LOCK-STEP IS PUZZLER

Critics Do Not Know What to Make of Centre College Innovation

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—Football experts of the east were still studying today the puzzling lock-step shift employed by the doughy eleven from Centre college, Danville, Ky., which lost to Harvard at Cambridge Saturday 24 to 10. Should it be taken up and employed widely, critics are wondering how the rules would be affected by such shifts.

As used by the southern Saturday it was in conformity with established regulations, including the newly classified rules on shift plays which has been sufficiently cleared by the rules committee of the Intercollegiate Football association as to be universally interpreted to prevent all but one man on an attacking team being in motion before the ball is passed.

Shift is Effective

Those who saw the Harvard-Centre game Saturday know that the lock-step shift is effective even if they aren't quite clear why it should be more demoralizing to a team on the defense, than the more common shift plays are.

Being new it had the element of surprise, not only to the spectators but to the Harvard team, which required a number of plays to accustom itself to the strange sight of a whole team marching, hand on shoulder and in the approved Sing Sing style, and then trooping back before the ball was snapped.

More Time Required

The one objection raised against the lock-step shift seems to be the time it requires, particularly when the quarterback adds an extra figure to his signals and the whole team "fronts" and "right abouts" with the precision of a troop of circus Zouaves.

W. U. CAUSE IS PRESENTED

Willamette Endowment Addressed Heard in Methodist Pulpits of State

The big Willamette university million-dollar endowment campaign was more or less formally opened Sunday all over the Oregon Methodist conference.

In every Methodist church was presented the cause of education as it is exemplified in Willamette and other similar colleges. In most cases the pastor exchanged pulpits with other pastors who might be within reach, so that the story of education should be presented in a new and more striking manner. Literally hundreds of educational sermons were preached out over the state on this one subject. Some remarkable enthusiasm is reported, though no financial pledges were asked for or received.

University Organized

Yesterday the university itself was organized to carry on the endowment campaign from the inside. A faculty committee, composed of Dean George H. Alden, and Profs. E. C. Richards and Florian von Eschen, will look vigorously after the faculty subscriptions and interest in the campaign. A committee headed by the president of the student body and the four class presidents will supervise the general student campaign.

Nearly Half Subscribed

Various gratifying sums are being sent in voluntarily, some of them up to $1000 or more, without being definitely solicited. The campaign starts with almost half of the total sum of $1,250,000 already guaranteed in three big subscriptions. It is conceded that the raising of the last part will be the supreme test, but the present outlook, as seen by the organization committee, is for the raising of the last dollar required, for the building of the proposed gymnasium next spring, for the general improvement of the plant to make it adequate for a considerably increased student body, and for the endowment that will permanently take care of its upkeep.

Cincinnati and St. Louis Players Receive Checks

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—(By The Associated Press.)—Checks totaling $37,096.46, representing the amount awarded to the members of the Cincinnati National and St. Louis American league baseball

The St. Louis club's share was split into 28 shares, 19 of the players getting $662.44 each and nine getting $662.43.

The Cincinnati club's share was divided into 25 full shares of $712.41 and a twenty-sixth share which was split into four parts in amount ranging from $71.30 to $427.28.

SHIELDS ELECTED OREGON CAPTAIN

University Team in Good Shape to Meet Idaho in Portland Saturday

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 23.—

Archie "Tiny" Shields, star tackle and guard, today was elected captain of the University of Oregon football team for the rest of the season. Election of captain was delayed until after the Hawaiian trip last winter, and then with the letter men scattered, many of them not returning for the winter, the election was impossible.

Announcement was made today that the team is now in better shape than it has been since the Willamette game when a number of the stars were injured. The team will be in good condition for the first coast conference game, the one with Idaho in Portland next Saturday, the coaches say.

A. F. of L. Stands Against Reactions in Congress

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—The political campaign committee of the American Federation of Labor in a formal statement tonight, urged voters in the forthcoming elections to take a stand against "reaction in congress." The statement embodied an appeal for a breaking down of the "somewhat popular impression" that elections only in presidential years were important and to regard every election as having direct bearing on whether the nation in the future would have congresses favorable to progress or whether reaction should govern.

The statement, described by its authors as a "call to duty," contained a list of "the issues" in the coming elections, enumerating among the questions, taxation, soldier bonus, merchant marine legislation, amendment of the Esch-Cummings law, immigration federal police powers, unemployment, prosecution of alleged war grafters and profiteers and general labor policies.

PHILLIPS JURY COMES SLOWLY

Woman Defendant in Hammer Murder Case Shows Intense Interest

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 23.—The work of selecting a jury in the superior court to hear the "hammer murder" case in which Mrs. Clara Phillips, former chorus girl, is defendant, slowed up today as the result of lengthy examinations of takersmen as to their attitude toward insanity as a defense.

The short questioning of takersmen previously announced, marked the efforts of the attorneys to secure a jury ended when the defense announced that it would rely on a form of insanity known as phytic epilepsy to acquit Mrs. Phillips.

Mrs. Phillips, charged with having used a hammer to beat to death Mrs. Alberta Meadows young widow, July 12 last, exhibited intense interest in the examination of prospective jurors today and frequently consulted with her attorney before he would exercise any of his challenges.

All members of the jury panel were given a warning today by Judge Houser not to "listen in" on radio sets when what purported to be news of the trial was being broadcast.

TREASURY TO ISSUE BONDS

About $763,000,000 Announced by Government for Post-War Financing

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Approximately $763,000,000 in 4 1/2 per cent bonds of 1947-52 will be issued by the treasury as a result of the first post-war bond financing of the government. Announcement was made tonight by Secretary Mellon that the treasury had allotted $511,385,000 of the new bonds to cash subscribers and had accepted about $252,000,000 in victory notes and treasury certificates of indebtedness in exchange for the new issue.

All cash subscriptions for amounts not exceeding $10,000 were allotted in full, while subscriptions for more than that figure were allotted on a graduated scale.

"Heavy cuts were made," the statement said, "in all of the large subscriptions and subscriptions for amounts over $10,000 but not exceeding $50,000 were allotted only 40 per cent, subscriptions over $50,000 but not exceeding $100,000 only 30 per cent, subscriptions over $100,000 but not exceeding $500,000 only 20 per cent, subscriptions over $500,000 but not exceeding $1,000,000 only ten per cent.

"In addition to the $1,399,851,900 subscriptions received of the cash offering, subscription aggregating about $252,000,000 have been received on account of the exchange offering, making a total for this offering of treasury bonds aggregating over $1,651,000,000. Subscriptions on the exchange offering, for which 4 3/4 per cent victory notes, or December 15 treasury certificates were tendered in payment have all been allotted in full, so that the total allotments on the offering will aggregate slightly over $763,000,000.

BANTA FUNERAL HELD YESTERDAY

Impressive Services Held for Salem Soldier Who Served Overseas

Francis N. Banta, overseas veteran of the world war, and member of old Company M, was buried yesterday in the I. O. O. F. cemetery. Comrades and brother officers were among the throng that attended the funeral.

A firing squad in command of Corporal Elmer Ross and composed of Harry Plant, Paul Hendricks, Angus Frazier, Carl Hultenberg and J. Gibson, fired the final salute over the grave of their comrades, and Edwin Payne sounded taps, which were re-echoed from the distant hills by second bugler George Heck.

Six brother officers acted as pallbearers. They were Col. Conrad Stafrin, Dallas; Col. Carel Abrams, Maj. James Dusenbury, Major L. A. Bowman, Portland; Lieutenant Peter Lauritzen, Portland; and Lieutenant Walter L. Spaulding.

Rev. Aaron Wells, pastor of the Nazarene church, officiated at the services in the chapel.

Rev. David Hassel, pastor of the Scandinavian Methodist church of Salem was a member of old Company M and a comrade of Lieutenant Banta during the war. He conducted the service at the grave in behalf of the ex-service men, and paid a wonderful tribute to Lieutenant Banta as a good and true soldier, who had only friends among those who served under him and among his superior officers as well, saying that to have intimately known him was to have profited by the acquaintance. The former soldier was referred to as a beautiful flower, plucked in its prime the memory of which would be of its beauty and fragrance.

The esteem in which Lieutenant Banta was held was shown in the large concourse of people who crowded the Rigdon mortuary to overflowing, and waited on the porch outside. Among those from out of town who came to pay their last respects to a departed comrade were Captain James R. Neer, his old company commander, Mrs. Neer, Major Loren A. Bowman, Captain James Alexander, Lieutenant Pete Lauretzen all of Portland; Colonel Conrad Stafrin of Dallas and Captain Max Gehlhar of Polk county, formerly captain of Company M, with whom Banta served on the Mexican border.

WARNING GIVEN BY ARMY MEN

Weeks and Harbord Decry Pacifist Tendencies in United States

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—Fear that America is drifting back to its short-sighted, careless and happy-go-lucky attitude of the early days of the European war toward the vitally important matter of preparedness, was expressed by Secretary of War Weeks in an address tonight before the New York post of the Army Ordnance association.

"I have no patience," he declared, "with the groups of silly pacifists in this country who are seeking universal peace through undermining with their insidious propaganda, the ability of their own country to protect itself. Who do these people see in the signs of the times to deceive themselves into believing that we can disarm while others arm? In what way had human nature changed since 1914?"

Major General James G. Harbord, deputy chief of staff, also addressed the association, launching an attack on pacifism.

"War for us seems fairly remote at this moment," he said. "Last month the commanding general of the District of Washington put on a little demonstration of an infantry attack. It was a good show, witnessed by probably 20,000 people. At its close the general was waited upon by two ladies who asked where the next one would be held. They said they belonged to a woman's peace organization and he was making war look so attractive that they wished to put on a rival meeting next time to counteract its effect."

WEST POINT, Neb., Oct. 23.—United States Senator George W. Norris announced here tonight that he would not seek re-election in 1924 when his seat is contested, according to a dispatch to the Omaha Bee. Democratic Nominee Has Labor Federation Vote and former Congressman C. C. Dill, Democratic nominee approved in a letter sent out by the American Federation of Labor national non-Partisan political campaign committee to be read at meetings in this state. The letter which is signed by Samuel Gompers, Frank Morrison and James O'Connell, does not mention James A. Duncan, secretary of the Seattle labor council, who is the Farmer-Labor nominee.

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 23.—United States Senator Miles Polinder, Republican nominee to succeed himself, is opposed,

Dill, the letter states, "has a 100 per cent record" on labor legislation.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS
Now is the Time for Passage of School Bill
Vote 314 x Yes
Passage of the Compulsory Public School Attendance bill now—this year—will insure that a minimum number of private schools and private school pupils will be affected. Of the 36 counties of Oregon 16 are at present without any private schools whatever. The combined aggregate of pupils in all the private schools in five other counties is fewer than 200. The total attendance at the private schools, of the grammar grades, of Oregon is about 9841. The total attendance at the public schools, of the grammar grades, is about 131,689. Surely, if the public schools are good enough for the 131,689, they are also good enough for the other 9841.
At present, while the private schools are few and small, is the time to make the change proposed by the public school bill.
COSTS. No tax will be levied for years to come, as the bill does not take effect until September, 1926, and no tax then if the amendment is in the courts for several years.
When all attend our free public schools the additional cost will be slight, for the overhead will be the same. Most of the children will find a place in existing classes and the added expense to the average taxpayer will be nominal. The great benefit to our nation will be worth many times the small cost.
Now is the time to pass this measure, insuring that in Oregon all of our children will be educated to a common patriotism, common ideals and a unified allegiance to our institutions.
