the soloist for the first Apollo club concert, November 10, at the armory.

The Apollo club has been practicing diligently, but with very little outside agitation. The club now numbers 61 singers, one-half more than ever before, and the added volume makes a splendid effect. The way they tiled the opera house last winter, with only about 36 singers points to imposing presentation with their present full chorus.

Reed Miller, whom 20,000,000 people have heard and loved in his phonograph record work, will appear as obligato soloist in one of the club numbers, "The Spring Breeze." This is rated as an exceptionally fine men's chorus number. The program is to open with "Shepherd's Sunday Song," by C. Krentzer, a big, imposing, majestic chorale. A magnificent arrangement of Donizetti's sextette in "Lucia di Lammermoor" should prove to be a star number.

"O Sole Mio" has been charmingly arranged for a chorus with a baritone preponderance that makes it a great production.

The program has several of these big, stately pieces that are like organ music in a splendid cathedral. Also they have a lot of frolicsome do-dads, honey jingles, plantation melodies, love-songs and miscellaneous music that make it a delightfully rounded entertainment. If they do not raise the roof with "The Stars and Stripes Forever," the Great Sousa march with words as thrilling as the tune itself, it is because the roof is double-nailed and immovable.

CHANCE YET FOR THE YEOMEN HOME

Question of Site to Be Decided in April; Committee is to Come

Salem has a chance yet to get the great Yeomen home, where the dependent children of the members of this order for the United States and Canada are to be trained.

So says J. H. Ezell, state organizer for Oregon of this order, who was in Salem last evening, accompanied by E. Bristow, who is to be the district manager for Marion county.

Mr. Ezell says the final decision on the location of the home will not be made till about the first of April, and that the full committee having the decision as to location will visit Oregon in February, and look over the sites offered here.

Mr. Farmer, who is to have charge of the development and operation of the great home, is still traveling, looking over the 500 sites offered in this country, and he must make up a full report on each location examined, before the full committee can start on its tour of inspection of the places viewed by him.

In the mean time, it is to be presumed that the Salem Chamber of Commerce will be busy in getting together data concerning the sites offered for the home in the vicinity of Salem, of which there are several.

RED INVASION OF PORTLAND MERE FIZZLE

With Situation Well Cleared Police Turn Attention to Resident Members of I. W. W. Organization.

JUDGE EKWALL SHOWS SIGNS OF SYMPATHY

Headquarters of Wobblies Closed by Police Following Series of Raids

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 21. With the threatened I. W. W. invasion of Portland a complete failure, according to officials, police officials again turned their attention to local members of the organization today and in a wholesale raid on the I. W. W. hall arrested 60 alleged radicals.

The 60, all of whom had been before the municipal court and who had been released earlier in the day of Municipal Judge Ekwall, were locked up on charges of vagrancy.

Orders Issued by Police Chief

Jenkins definitely closed the I. W. W. headquarters and further attempts to hold meetings there would result in more wholesale raids, it was said.

The day was quiet so far as the langshoremans' strike was concerned. Picket lines were reduced according to police reports. No violence was attempted. Non-union men went to and from work without molestation.

Though police squads searched all incoming freight trains today they were unable to find any one who might be classed as a "red."

Judge Becomes Radical

Sixteen men who admitted membership in the I. W. W. were among those released in municipal court today by Judge Ekwall. They had been charged by the police with vagrancy.

The judge stated in ordering the men's release, that his association with radicals the last few days had made him "a bit radical himself." The statement of Judge Ekwall came following the examination of a foreigner who had been arrested by the police. The judge asked the prisoner if he was an I. W. W.

"No, I wasn't until I was put in jail last night. Now I am one," the defendant answered.

"Well, I was made something of a radical myself yesterday," the jurist answered.

Despite the apparent change of attitude of the municipal court the police continued their campaign against the undesirable. Between midnight Friday and 3 o'clock tonight 95 persons, 60 of whom were avowed I. W. W. were arrested. Twenty-five were picked up in the I. W. W. hall and about the streets. Eighteen were released after examination by the police.

Wobblies Kept Moving When Eugene is Moved

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 21.—Seventy-five of the I. W. W. who had been ordered out of Portland arrived in Eugene on a freight train today and swarmed over the Southern Pacific station grounds. The police ordered them out of the city. They scattered in different directions and while some of them are believed to have remained here they had given no trouble up to tonight.

Body of Unidentified Man Found at Eugene

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 21.—The body of an unknown man about seventy years old, who had burned to death at his camp in the "Jungles" north of the city, was found by passersby today. People who had seen him there for a number of days say that he had told somebody that his name was Young. There was nothing on his person to identify him. It is believed by the coroner that he fainted and fell into the fire.
